

Jacobs, Raymond Combine To Keep Solons in Front

By PETE COLEMAN
United Press International
Bobby Jacobs and Claude Raymond are the reasons the Sacramento Solons still lead the Pacific Coast League today.

Jacobs drove in the tying and winning runs with a timely single and Raymond hurried four innings of shutout relief ball as the Solons edged Portland, 4-3, Tuesday night.

It was a must victory for Sacramento because Spokane only three percentage points behind the leaders, took a 10-inning squeaker from San Diego, 4-3, and third place Tacoma, one game off the pace, beat Vancouver, 5-2.

Seattle was rained out at Salt Lake City.

Sacramento made all its runs in a six-inning flurry to score the come from behind win over Portland. Cuno Barragan sent two across with a double and then Jacobs stepped in with his single to clinch it.

Raymond, taking his third win of the campaign, came on in the sixth and held the Beavers scoreless the rest of the way.

New, Better Patterson Will Oppose Johansson

By FLOYD PATTERSON
Written for UPI

Newtown, Conn. (UPI)—There will be a new—and a better—Floyd Patterson in the Polo Grounds ring when the bell sounds on June 20.

—Physically, I'll be five or six pounds heavier—some where around 187 or 188 pounds. This'll mean that I'll be hitting harder and be much tougher in close where some of the hardest fighting is done.

—Mentally, I'll be sharper, fully aware that my opponent packs a dangerous wallop but also certain that I'll be firing some big guns of my own.

He'll be a little bit heavier, a lot wiser and plenty more matured than the Patterson that Ingemar Johansson or anybody else has ever seen before.

My trainers, the newspapermen and experts like Gene Tunney, Jack Dempsey and Joe Louis all agree that I fought my best fight, Nov. 30, 1956, when I won the heavyweight title by knocking out Archie Moore in five rounds. Well, I know I'm a better fighter now than when I beat Moore.

In short, I can feel in my bones now that I'll be ready for the fight of my life.

My sparring partners agree. They tell me that I'm hitting a lot harder. They say my punches are faster and crisper and that my combinations are sharper. I guess I've always been a bit rough on my sparring partners and this time they're complaining more than usual.

Nixon 'Gratified'

By California Vote
Washington (UPI)—Vice President Richard Nixon said today he was "gratified" by the results of the California primary election showing him leading Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

My big opportunity is only 12 days away. I've worked hard and will continue to work hard right up until a few days before the fight. I've studied pictures of my defeat last June and I know what I did wrong. I've got a new battle plan, a new physical strength and a new mental outlook.

Nixon said the results of the election should provide "great encouragement" to the Republicans in their hopes of carrying California in the November presidential elections.

I'll be ready, with everything but an excuse.

Klamath Falls Triumphs In Legion Loop Opener; Studs, GP Vie Thursday

Klamath Falls shut out Grants Pass 4 to 0 last night as Wally Palmborg pitched a one-hitter at Cheney field in the opening game of the Area 4 Southern division American Legion junior baseball slate.

League play continues Thursday when the Central Point Cheney Studs oppose Grants Pass at 8 p.m. at Cheney field here. This game originally was set for the following evening but was moved up so as not to conflict with Grants Pass High graduation exercises.

Palmborg struck out 11 batters and walked three last night to hold down the Climate city youths. He yielded an infield hit to Bob Varner, who was safe on a close play at first base. Grants Pass men got on base only four times and advanced to second sack only twice.

Willey Three for Three
GP hit only two fair balls out of infield range and both of these went for flyouts.

Don Willey paced KF batting with three singles in three times up. The other safeties were by Bruce Brickner, Ray Taylor and Dave Saks, each of whom doubled.

Klamath scored once in the first inning on a Don Willey hit, a fielder's option and Brickner's two-base hit. Two more markers came in the first canto on Taylor's two-bagger, two errors and a walk. Saks got his hit in the third inning, advanced on an error and tallied on a passed ball.

Denny Walker chucked for Grants Pass, yielding six hits in six innings. He fanned seven and walked two.

SPORTS PARADE

OSCAR FRALEY
Sport Writer United Press

New York (UPI)—Jack Dempsey and Gene Tunney both went to the same corner today.

Ingemar Johansson's

Tunney, refighting his old bouts with Dempsey—conversionally-joined in picking the Swedish iron man to successfully defend the heavyweight title at the Polo Grounds on June 20 and also observed:

1. Johansson has done more for boxing than any other man since Dempsey by "turning the hoodlums out of boxing."

2. The Swedish slugger is "one of the most interesting athletes" I ever met, including Babe Ruth.

3. Factors such as pride of race, a European vs. an American and a hitter vs. a boxer are important in this return bout.

4. Johansson is not a finishing puncher but, then, none of the fighters today can be classed as such.

Dempsey, Tunney Together
The two old heroes—Tunney now 62 and Dempsey 65—also will be in the same corner the night before the fight. That's when they team with movie star Jimmy Cagney and the two principals in a special pre-fight show over ABC-TV.

Looking ahead to the fight, Tunney analyzed:

"Johansson should be in complete control of the fight from the outset. I see him playing cat and mouse with Patterson and will be very much surprised if he doesn't repeat. I don't think Johansson is a deadly puncher but he hits hard and can uncork a knockout blow.

"Of course you can't say how Johansson takes a blow," he added. "But it doesn't seem that Patterson can. The first punch which knocked him down in their last fight was not a finishing punch. I don't think he should have gone down the way he did. He didn't show any resistance."

Dempsey agreed.

"If I was Patterson," he said, "I'd be leery of that right hand. I've got to go with Johansson although if Patterson stays inside he'll have a chance to win it."

Tibetans Clash With Red Chinese

New Delhi (UPI)—Chinese and Tibetan recruits staged a bloody uprising against their Communist Chinese officers in several Tibetan camps, according to reports from India's northern border reaching here today.

Several Chinese officers were shot dead by their men, and several hundred Tibetan and Chinese recruits were killed in clashes, the reports said. One unconfirmed report said there were 2,000 casualties in one clash alone, including 500 Tibetans killed.

The reports came from Kallimpong, considered an international intelligence center, and Sikkim state. Kallimpong is on the main road from Tibet into northern India and is a market town for Tibetan traders.

The uprising started because of bad food and inhuman treatment of recruits by Communist officers, the report said.
