

Students Are Chosen For Tour

Ashland - Three Ashland High school students have been selected to participate as members of the fourth annual American Heritage Tour.

The students are Miss Dixie Revel, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Glenn M. Revel; Miss Judie Coffin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coffin, and Mike Reymers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mahr Reymers.

Mrs. Reymers has also been selected as one of the 11 chaperones who will accompany the two groups of some 104 students from Oregon, Washington, and California.

The tour is sponsored by the American Heritage association, a non-profit organization which believes that through such tours, students in the western United States will receive a first-hand lesson in history and government.

The group will leave Portland June 16 by train, arriving in Washington, D. C., June 19. While there among the places they will visit will be the Smithsonian Institute, National Art Gallery, and the national capitol. They will also travel to Williamsburg, Va.

From Washington, D. C., they will go to New York City where plans have been made for them to visit the United Nations, New York Stock exchange, and other points of interest. They will later tour Boston and will spend one day in Chicago prior to returning to Portland July 3.

Cole of California

Tiki from Tahiti
Bold Tiki print on fine linen-look cotton, from Cole's exciting new Tahiti collection. One-piece, boy shorts swimsuit gracefully conceals figure flaws... Matlext panels assure the famed Cole custom-for-you look. Vanilla Bean Brown, Palm Green, Gaugin Blue, "Tiki," Sizes 10-20, 17.95
Matching button-front skirt, 11.95

Where you find the clothes you love to live in.
617 East Main
Ph. SP 2-8992

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Raymond Graves (Landis photo)

Methodist Ceremony Weds Pair

Miss Vicki Mae Robertson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Robertson, 1020 West Eleventh street, became the bride of Richard Raymond Graves, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Goodwin, 1806 Northwest Candler street, Grants Pass, in a ceremony held May 27 in Meeker Memorial chapel of First Methodist church.

Dr. George G. Roseberry officiated at the eight o'clock evening rites attended by 100 relatives and friends. Mrs. Leslie Boardman played the organ wedding music and accompanied Bert Watson, Grants Pass, soloist.

Baskets of white stock and yellow majestic daisies decorated the church for the double-ring ceremony. White bows and sprays of stock marked the pew ends.

The bride wore a white satin gown embroidered with seed pearls. The floor length gown was fashioned with long sleeves and gathered skirt which terminated in a train. Her fingertip length veil was held by a tiara of pearls and sequins and she carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis encircling a white orchid. Mr. Robertson gave his daughter in marriage.

The bride's gown was first worn by her sister, Mrs. Richard Kronmiller at her wedding in Minneapolis, Minn., in August, 1947.

She carried a lace handkerchief that had been carried by Mrs. John Shortridge, aunt of the bride, and her daughter at their weddings. Mrs. Charles Case was matron of honor and Miss Louise Putman, Sutherlin, was bridesmaid. They wore jade green satin dresses with headbands of daisies and carried cascade bouquets of white carnations and yellow daisies. Candelighters were Sandra and Carol Calkins, cousins of the bridegroom. They wore green organdy frocks with wristlets of yellow daisies. Little Karen Calkins, another cousin, was flower girl. She wore a yellow organdy frock and carried a miniature bouquet.

Nathan Graves served as best man for his brother. Seating the guests were Larry Young, William Speers, Steven Simonsen and Ron Renfro, all Grants Pass.

For her daughter's wedding and the reception which followed in Wesley room at the church Mrs. Robertson wore a powder blue linen suit with white accessories. Mrs. Goodwin chose a beige dress with matching jackets. Their corsages were of white stephanotis.

White and yellow flowers and fern decorated the bride's table at the reception. Mrs. Clinton Woodward and Mrs. Jake Gidney cut and served the wedding cake and Mrs. Frank Morgan poured the coffee. Mrs. Dorothy McCormick presided at the punch bowl. Miss Kathy Graves, sister of the bridegroom, was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Shortridge was at the gift table.

The newlyweds are making

Medford Woman Named to Office

Mrs. C. E. Wilson, Waldon lane, Talent, was elected Northwest regional treasurer of International Toastmistress club at the recent conference of the region held in Tacoma, Wash.

Mrs. Wilson has been a member of Medford Toastmistress club for several years. She is a past president and has held various other offices. She is also a past council chairman.

