Luncheon Given for Travelers

Mrs. Robert Miksche was hostess for a luncheon Saturday which honored her sister, Mrs. Almus Pruitt, and three other valley women who leave soon to spend six months traveling in the British Isles and on the continent.

Mr. and Mrs. Pruitt, with Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Allen Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Miller, Medford, and Mr. and Mrs. Angus Bowmer, Ashland, made up the group.

Luncheon guests, in addition to the four travelers, were Mrs. Ted Hornecker and Mrs. Frank Lewis, also sisters of the hostess and Mrs. Pruitt, Mrs. Richard D. Werner, Mrs. W. H. Fluhrer and Mrs. John McCabe. Mrs. Fluhrer has traveled abroad frequently in recent years, and not long ago Mrs. McCabe made a round-the-world tour.

The Pruitts leave June 8 to travel by train and plane to Washington, D.C., and New York City. In New York they will meet the Bowmers and the two couples will tour the New England states and a portion of Canada. Because Mr. Bowmer is producing director of the Oregon Shakespearean Festival, Ashland, and Mrs. Pruitt is a former festival actress, the four are looking forward with particular interest to attending performances at other festival theaters.

The Bowmers, who plan to travel east through Canada, will attend performances at the Shakespearean theater in Stratford, Ontario, on the way. After meeting the four will see three performances at the Stratford, Conn., theater.

June 28 the Bowmers and Pruitts sail on the Liberté for England. While in England they will visit Stratford-on-Avon and have tickets for "The Gentlemen of Verona," "Merchants of Venice," "Taming of the Shrew," "Troilus and Cressida" and "Twelfth Night" to be played by the Old Vic company.

The Allens and Millers are sailing from San Francisco June 18 on the Villager, a Scandinavian freighter, and will join the other two couples in Germany. In that country the travelers will take delivery of a Volkswagen bus and will tour Europe as a group.

Baxter-Hawks Ceremony Held at Parents' Home

Shady Cove—Miss Patricia Caroline Hawks became the bride of Gregory W. Baxter in a ceremony Tuesday, May 31, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Max J. Hawks, Rogue River drive, Shady Cove. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Mae E. Baxter, 702 Belmont street, Medford.

The Rev. D. E. Millard performed the wedding service before an arch of roses and azaleas on the lawn of the home. Approximately 125 guests attended the 7 o'clock evening ceremony.

The bride wore a princess-style gown of pink lace over taffeta with white accessories and a bouquet of pink rosebuds and white carnations.

Mr. Hawks gave his daughter in marriage. Miss Sandra Hawks, who was maid of honor for her sister, wore a gown of light blue dotted Swiss over taffeta. Her bouquet was also of pink rosebuds and white carnations.

John G. Uerlings, Medford, was best man and Max Hawk Jr., brother of the bride, seated the guests.

Mrs. James L. Hopkins played the organ music for the double ring rites.

Mrs. Hawks wore a pink afternoon dress with white accessories and a white rosebud corsage. The bridegroom's mother chose a dress of black and white figured shantung and a corsage of white rosebuds.

A reception followed the ceremony. Mrs. Carl Hanson cut the cake and Mrs. Orville Stone, sister of the bride, White City, poured punch. Mrs. Joseph Waltz had charge of the guest book and Mrs. Dolph Larson and Miss Eda Larson were in charge of gifts.

The bride was born in Central Point and attended Central Point and Eagle Point schools. She was graduated in 1955 from Eagle Point High school and has been employed at Fluhrer's bakery the past five years.

Mr. Baxter was graduated from Newport Beach, Calif., High school in 1954. He attended Oregon State college for two years and has been

Church Rites Wed Couple

Miss Judith Shannon Peacock became the bride of Robert Leo Sevcik Jr. in a ceremony held May 27 at First Christian church. The Rev. Frederick Ross Evans officiated at the eight o'clock candlelight ceremony attended by 250 relatives and friends.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Peacock, 65 Winema Way. Mr. Sevcik's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Sevcik, 26 Wilamette avenue. Mr. Peacock gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Joyce Hunter played the organ wedding music and accompanied Larry Smith, soloist. Pink and white peonies decorated the church for the ceremony.

The bride wore a nylon lace over satin gown fashioned with fitted bodice and long sleeves. The skirt was gathered and a satin sash tied in back. Her waist length veil was held by a crown of seed pearls, and she carried a cascade bouquet of pink baby roses and stephanotis encircling a white orchid.

Miss Linda Beach, Coos Bay, was honor attendant for her cousin. Bridesmaid was Miss Lois Thomson, Tacoma.

Wash., and bridesmatron was Mrs. Curtis Shomate. Miss Beach wore a pale pink frock tied with a satin sash. The other attendants' dresses were of ice blue. They all carried cascade bouquets of Ester Reed daisies.

Seven-year-old Debra Rigert and Kelly Leo Peacock, brother of the bride, were ring bearers. Debra wore an ice blue frock with baby pink rosebud corsage.

Brent H. Carter, Corvallis, served as best man. Seating the guests were Richard Peacock, brother of the bride, Richard Werner, and Jim Sevcik, brother of the bridegroom.

For her daughter's wedding and reception which followed, Mrs. Peacock wore an aquamarine brocade sheath with matching chiffon overskirt. Her accessories were white and she had a pink orchid corsage. Mrs. Sevcik chose a beige lace dress with matching accessories and a yellow orchid corsage.

Mrs. Carl Beach, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Paul Andrews, aunt of the bridegroom, cut and served the wedding cake at the reception held at the church. Mrs. Harold Olsen, aunt of the bridegroom, presided at the punch bowl, and Mrs. Brent Carter poured the coffee. Miss Linda Hertager was in charge of the guest book. Miss Mary Barbara Beach and Miss Maxine Hawks were at the gift table. The couple traveled to Gold Beach on their wedding trip, the bride wearing for traveling a pale blue jersey sheath frock with white accessories and the white orchid from her bridal bouquet. They are making their home at 1054 South Grape street.

The bride is a graduate of Medford High school and attended Brigham Young university. She is a teller for the Jackson County Federal Savings and Loan association. Mr. Sevcik attended Medford High school and Oregon State college. He is employed by the bureau of reclamation at White City.

Prior to the wedding Mrs. William C. Riggert honored the bride-elect at a shower at her home attended by 25 guests.

Ceremony At Home Weds Pair

Central Point—Mr. and Mrs. David Lee Robinson are making their home at 2615 Tennessee drive, Medford, following their wedding May 12 in Central Point. The Rev. Henry A. Holsinger, Rogue River, officiated at the 7:30 o'clock evening rites attended by close friends and relatives of the couple.

The bride is the former Priscilla Ann Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur M. Baker, Route 1, Box 436, Central Point, at whose home the wedding was held. Mr. Robinson's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Robinson, Route 1, box 478, Central Point.

The bride wore a white linen dress with lavender carnation corsage. Mr. Baker gave his daughter in marriage. Mrs. J. E. Beiter, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Donald Robinson, Medford, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Baker home.

The bride and bridegroom attended Crater High school. Mr. Robinson is employed by Baker's Moulding Plant.

Leave

Recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. McClure, 928 Kenyon avenue, were Mrs. McClure's brother-in-law or sister, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Wright, Marion, Kan. The couple arrived in Medford May 4 and left for San Mateo, Calif., June 1. Prior to returning to their home they plan to visit the McClure's son, Howard, in San Mateo.
