Deaf Children Can Learn To Talk

Mrs. John Manning of 3517 Warner Blvd., Burbank, Calif., sends me a booklet entitled "Deaf Children Can Talk" written by Mary D. Sheffield who, with her old teacher, Ann Reno Margulies, learned some simple ways of teaching deaf children to speak well. Perhaps mothers on isolated farms or ranches could get help from this booklet which is printed by the Vanguard Press, 155 East Angeleno St., Burbank, California.

Dr. Frederic Wertham, that wise and thoughtful psychiatrist, who once deplored a disgusting type of comic book which our children delight in, now has written a fine article on "How Movie and TV Violence Affects Children." I am sure that if the proverbial man from Mars were to spend a few evenings in our homes, seated with the children eagerly watching the TV shows, he would be astounded and horrified. He would keep asking us, "Why are you raising your children on pictures of crime? And why at the same

Grange News

A memorial service was presented for Central Point Grange Friday by the chaplain, Mrs. Charles Morehouse. Those participating in the memorial were Master Benton Boyce, Chaplain Mrs. L. C. Gorden, Lecturer Mrs. Homer Jeffries, and Pianist Mrs. Gaston Floux. The tableaux was under the direction of Mrs. Walter Mang, Mrs. Fred Kuest sang solos. A floral spray for the altar was made by Mrs. Gorden. The service was in memory of Mrs. Gene McCurley, Robert Hague, and Mr. Warren who died during the past year.

During the business session, Charles Morehouse reported the progress of plans for the Grange Festival in July. Tickets are available from Morehouse. He urged all Grangers to reserve the date, as it is hoped to make it an annual affair for all Grangers in the county and their friends. The exhibit on the display table was arranged by Marshall Weidman. It consisted of glass floats, shells, and seaweed from the coast and red-wood burls. Jackson County Pomona Grange will exemplify the fifth degree May 28 in the Central Point Grange hall. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cyr of Phoenix and Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Roberts of Roxy Ann Grange. Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Gorden, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jensen, and Mrs. K. Heffner were on the serving committee.

Car, Building Are Damaged in Mishap

A 21-year-old Talent man fell asleep at the wheel of the car he was operating early yesterday morning in downtown Medford and struck a parked car and a building causing considerable damage to both, according to Medford police.

The driver, Robert Duane Lucier, was in a state of shock when police arrived, and was taken to the Rogue Valley hospital by ambulance where he was treated and released.

Lucier told police he was headed south on Central ave. when he apparently fell asleep. He said he remembered nothing until after the accident had occurred.

Police said considerable damage was done to both vehicles and to the front of the Davenport Appliance Shop, 405 North Central ave.

No citations were issued, they said.

A METEOR IS RARELY LARGER THAN A GRAIN OF SAND!
