Day of Prayer Scheduled This Week by Baptists

A day of prayer for missions will be held Tuesday, June 7, starting at 10 a.m. at the First Baptist church, according to Mrs. Roy Rolls, president of the Women's Fellowship.

Invitations to attend have been issued to the Conservative Baptist churches of Selma, Grants Pass, Ashland and White City. The principal speaker for the event will be Mrs. R. K. Jones, Milwaukie, Ore., president of the Conservative Baptist Women of Oregon. A luncheon at noon will be furnished by the Women's Fellowship of the Medford church. Esther White Cross circle, directed by the chairman, Mrs. M. L. Daily, will be in charge of serving with other circles assisting with the food.

A nursery will be provided for the children of those attending.

Week End Visitors In Hornbrook

Hornbrook - Spending last week here with Mr. and Mrs. Ike Dooley and sons were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Crouch and children, Susan, Jerry and Sandra, of Redding, Calif.

Joining them for the Memorial Day week end were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fain, Arcata, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Babcock and children, Martha, Daryl and Stephen, Bieber, Calif. Mrs. Fain is the mother of Mrs. Dooley, Mrs. Babcock and Mr. Crouch.

Memorial Day week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bear were her brother, Ed Klontz, Auburn, Wash., and Mr. Klontz' daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred MacGregor and children, David and Marie, Seattle.

On Tuesday, Mr. and Mrs. Bear, accompanied by Miss Emily Lewis and her brother, King, of the upper Klamath river, drove to Mt. Shasta visiting the Ski bowl.

Visiting Mrs. Ida Chapman over the holiday were her sister, Mrs. Mary Cabler, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Kale, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kale, and Frank Torrey, all of Sacramento, Calif. Gene Kale is a nephew of Mrs. Chapman, Ernest Kale is his father, and Mr. Torrey is his uncle.

Mrs. Cabler remained here with her sister, while the others returned to Sacramento Monday. While here, they stayed at their hunting and fishing place on the Klamath river which they bought last year from Mrs. Priscilla Augsberger.

Mr. and Mrs. David Holland and son Bill of Corvallis, Ore., spent the week end here with Mr. Holland's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Duwan Hamner. Young Holland will spend the summer here and will be employed by the Forest Service down the Klamath river. The Hollands and the Hamners were owners and operators of Camp Lowe for a number of years, and after selling, the Hollands moved to Corvallis, and the Hamners remained here and built a home.

Other former residents visiting friends here over the week end were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Collister and son, Tommie, and Mr. Collister's mother, Mrs. Martha Collister, all of Cave Junction, Ore. Mrs. Martha Collister returned as far as Ashland where she plans to remain for several months.

Mr. Collister was an inspector at the local quarantine station for many years, before being transferred to the Redwood highway station a little over a year ago.

Visitors over the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Smith included their son, Robert, from Roseburg, Ore., Mr. Smith's sister, Mrs. Merle Zink, from Eureka, Calif., Mrs. Irene Cooney and son, Jack, San Francisco, Dr. and Mrs. Roy Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jones Jr., and son, both couples also from San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Jones and his sister, Mrs. Helen Grover, all of Whittier, Calif.

Dr. Jones, Willard Jones, and Mrs. Grover are the children of the late Thomas and Susan Jones, pioneer Hornbrook residents and founder of the T. Jones company store, which was purchased by Smith several years ago after he had managed the store for a number of years. Another week end guest at the Smith home was Mrs. Mabel Pashburg of Yreka.

Scholarship Winner Is Announced

Miss Rachel Hamilton, senior at Crater High school, has been awarded a $250 scholarship from the International Order of Job's Daughters of Oregon.

Miss Hamilton is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Hamilton, route 1, box 589, Central Point. She is a junior past honored queen of Central Point Bethel. Among her school activities she has held class office and is a member of the Honor Society, Girls League, and the Girls Athletic Association.

Miss Hamilton plans to enter Southern Oregon college this fall majoring in elementary education. She is also the recipient of the District 6C Teacher's scholarship for $150 and a state fee scholarship.

Miss Nan Hutchinson, Bend, received the other scholarship awarded by Job's Daughters from proceeds received from the state-wide candy sale held each fall. The Grand Guardian Council of Job's Daughters of Oregon awarded nine other scholarships of $250 each to girls in the state based on scholastic record, Job's Daughters activities and need. They include Diane Dietrich, Portland; Arlene Wade, Portland; Joan Bauerly, Eugene; Lois Williams, Winston-Dillard; Sharon Forrest, Salem; Lani Jean Frenzel, Redmond; Georgia Mill, Glendale; Connie Lee Piland, Astoria; and Sara K. Mintonye, North Bend.

In addition to the state scholarship program, the Job's Daughters of Oregon have allocated more than $1,500 to philanthropic projects from the money received from the candy sale.

Recently they presented the medical research foundation of the University of Oregon Medical school, Portland, $700 for medical research in the field of leukemia. During the past six years the state group has donated more than $5,000 to the leukemia research fund. In the new medical research building planned for 1961 a plaque will list the Oregon Job's Daughters among those who have donated more than $1,000.

Among the other projects $27 was donated by Medford Bethel 55 to the First Methodist church, Medford, for the Beulah Faber Memorial. Mrs. Faber was a member of the Grand Council of Oregon at the time of her death in 1956.

Minister, Wife Honored Guests

Gold Hill - The Rev. and Mrs. H. A. Dierdorf, former well known residents of southern Oregon who now reside in Oakland, Calif., were honored at a number of dinners and social functions while they were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Molloy, Gold Hill.

The couple was enroute to Sunnyside, Wash., to visit their son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. G. A. Dierdorf and family, former Medford residents. While here the Rev. Mr. Dierdorf was guest minister at the Gold Hill Community Methodist church, of which he had been pastor for several years. He and Mrs. Dierdorf were also honored at a dinner given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester James and son Dwight in Sams Valley, while they were visiting in southern Oregon.

The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Dierdorf were also honored at a dinner given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert A. Mack, and the Rev. and Mrs. John W. Roelofs.

Association Sets Executive Meeting - An executive meeting of the Degree of Honor Protective association will be held at the home of Mrs. Arthur Webster, 401 East 12th street.

Registrations Still Open For Camp Fire Girls

A few registrations are available for the Camp Fire Girls summer camp at Dead Indian Soda springs. It has been announced from CFG headquarters. As soon as they are filled, registrations will be closed except for the waiting list in case of cancellations.

The Blue Bird section has one opening, there is one in the fourth grade unit for girls who have "flown up" into Camp Fire this spring; three openings are available in the fifth grade unit, and there is one in the sixth grade and junior high school age unit.

There are also two openings for counselors, it was reported. Girls or women applying must be more than 18 years of age with Camp Fire experience preferred. It is stated. Anyone interested may apply by calling the CFG office, Spring 3-5879; the camp director is Mrs. Ruth Gerety. Health cards for physical examinations have been mailed to all registered campers, it was said.
