

Kemmerer, Baumann Pay Off Brilliantly For White Sox

By FRED DOWN
United Press International
The Chicago White Sox have come up with their own "new faces" to meet the challenge of the Baltimore Orioles' "kiddy corps."

They're Russ Kemmerer and Frank Baumann, promoted only recently from the bullpen to bolster the White Sox' veteran staff and they're paying off in brilliant style for manager Al Lopez.

They've accounted for four of the White Sox' last six victories and Sunday they produced the American league champions' first doubleheader sweep of the season with a pair of 2-0 victories over the Kansas City Athletics.

The sweep was a much-needed shot in the arm for the White Sox, who now have won three straight games for the first time in two weeks, and enabled them to move to within three games of the Orioles, who beat the Washington Senators, 6-5, in a single game.

The second-place Cleveland Indians topped the Detroit Tigers, 9-0, after a 7-2 setback, and the New York Yankees beat the Boston Red Sox, 5-4 and 8-3, in other American league games.

Pirates' Lead Shrinks
The Pittsburgh Pirates lost a half game of their National League lead when they were racked up, 2-0 and 4-1, by the Philadelphia Phillies and the St. Louis Cardinals whipped the San Francisco Giants, 9-4. The Milwaukee Braves defeated the Cincinnati Reds, 4-1, after a 3-2 loss, and the Chicago Cubs outslug the Los Angeles Dodgers, 12-8.

Center-fielder Lennie Green's wild throw after fielding a single by Mary Breeding enabled the Orioles to score two unearned runs in the ninth and snap a two-game losing streak. Jim Gentile and Brooks Robinson had three hits each for the Orioles while Billy Gardner and Jose Valdivielso homered for the Senators. Ramos played the game under protest after pitcher Pedro Ramos was ejected for arguing with umpire Bill McKinley in the fourth inning.

Bobby Locke, just recalled from Indianapolis, pitched a six-hitter and Jimmy Piersall and Hank Foiles homered to earn the Indians a split after Rocky Colavito drove in three runs with a homer, double and single to pace a 12-hit Detroit attack.

SF Giants Need Day To Recover

San Francisco -UPI- The shell-shocked Giants get today off-and it's just as well.

They need a day to recover from the 9-4 shellacking the St. Louis Cardinals gave them before 30,528 fans in Candlestick Park Sunday.

In one of the craziest games of the season, the Cards pounded five Giant hurlers, including starter Sam Jones, for 17 hits-15 of them singles. The Giants chipped in with five errors and the Cards ran them dizzy on the bases.

Problem
It's a problem," said manager Bill Rigney, who added a few more grey hairs. "The big three May, Cepeda and McCovey aren't hitting. "And we aren't getting any help from the bullpen. We haven't talked about it yet, but maybe we'll have to call up some help from the minor league clubs."

The man probably in mind is Juan Marchal, ace of the Tacoma Giants of the Pacific Coast league.

Spike Briggs Fights For Life

Bennington, Vt. -UPI- Walter O. (Spike) Briggs, former owner of the Detroit Tigers, was fighting for his life today against the effects of a cerebral hemorrhage.

Briggs, 48, collapsed at Williamstown, Mass., where he had gone to attend the graduation of his son, James, from Williams College Sunday.

to lift his average from .246 to .304 and lead the Yankee sweep. Bobby Shantz' brilliant relief pitching saved the first game for Ralph Terry and Art Ditmar's six-hitter won the nightcap.

Gene Conley scattered 10 hits and Jim Owens pitched a seven-hitter for the Phillies who ended a six-game Pirate winning streak. Dick Stuart homered in the eighth inning of the second game to end a string of 22 consecutive innings in which the Pirates failed to score.

Bill White had two doubles and two singles and Ken Boyer and Carl Sawatski three hits each to lead the Cardinals' 17-hit attack on Sam Jones and four successors.

Home runs by Billy Martin, Roy McMillan and Vada Pinson enabled Cincinnati's Bob Purkey to win his fourth game but the Braves earned a split on the strength of Warren Spahn's one-hit relief pitching for 4 2/3 innings.

Two-run singles by Earl Averill and Richie Ashburn were the big blows of a seven-run sixth inning during which the Cubs sent 13 batters to the plate and took a 7-3 lead.

WARD WINS MAYS

Milwaukee -UPI- Rodger Ward, of Indianapolis, pocketed $6,812 Sunday and took a commanding lead in the national championship point standings today as a result of his record-setting victory in the Rex Mays 100-mile classic for big cars. Ward, who had been tied with Jim Rathmann, Miami, Fla., the winner of last week's Indianapolis 500, for the lead in the point standings which determine the national championship, picked up 200 in Sunday's win at State Fair Park in suburban West Allis, Wis. This raised his total to 1,200.

ZISKE WINNER
Mount Clemens Mich. -UPI- Word was beginning to circulate through the more intimate circles of professional golf that Joyce Ziske just "didn't have the stuff" to win one this year.

But the 25-year-old pro from Waterford, Wis., changed all that Sunday when she toured the Hillcrest Course here in par 75 for a 72-hole total of 299 and a three-stroke victory in the women's Wolverine Open.

HARASSMENT IRKS

Washington -UPI- Manager Cookie Lavagetto and club President Calvin Griffith of the Washington Senators today protested "harassment" of star pitcher Pedro Ramos by rival American league managers and said, "these tactics simply must stop." Lavagetto and Griffith charged the umpires with "making a farce" and "letting the game get out of hand" Sunday when Ramos was ejected by umpire Bill McKinley after a running argument with manager Paul Richards of the Orioles.
