Tornado Will Face Parkrose For State A-1 Prep Diamond Banner

AIDS TORNADO CAUSE — Wayne Thompson, above, got two hits in four times at bat yesterday and drove in two runs, hitting in the cleanup spot for Medford high in its 8 to 0 state A-1 semifinal baseball victory over The Dalles. He entered the game when first baseman Lowell Dean was hurt. Bob Quinney was shifted to first and Thompson took over in center field.

Medford Shuts Out The Dalles 8-0 in Semifinal Scuffle

Will Medford high's powerful baseball aggregation make this the greatest school year in Black Tornado sports by wresting the Oregon Class A-1 diadem and bringing to the school an unparalleled triple crown?

The Tornado stood just one game away from that possible achievement Tuesday when it thrashed The Dalles here 8 to 0 in a state prep semi-final clash. Golden opportunity presents itself on Saturday night when the Medfordites go all out to add the big school titular diamond trophy to the ones captured in two other sports—in football and basketball.

Medford will oppose Parkrose in Portland's Multnomah stadium on Saturday in the last game of a tripleheader to determine Oregon championships. Class B and A-2 mantles will be decided before the A-1 hassle.

Parkrose nicked Hillsboro 5 to 4 yesterday in a semi-final ruckus.

Four-Hitter

Medford, in stretching its season status to 25-1-1, sallied through the Tuesday playoff on the four-hit, nine-strikeout twirling of Jerry Anderson, the stellar reserve performance of Wayne Thompson, hard slugging by Cal Dean and Mike Parsons and some fine bat work by Ken Jensen, Dick Ragsdale and Bob Quinney. It had adequate defense and alertness to opportunity.

Thompson, who entered the tussle when Lowell Dean rehurt his ailing shoulder on the first field play of the game, came through in the cleanup batting slot with two hits in four times up and two runs batted in. Another run scored for Medford on an error resulting from a Thompson rap. Playing in center field, Thompson also threw out a runner who overran second base.

The Tornado's initial run was in the first inning when Ragsdale walked, Jensen singled and Thompson grounded out. Two counters crossed home in the third canto when Jim Barry was hit by a pitch, Cal Dean knocked a deep high fly triple to right center field and Thompson socked the ball deep to second baseman Sam Muller. The infielder made a great stop and threw to first but baseman George Vass pulled his foot off the bag, and the miscue prevented a third Medford out.

Five-Run Splurge

Medford clung to this 3 to 0 margin through three more Indian batting turns then kicked up a five-run splurge in the sixth stanza to put the frosting on the victory cake.

Parsons led off the Tornado uprising with his double. Quinney singled him home and Ralph Sallee replaced starter Larry Wagaman on the mound for The Dalles with one out. Ray Konopasek forced Quinney out at second base but Barry and Cal Dean walked to load the sacks. Ragsdale put down a sacrifice but and Konoposek was safe on the squeeze play at home.

Jensen grounded out bringing Barry across the platter and Dean romped in when Sallee failed to nab catcher Rich Fandry's throw back to the mound. Thompson hit to score Ragsdale.

The Dalles had its best opportunity to tally when the cause was all but lost. An error, a walk and a passed ball put Indian runners on second and third base with two out in the seventh inning. Pinch-hitter Bob Smith grounded out to end the game.

Own Worst Enemies

The Indians proved their own worst enemies by wrecking two other scoring possibilities.

In the first inning Muller got on base on an error. First baseman Lowell Dean, taking a wide throw from his brother, shortstop Cal, tagged Muller who crashed into him. Dean, injured on the play, lost the ball. Bob Porter was a strikeout victim. On the last strike catcher Jensen dropped the ball.

Porter streaked for first base and Muller headed for second. Jensen threw to Konopasek to nip Muller and Porter's jaunt was not allowed because of the force situation with the man on base. The Tornado thereby recorded a double play.

In the fourth inning Gary Betts singled. Bill Johnson followed with a hit. Betts rounded second then tried to get back to the base but was out on the throw-in by Thompson.

Wagaman held Medford to four hits over the first five innings of play and struck out batters eight times.

Thompson of Medford and Johnson of The Dalles were the only players with more than one hit.

Parkrose Victor Over Hillsboro

Portland—Parkrose high scored an unearned run in the bottom of the extra eighth inning here yesterday to tip Hillsboro 5 to 4 in an Oregon Class A-1 semifinal baseball game.

The triumph sent the Bronchos into the titular finale Saturday night against Medford at Multnomah Stadium.

Winning run came with one out in the inning. Laury Jacoby walked. Dave Chapman singled to center field and the ball bounced away from outfielder Dennis Batchelor for a two-base error, permitting Jacoby to cross the plate.

Hillsboro outhit Parkrose in the scrap 11 to 4. Five of the Spartan hits were doubles. The Bronchos had a 4 to 1 gap after five innings. Hillsboro tied the fray with three runs in the sixth.

For Parkrose, it is the first time in the school's 60-year history that the Broncho institution has made it to the championship round in any team sport.

A-2 tangle will be at 7 p.m. and A-1 Parkrose and Medford vie at 9 p.m.

Lowell Dean Takes SO Batting Crown

Lowell Dean, Medford high's power batting first baseman, paced the Southern Oregon conference baseball parade this spring with the top average, most hits and most runs batted in.

Dean hit at a .527 clip, the only conference player averaging .500 or better on the basis of at least 30 times at bat. He drove in 27 runs and hit safely 29 times. The first sacker also topped the list in doubles with six.

