

New Officers Installed For Junior Women's Club

Medford Junior Women's club installed Mrs. Gene Chamberlain president in a candle lighting ceremony held recently at Rogue Valley Country club. The ceremony took place at a banquet which honored the new and retiring officers of the group.

Other officers are Mrs. Richard Ackerman, first vice-president; Mrs. F. D. Nelson, second vice-president; Mrs. Bob G. Norris, recording secretary; Mrs. Virgil Morton, corresponding secretary; Mrs. R. J. Hercher, treasurer; and Mrs. W. E. Sweet, parliamentarian.

The retiring officers are Mrs. William E. Sweet, president; Mrs. Chamberlain, second vice-president; Mrs. F. D. Nelson, corresponding secretary; Mrs. J. W. Grigsby, treasurer and Mrs. Robert Billingsley, parliamentarian.

Mrs. Norris has been serving as recording secretary after Mrs. J. M. Kirby moved to Hood River, Ore.

Preceding the dinner, corsages of red roses were presented to the officers. They were made by Mrs. Robert C. Vincent.

Standing committees were appointed by the new president. They include Mrs. Robert L. Haworth, publicity; Mrs. L. E. McConnell, hospitality; Mrs. James A. Wells, philanthropic; and Mrs. Vincent, education chairman. Mrs. Billingsley, Mrs. R. E. Bridenstine, Mrs. J. L. Holmes and Mrs. Ackerman are the retiring publicity chairman, hospitality chairman, philanthropic and education chairmen.

At the close of the installation Mrs. Sweet thanked the members for their cooperation during the year. She was presented a gift by the members of the club in appreciation of her leadership.

Delegates to the annual convention of the Oregon State Federation of Women's clubs, held at Portland in May, reported to the club the highlights of the business and social activities of the convention. Mrs. E. W. Ingram, Mrs. Holmes, Mrs. Nelson and Mrs. Chamberlain attended the convention in behalf of the club. Mrs. Holmes modeled her Vogue sewing contest entry, a versatile jacket-dress. Mrs. Ingram spoke of the business meetings. Mrs. Nelson commented on the social aspects of the convention and Mrs. Chamberlain made comparisons involving other club projects and problems.

An award was presented to the Medford Junior Women for 100 per cent participation in the nine departments of club work. These include conservation, community affairs, communications, the American home, education, fine arts, religion, public affairs and international affairs.

Mayor To Show Slides Of Valley

Medford Mayor John Snider will show colored slides to the Arm Chair Travel group at the Senior Activity center, Monday, June 6, at 1 p.m. The Center is located at the corner of Hawthorne street and East Jackson street.

Mrs. Judd Greenman, who is arranging the weekly shows while Dr. and Mrs. Frank Roberts are on a Midwest tour, stated that the slides will be of scenes in the Rogue valley and will include some taken of a trip in the Cascades on a Tucker Sno-Cat.

Bill Jones will be host for the meeting.

The woodcarving class has assumed meetings under the leadership of Glenn VanWinkle on Wednesdays at 1 p.m. New members are welcome to start at any time. It was reported. The copper tooling class will be scheduled later when a teacher has been secured.

During May 261 persons attended classes and meetings at the center in addition to 194 who came to the open house on May 22, officials said.

Friday evening a committee, appointed by Frank Glonning, met to plan a new and larger center which is hoped will be built on the same location.

Committee members include Omar Bacon, Mrs. Harry Fuller, Mrs. C. A. Thatcher, Mrs. Victoria Staley, Mrs. Fred Rankin, William Hoxie and John Gribble of the Rogue Valley Council on Aging, and Mrs. Rilla Norris, Mrs. Mary Frederick, Edward Root and Hans Jenson of the Fifty Plus club. They plan to confer with a committee of the city parks and recreation board next week.

A number of public officials and other interested persons attended the open house during Senior Citizen's week. Many pledged their assistance in obtaining an adequate Center building large enough to accommodate the club and the hobby groups.

Bethel Honors Retiring Queen

Bethel 14, International Order of Job's Daughters, honored Queen Marion Parsons with an addendum at the close of a Bethel meeting, Wednesday, June 1. The addendum was planned by Miss Diane Eversham and Miss Laura Ruppert and was participated in by 12 Bethel members using a floral degree. Verses appropriate to "Job's Daughters" were used and each girl presented Miss Parsons with a pink carnation. This was the last session to be presided over by Queen Marian.

