

Florence Adland Wants To Become Spiritual Adviser

Hollywood—Mrs. Florence Adland said Monday she wants to become a spiritual counselor dedicated to helping young girls in trouble.

"I believe," she said, "that so many young girls called juvenile delinquents need understanding and love—not punishment."

Mrs. Adland's daughter, Beverly Adland, is scheduled to be released from juvenile hall today where she has been held since April 9 for lack of parental supervision.

She was committed there the day bit actor William Stanely, 21, died from a bullet wound he accidentally incurred during a nude romp with Beverly through her bedroom struggling for a gun.

Beverly, 17, will not return to her mother's home, however. Superior Judge Allen Miller—who presided over the teen-ager's sex delinquency hearing—decreed she will reside in the home of Leonard Eilers, cowboy actor turned evangelist, and his wife and daughter in suburban Granada Hills.

Said Not Qualified
Mrs. Adland said she came to the conclusion that many counselors associated with her daughter during her confinement were not qualified to work with youngsters who find themselves at odds with the law.

"They (the delinquents) need the kind of help I can give them," Mrs. Adland said. She allowed, however, that the undertaking would have to wait until after her scheduled court appearance Thursday on charges of contributing to Beverly's delinquency.

Local Man Sentenced On Larceny Charge

James Louis Reed, 1308 Maple dr., Medford, has been sentenced to nine months less two weeks already served in the county jail.

Reed pleaded guilty in district court Monday to charges of petty larceny. He was charged with taking $40 from the 100 Club in Medford.

TRY OUT COSTS
Bennington, Vt.—Michael T. Farmer, 17, was fined $20 for driving 70 miles an hour in a 40-mile-an-hour zone because "I was buying a car and naturally wanted to try it out."