Rich DePew, Klamath Falls, second high average swatter with .450, set the pace in triples with seven. Medford's Mike Parsons and Jerry Anderson were the home run leaders with three apiece. Mike Brewer was runner-up in doubles with five and Dean had four three-basehits.

Ragsdale Most Runs

Anderson with 21, Parsons with 20 and Don Willey, Klamath Falls, with 19, followed Dean in the RBI totals.

Dick Ragsdale, Medford, scored the most runs, 26, Dean and Parsons each had 20.

The Black Tornado of Medford had six men among the league's top 11 hitters.

Statistics were compiled by Medford Coach John Kovenz from information sent in by other mentors.

Sherry's Clutch Hits Paying Off

Los Angeles —(UPI)— A decade after he broke into professional baseball, catcher Norm Sherry appears to have won himself a major league berth with the Los Angeles Dodgers today because of his clutch hitting.

The 28-year-old rookie hit a grand slam homer last night in the sixth inning to help power the Dodgers to an 8-3 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals.

It was his third homer in seven games and the second time he hit the distance to bring the Dodgers a win.

When Sandy Koufax, 1-5, takes the mound tonight opposing Ray Sedecki, 0-2, for the Cardinals, Norm Sherry will be behind the plate, manager Walt Alston assured any listener after Tuesday night's game.

Elroy Face Brings Good Luck to Bucs

By FRED DOWN
United Press International

Elroy Face is giving the Pittsburgh Pirates that winning blend of good pitching and good luck again.

The amazing 18-1 reliever of 1959 lost his first three decisions this year but has done a complete turnabout to win four straight games in the kind of good breaks that make the Pirates think of him as a 150-pound "good luck charm."

Face, making his second appearance in two games and his third in four, received credit for the victory Tuesday night when the Pirates beat the Cincinnati Reds, 4-3, in 11 innings to go a game and a half ahead of the San Francisco Giants who suffered a 9-1 loss to the Chicago Cubs.

The Los Angeles Dodgers beat the St. Louis Cardinals, 8-3, and the Philadelphia Phillies downed the Milwaukee Braves, 12-7, in other National league games.

Orioles Increase Lead

The Baltimore Orioles increased their first-place lead to two games with a 3-2 decision over the New York Yankees, the Chicago White Sox defeated the Cleveland Indians, 6-4, the Boston Red Sox beat the Washington Senators, 5-1, and the Kansas City Athletics shaded the Detroit Tigers, 2-1, in American league action.

Face was tagged for four hits and allowed two walks in two innings but pitched out of bases-filled jams in both the 10th and 11th. Manager Danny Murtaugh sent up Smoky Burgess to bat for him in the 11th and Burgess drew a walk that started the winning rally. Another walk and Dick Groat's bunt single filled the bases and set the stage for the winning hit by Roberto Clemente.

Fishing Class Meet Canceled

A meeting for the purpose of organizing city-sponsored fishing instruction classes, which had been scheduled for tonight, has been canceled, according to Medford Parks and Recreation Director Robert Haworth.

The meeting has been cancelled, he said, because no one has expressed any interest in the classes. The city had asked that interested persons regiter at the city hall prior to the meeting.

Haworth said that if no one has signed up by the end of this week then the proposed classes will be dropped from the city's summer recreation program.

The city is offering the classes, free-of-charge, to anyone of the age of six and above. Participants would be instructed in various aspects of fishing, including casting.

Heist Spurs Solons in 4-3 Verdict

By PETE COLEMAN
United Press International

It looks like Al Heist is trying to hoist the Sacramento Solons back into the Pacific Coast league lead all by himself.

Heist drove in three runs with a long homer last night as his club edged pace-setting Tacoma, 4-3, in 10 innings to move within four percentage points of first place.

Rough on Pitchers

That made it three days in a row the Solon centerfielder had made it rough on opposing pitchers. Monday, he hit two out of the park and drove in five runs as Sacramento beat Salt Lake, 7-6. The day before he doubled in one rally in another winning cause against the Bees.

If he can do it against Tacoma again tonight, the Solons will be back in the first place spot they surrendered to the Giants 11 days ago.

Spokane took advantage of Tacoma's loss last night and moved to within two and a half games of the top with a 12-1 win over Vancouver. Seattle sneaked a little closer by bombing Portland, 10-2, and San Diego climbed out of the cellar into sixth by defeating Salt Lake, 10-5.

Heist had some fine help from outfielder Manny Jimenez and pitcher Tony Diaz in the Solons' win over Tacoma.

Jimenez drove in the winning run with a single and nipped a Tacoma threat by throwing out a Giant baserunner at the plate in the last of the 10th. Diaz, although giving up 12 hits, was tough in the clutch as he pitched the distance and posted his fourth win in seven decisions.

Why?
Depends on how you drive it. And where.
Driven by a pro in an economy run, a stock Volkswagen will average close to 50 miles per gallon.
But for everyday driving, you should figure on getting about 32 miles to the gallon with a Volkswagen.
You'll notice we lay it right on the line; none of that "up to so-many miles per gallon." This occasionally draws an indignant letter from:
(1) A VW owner who gets closer to 37 mpg (usually because he drives at slower, more constant speeds).
(2) A VW owner who gets closer to 28 mpg (usually because of a high percentage of stop-and-go driving, or a heavy foot, or possibly an out-of-tune engine).
But the figure of 32 mpg has stood up well over the years.
And you can put this in your bankbooks: an initial cost of only $1782 and less depreciation than any other car. Practically no oil between changes. No anti-freeze, radiator or water hose expenses. Phenomically low tire wear (40,000 miles itn's unusual). Inexpensive spare parts. And an engine that's seldom in the repair shop.
