Giants, Orioles Take Over Leadership in Major Loops

By FRED DOWN
United Press International

The kid from Class B Paul Richards said was his "spring headache" is giving the Baltimore Orioles a king-sized hangover.

He's Steve Barber—a 21-year-old left-hander Coach Harry Breechen says "can throw a strawber through a locomotive"—and right now he looks like the rookie find of a lifetime.

Only three weeks ago Richards had Barber ticketed for the minors but Tuesday night he pitched the Orioles into a half-game lead in the American league with a 6-1 victory over the Chicago White Sox. The six-foot, 190-pounder now owns a 4-1 record and a glittering 1.66 earned run average—not bad for a kid who was 7-11 at Pensacola of the Alabama-Florida league in 1959.

This is the first time the Orioles have been in first place at this stage of the season since they switched to Baltimore and it appears it's time for the "big boys" to start taking them seriously. Richards himself insists it's already "later than they think" and that the young Orioles already have come of age.

The Cleveland Indians beat the Washington Senators, 7-2, and moved past the White Sox into second place; the Detroit Tigers whitewashed the New York Yankees, 4-0, and the Kansas City Athletics dealt the Boston Red Sox their 10th straight loss, 6-2, in other American league games.

The San Francisco Giants reclaimed first place in the National league by eight percentage points when they defeated the Philadelphia Phillies, 4-0, and the Los Angeles Dodgers beat the Pittsburgh Pirates, 4-2. Milwaukee at St. Louis and Chicago at Cincinnati were rained out.

Jim (Mudcat) Grant downed the Senators for the 12th straight time over a two-year period with a four-hitter. It was a shutout until Jim Lemon's two-run homer in the ninth.

Don Mossi, who beat the Yankees six times last season, pitched a four-hitter as the Tigers scored their ninth win in 13 games and moved to within a game of fourth-place New York.

Bud Daley pitched an eight-hitter and Jerry Lumpe and Marv Throneberry hit homers for the Athletics, who routed Dave Hillman in the fourth inning. It was Daley's fourth win against two defeats.

Sam Jones finally turned in a top-notch road performance when he pitched a walk-less game for the Giants, Willie Mays doubled home the Giants' first run and singled their second into scoring position before they added their final runs in the eighth.

Gil Hodges' two-run homer and Johnny Podres' eight-hitter combined to dump the Pirates into second place. Hodges' homer came in the second inning after a leadoff single by "nature boy" Frank Howard, who also drove in a run with a sacrifice fly.

Archie Favored To Beat Willi

Indianapolis, Ind. — (UPI) — Light heavyweight champion Archie Moore, admitting he's not in the best physical condition, was favored to defeat Willi Besmanoff in tonight's television fight.

The bout will give the titleholder a "payday" before his next defense.

It will be an unusual fight for Moore, who usually doesn't step into the ring unless his title is at stake. But he was guaranteed $25,000 for the encounter and it will serve as a warm-up for his next title defense, in two months against Eric Shoopner, the European 175 pound champion.

Unheralded Yank Tips Ex-Champ

Portrush, Northern Ireland — (UPI) — Ralph Morrow, an unheralded American serviceman from Oklahoma City, Okla., upset former champion Reid Jack of Scotland, 5 and 4, today to reach the fourth round of the British Amateur Golf Championship.

Only one other U.S. player, Bob Cochran, St. Louis, survived the third round as four Yanks, including highly touted Tim Holland, Rockville Centre, N.Y., suffered ignominious defeats on the rainswept Royal Portrush Course.

Cochran joined Morrow in this afternoon's fourth round with an easy 5 and 4 triumph over B.R. Pitchford of England.

Three-Putts 19th

Holland, a semifinalist in the 1958 tournament, three-putted the 19th hole to drop a 1-up decision to England's Brian Chapman, a former Cambridge University golfer who has never won even a club championship.

The other Yanks blown off the course by a combination of the elements and erratic putting were Don Dawson, Detroit; Bill Gibson, Louisville, Ky.; and Maj. Hiram Snowden, Savannah, Ga.

W. G. Pierce, a tiny but scrappy English club steward, eliminated Dawson, 2 and 1; John Boston of Ireland whipped Gibson, 4 and 3, and John Duncan of Ireland posted a 5 and 4 victory over Snowden.

Burleson, Elliott Meet on Week End

By HAL WOOD

San Francisco — (UPI) — To the little All-American city of Modesto, Calif., last official population 16,379, this week comes the United States' finest "bottle of the century" in the mile run.

It's Herb Elliott, the king of the milers from Australia; Daryl Burleson, the top hope of the United States after his brilliant 3:58.6 a month ago, and Laszlo Tabori, ex-Hungarian, who is returning to condition after a 3.59.6 minute mile before he fled from his native land four years ago.

This trio heads up the finest field ever put together in this country for the "magic mile."

Great Also-Rans

And pushing them will be such greats as Jim Beatty of the Santa Clara Youth Village, who beat Burleson for the national AAU indoor championship in New York; and Bill Dellinger, ex-Oregon ace.

So why is a show like this being staged in a little city like Modesto?

Nineteen years ago Tom Moore, one-time U.S. hurdles champion while running for the University of California, had a brain-child. He wanted to put his home town of Modesto on the map as a track and field town. He got the chamber of commerce to support him.

Semi-Pro Diamonders Vie Tonight

Medford Bowling lanes baseball team will oppose Grants Pass this evening.

Game time is 8 p.m. at Memorial stadium, White City.

The teams are members of the Rogue Valley league but this is a kings-x engagement. Jim Eggers likely will draw the pitching assignment for the Bowlers with Kay Vaughn doing the catching.

Tonight's game will be the baseball inaugural for this season at the Veterans Administration home. Wet grounds forced the Keglers to move their game with Dunsuir into Medford last Sunday.

League play is to open this Sunday with Grants Pass at Ashland and Roseburg at Crescent City. Calif. Medford has a bye.