Also attending the conference was Mrs. Ethel McIntyre, Medford club delegate and former ITC director. She is a candidate for the international office of treasurer. The International Toastmistress club convention will be held in Los Angeles in July.

Mrs. James Vander Steen, Medford, Council 4 ITC chairman, was also present at the conference to represent this area's council.

Kodiak Family Here on Visit

Mr. and Mrs. William Stone and daughters, Zelanna and Zella, of Kodiak, Alaska, arrived in Medford Friday and are guests of Mrs. Clayton Walker, 920 West Eleventh street. Miss Zelanna Stone is the fiancée of Mrs. Walker's grandson, Clayton Copsey, formerly of Medford and now of Kodiak. The wedding will take place in Kodiak in September and the couple will return to Oregon to live. Mr. Stone, who is superintendent of the Baptist mission in Kodiak, and his family will spend several days in Medford and Ashland prior to continuing on a six weeks tour of western United States. Also a visitor here is the Rev. George Wick, biology and industrial arts teacher in the Kodiak High school.

Returns

Gold Hill—Mrs. Ruby Quakenbush returned to her home here after a two weeks vacation spent in San Francisco, Calif., where she was a guest in the homes of two daughters and a son, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Rose, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hawkins and Mr. and Mrs. Bart Quakenbush.

their home at 775 Southeast Sixth street, Grants Pass. For her traveling attire the bride wore a black and white checked knit dress with black accessories and a white orchid corsage.

The bride is a graduate of Medford High school and Southern Oregon college. She is a fourth grade teacher in the Redwood school in Grants Pass. Mr. Graves attended Grants Pass High school and Southern Oregon college. He is a patrolman with the Grants Pass City police department.

The evening prior to the wedding a rehearsal dinner was held for members of the wedding party at North's Chuck Wagon.

The evening prior to the wedding a rehearsal dinner was held for members of the wedding party at North's Chuck Wagon.

The evening prior to the wedding a rehearsal dinner was held for members of the wedding party at North's Chuck Wagon.

The evening prior to the wedding a rehearsal dinner was held for members of the wedding party at North's Chuck Wagon.

The evening prior to the wedding a rehearsal dinner was held for members of the wedding party at North's Chuck Wagon.

The evening prior to the wedding a rehearsal dinner was held for members of the wedding party at North's Chuck Wagon.

The evening prior to the wedding a rehearsal dinner was held for members of the wedding party at North's Chuck Wagon.

The evening prior to the wedding a rehearsal dinner was held for members of the wedding party at North's Chuck Wagon.

The evening prior to the wedding a rehearsal dinner was held for members of the wedding party at North's Chuck Wagon.

The evening prior to the wedding a rehearsal dinner was held for members of the wedding party at North's Chuck Wagon.

The evening prior to the wedding a rehearsal dinner was held for members of the wedding party at North's Chuck Wagon.

The evening prior to the wedding a rehearsal dinner was held for members of the wedding party at North's Chuck Wagon.

The evening prior to the wedding a rehearsal dinner was held for members of the wedding party at North's Chuck Wagon.

The evening prior to the wedding a rehearsal dinner was held for members of the wedding party at North's Chuck Wagon.

The evening prior to the wedding a rehearsal dinner was held for members of the wedding party at North's Chuck Wagon.

The evening prior to the wedding a rehearsal dinner was held for members of the wedding party at North's Chuck Wagon.

The evening prior to the wedding a rehearsal dinner was held for members of the wedding party at North's Chuck Wagon.

The evening prior to the wedding a rehearsal dinner was held for members of the wedding party at North's Chuck Wagon.

Community Church Scene Of Bayne-Park Wedding

Tiller—South Umpqua Community church was scene of the wedding Saturday, May 21, of Miss Sylvia Louise Park to Clifford Thomas Bayne. The bride's parents are the Rev. and Mrs. Hilton T. Park, Tiller, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Naomi Denson, Salina, Kan., and Eugene C. Bayne, La Mesa, Calif.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Marshall C. Foulk of the Assembly of God church at 8 o'clock in the evening. About 175 guests attended.

Miss Darlene Park, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Misses Sandra Isler, Days Creek, and Ardyl Kinney, Corvallis, were bridesmaids.

The bride chose a white silk organza gown, covered with rose tip net. The rounded scalloped neckline was ornamented with sequins in lace in sets. A pearl and lace crown held the elbow-length net veil and she carried yellow roses on her white Bible.

