

GRAND SPONSOR OF LEGION BASEBALL—M. M. Huggins (right), owner of Medford Coca Cola Bottling Co., and Keegan Townsend, athletic director for the Medford American Legion post, examine the new Coca Cola patch that will adorn the right shoulder of each player's uniform on the post's junior baseball team this season. The local bottling company is the grand sponsor of the team. It will pay for all equipment, balls and bats and for the coach's expenses for the season. Each player is sponsored individually by a local business establishment—making a total of 16 sponsors. The system was adopted by Townsend when he was commander of the post in 1958. The squad will have its first practice on Monday at 4 p.m. at the high school field and will open season play against Roseburg at Cheney field here at 2 p.m. Saturday, June 11.

Sanford Yields Only Three Hits as SF Downs Cards 2-0

By United Press International
Jack Sanford set down the St. Louis Cardinals on three hits and the San Francisco Giants went on to score a 2-0 victory Saturday that boosted them within 1 1/2 games of the National League lead.

The Giants collected only three hits themselves but put them together in such a fashion that they scored both of their runs on them in the third inning.

St. Louis' pinch hitter Eddie Hoffer led off the third with singles and after Sanford sacrificed, Landrith scored on Don Blasingame's sacrifice fly. Joe Amalfitano followed with a double that scored Bressoud.

The Giants, who have been in the habit of stranding from six to 10 players per game, left none on base. Sanford hooked up in a fine with the Cards' Ronnie Kline for five innings. Kline went out for a pinch hitter in the top of the sixth, and Bob Miller and Ernie Broglio finished up without allowing a hit.

Sanford posted his sixth win of the season against one loss. He struck out six and walked one enroute to the victory.

Kline was the losing pitcher, and now has a record of two wins and five losses. The Cards' only real chance to score came in the fourth inning when, with one away, Bill White singled, Ken Boyer than a long drive to right field that looked as if it would go for extra bases.

Sanford struck out six and walked only one enroute to his sixth victory against one loss.

Braves Win Fourth
Eddie Mathews and Hank Aaron hit homers as the Milwaukee Braves won their fourth straight game by defeating the Cincinnati Reds, 5-1, on Lew Brudette's eighth-inning home run.

Mathews hit his 11th home run of the season in the third and Aaron his 12th in the fifth. The victory was Brudette's fourth compared with two losses. Don Newcombe, touched for eight hits in 4 2/3 innings, suffered his third loss against the same number of victories.

The Pittsburgh-Milwaukee game was postponed because of rain.

The Cubs were scheduled to play the Dodgers in a night game at Los Angeles.

LINEUP: Cardinals—Poff, 1-9; Kline, Miller (4), Broglio (1) and Savastri (4); Sanford (4-1) and Brudith, LP—Kline (6-4).

GIANTS NEED MORE RUNS SAYS RIGNEY
By HAL WOOD
San Francisco—UPI—Win or lose, the San Francisco Giants are making a sick man out of manager Bill Rigney.

The Giants won Friday night, 3-2, over the St. Louis Cardinals.

"But aren't we ever going into that ninth inning holding more than a one-run lead?" asked Rigney after the game.

"We've played six games since we returned from the road and five of them have been decided by one run. Won by a Run

"All of the three that we have won" have been by a single run.

Sanford posted his sixth win of the season against one loss. He struck out six and walked one enroute to the victory.

"All of the three that we have won" have been by a single run.

"All I hope is that our guys will break out in a cluster of run-making," said Rigney.

The records show that, since the Giants returned, in the six games they have scored more than one run in an inning only twice—and each of these times they got only two runs.

"We just can't seem to get 'em in bunches," said Rigney.

Friday night the brilliant Mike McCormick tossed a six-hitter at the Cards as he allowed only one earned run. He now has won seven against three losses.

The victory margin for Mike was provided by Joe Amalfitano, the reserve infielder filling in at third base for the ailing Jim Davenport. Joe hit the first home run of his major league career in the third with Don Blasingame on base as the result of a triple.