During the business session the Bethel voted to participate in the statewide candy sale in October. Proceeds from the sale are divided between the local Bethel and the grand guardian council which uses its portion to provide scholarships to members of Job's Daughters who desire educational training beyond high school level.

Mrs. C. D. Elhart, guardian, announced that reservations are available for two more girls to attend grand session in Salem, July 14-16. Any girl desiring to attend is requested to call her immediately.

June 15, Wednesday, at 7:30 p.m. will be the last meeting of this year, and the first meeting to be conducted by Miss Carla Borough and her officers. If any Bethel members will be out of town at that time, they are reminded to arrange to be excused before leaving.

Couple Leaving For Stay Abroad

Hornbrook-Mr. and Mrs. Norman Martin left Hornbrook June 1 for New York City from where they will fly June 8 for England. Mrs. Martin recently resigned as first and second grade teacher in the Hornbrook schools and the couple plan to spend the summer in England.

Mr. Martin's mother lives in Salisbury and Mrs. Martin is a native of Wales. While there they also plan to visit friends in Swinden, England.

The couple will make their home with Mrs. Martin's sister, Mrs. Edwin Kelly, Alhambra, Calif., until they decide where they wish to settle permanently.

In addition to teaching the two elementary grades, Mrs. Martin also taught music for all eight grades and was Sunday school teacher for the Church of the Nazarene in Yreka. She was also the teacher of Thursday afternoon release time classes and an adult Bible class one evening each week.

Art Exhibit Open Today

The June exhibit at the new Rogue gallery will open today for members of the sponsoring group, Rogue Valley Art association, and their friends. It will open to the public Monday, June 6, at 12 noon. Hours will continue the same, with the gallery open from noon until 4 p.m. each day.

The new exhibit is made up of works by the widely known Oregon-born sculptor, Tom Hardy, by Richard Doi, instructor at Southern Oregon college, and Imanuel Piladakis, art instructor at Oregon State college.

The gallery, located at 220 East Main street, will open at 3 o'clock today for a preview showing of the new exhibit. Mr. Hardy, who arrived in Medford yesterday to arrange his exhibit, and Mr. Doi will be honored at a reception following a movie, made by Mr. Hardy, to be shown in the basement of the California Oregon Power company.

81st Birthday Is Celebrated In Hornbrook

Hornbrook-The 81st birthday anniversary of Mrs. Zela Elmore was observed May 29 at a family dinner at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Burns. Guests were Mrs. Elmore's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Eston Henderson, Oroville, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Greene and granddaughters, Linda and Lydia Greene, Mr. and Mrs. Don Burns and son Seattle of Auburn, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Lester Spearin and sons Les and Mike of Cottonwood, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Leland Stickey and daughter Alana of Medford.

Mr. Burns, Mrs. Spearin and Mrs. Stickey are children of the Floyd Burns. Another daughter, Mrs. Herbert Stickey of San Mateo, Calif., was unable to be present. Also unable to attend were another son of Mrs. Elmore, Ardon Burns and Mrs. Burns, who had left on Sunday for San Pablo, Calif., to be with her daughter, Mrs. William Paulsen and her new baby, Dale Richard.

Mrs. Elmore, born Zela Tyrrell near Butte Falls, Ore., on May 28, 1879, has lived in the Hornbrook area since she was a small child. Her first husband, Scott Burns, and his father were killed when a train struck their horse and buggy at a railroad crossing near their ranch home north of Hornbrook when her son Floyd was 14 months old. Three years later she was married to Archie Elmore, who died several years ago. Since that time, Mrs. Elmore has lived alone. She plants and raises her own vegetable garden and cans the produce. She also raises and tends her own chickens and has two milk goats which she milks herself. Her hobbies are playing her old-fashioned square piano, on which she has a very firm and expressive touch. Mrs. Elmore also sings with a sure, strong voice, and occasionally writes poetry. She is an electioneer of the old school and her recitations are greatly enjoyed when she appears on local church programs. She is a member of the Hornbrook Methodist church, and an active member of the Women's society of the church.