The bridesmaids wore gowns of powder blue lace over blue taffeta. Taffeta bows trimmed the back of the skirts, which were styled with cascading flounces of row-on-row nylon net ruffles. Their flowers were white carnation corsages and lilies of the valley framed with a white heart.

Patty and Gary Jackson, Drew, Ore., members of the bride's Sunday school class, served as flower girl and ring bearer. The candelighters and young Patty wore powder blue lace dresses with frilly hats to match.

The Rev. Mr. Park gave his daughter in marriage. David Howell was best man and ushers were Leon Newman, Richard Long and James Tibbets.

Mrs. Erylon Stone was organist and Miss Kinney and the bride's father were soloists.

A reception for the young couple was held in the Tiller Grade School gymnasium. Mrs. William Howell made the bride's cake.

The newlyweds traveled to San Diego for their honeymoon, the bride wearing for traveling a white summer suit. They will make their home in Tiller.

The bride attended Point Loma High school and junior college in San Diego and has been employed as an engineer's aide with the U.S. Forest service. The bridegroom, who also attended Point Loma High school, is employed by Pacific Plywood.

Suzanne Keaton To Be Graduated

Portland—Suzanne Reichstein Keaton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Reichstein, 7 Glen Oak court, Medford, will be among 70 candidates to receive bachelor of science degrees in nursing at the University of Oregon School of Nursing commencement exercises Thursday, June 9, at 8 p.m. in the University of Oregon Medical School library auditorium.

Dr. John Francis Cramer, president emeritus of Portland State college, will deliver the principal address during commencement ceremonies. Miss Jean E. Boyle, director of the School of Nursing, will present candidates for their degrees. Baccalaureate and three master of science degrees in nursing will be conferred by Dr. Arthur Essinger, dean of the school of health and physical education at the University of Oregon.

Mrs. Keaton, a graduate of Medford Senior High school, attended the University of Oregon before entering the school of Nursing.

Mrs. Keaton, a graduate of Medford Senior High school, attended the University of Oregon before entering the school of Nursing.

Mrs. Keaton, a graduate of Medford Senior High school, attended the University of Oregon before entering the school of Nursing.

Mrs. Keaton, a graduate of Medford Senior High school, attended the University of Oregon before entering the school of Nursing.

Mrs. Keaton, a graduate of Medford Senior High school, attended the University of Oregon before entering the school of Nursing.

Mrs. Keaton, a graduate of Medford Senior High school, attended the University of Oregon before entering the school of Nursing.

Mrs. Keaton, a graduate of Medford Senior High school, attended the University of Oregon before entering the school of Nursing.

Mrs. Keaton, a graduate of Medford Senior High school, attended the University of Oregon before entering the school of Nursing.

Mrs. Keaton, a graduate of Medford Senior High school, attended the University of Oregon before entering the school of Nursing.

Mrs. Keaton, a graduate of Medford Senior High school, attended the University of Oregon before entering the school of Nursing.

Mrs. Keaton, a graduate of Medford Senior High school, attended the University of Oregon before entering the school of Nursing.

Mrs. Keaton, a graduate of Medford Senior High school, attended the University of Oregon before entering the school of Nursing.

Mrs. Keaton, a graduate of Medford Senior High school, attended the University of Oregon before entering the school of Nursing.

Richard Arnold Degree Candidate

Portland—Richard Arnold, Fitch, dean of Pacific School of Religion at Berkeley, Calif. His address will be "Prophecy for the Class of 1960."

Mr. Arnold, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Arnold, 1013 Reddy avenue, will be graduated with a bachelor of science degree in music.

We Give GREEN STAMPS ELLIS MARKET 820 Crater Lake Avenue

It's From Brophy's Medford. Wallace Sterling. Debutante. WALLACE STERLING. See these other WALLACE STERLING patterns while you are in Brophy's. How To Ring Wedding Bells. Why Wind Your Watch. ROLEX OYSTER PERPETUAL. BIG NEWS FATHER'S DAY SUNDAY JUNE 13.

AT HERNDOBLE'S in Ashland... Flint Ridge Colonial Maple. How to Bring "Welcome" into Your Home... JUNE SPECIAL $249.50 VALUE $199.95. Buy on Budget Terms. Call MU 5-8771.