NAMED PRESIDENT—Arthur W. Eckman, Cambridge, Mass., lawyer, has been named president of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass., during the annual meeting. Eckman, former manager of committees on publication, was appointed general counsel of the legal department of The Mother Church in 1944, an office he still holds. He succeeds Mrs. Kathryn F. Cook, Boston, Mass.

Horse Marines Lose Glamour

Camp Pendleton, Calif.—UPD The famous Lethernecks on horseback, who became subjects of many songs and stories for their exploits in China in the 1920s and 1930s, have not disappeared completely.

But, the U. S. Marine on horseback today isn't very glamorous. Camp Pendleton's horse troops serve as game wardens who ride miles of fences searching for persons who violate state or base game laws on the sprawling 125,000-acre military post.

They never get a chance to step out on parade in dress blues and fancy saddle trappings which made their predecessors famous.

And, the only protection they provide is for herds of deer and other wild life which populate the barren mountains of the base.

POLES FIGHT POLICE—Warsaw—UPD—Poles clashed with police for the fourth time in little over a month Sunday at Poznan, it was reported Monday. Several persons were injured, reliable sources said. The official Polish press agency said "hooligans" and "young brawlers" demonstrated against the refereeing in a football soccer game between Warsaw Polonia and Poznan Lech, which ended in a scoreless tie.

CANDY OUTLETS—Los Angeles—About 30 per cent of all U.S. candy sales are made in food stores.
