Program Announced Expanded Summer

The Medford parks and recreation department, in cooperation with the Medford school district, is offering an expanded summer recreation program in Medford parks and school playgrounds.

The program will include games, sports, social activities, arts and crafts, music, drama, nature lore and special events.

The 1960 program centers will be at Howard, Wilson, Jackson, Washington and Hoover schools and Hawthorne park. At each location there will be recreation leaders who will organize and supervise all activities.

At four of the program centers there will be both men and women instructors. The woman instructor will supervise the arts and crafts and the 5 to 8 year old age group. The man will supervise the baseball program and the older children.

A complete list of the special summer activities being offered was distributed by the school district and recreation department in the Medford prior to dismissal of classes for the summer.

City Recreation Supervisor Ken Lyons is in charge of the over-all program.

Individual publicity will be given to specific events at the time they are offered.

Additional information on the program as a whole or any part of it can be obtained by calling the parks and recreation department in the city hall.

Water in Salem May Taste Funny

Salem—The secretary of the state sanitary authority testified Thursday that the proposed North Santiam power project of Consumers Power, Inc., Corvallis, could result in making the Salem city water supply taste funny unless proper water treatment facilities were provided.

The Oregon Water Resources board concluded a hearing here late Thursday on the application of consumers power for a preliminary permit.

Some Wall Street Experts Say Bear Market Has Come To End

By ELMER C. WALZER UPI Financial Editor

New York—Some of the market men who on March 8 classified the market as a bear market now believe the bear market is over.

They hold that while it lasted it was a short, fierce bear market and it hurt many of the old-line basic stocks most.

Several leading market commentators are taking up the case for a market rise. They look for the traditional summer rally in the market.

The month of June usually is a standoff for the market as it prepares for its summer rise in July and August.

Convincing Precedent

This brings up the problem of whether the "summer" rise may be misplaced in the late spring. And if it is, the market men wonder if there'll be enough steam to keep it going in the summer.

L. O. Hooper, analyst for

Guardsmen Start Two-Week Camp

Portland—Seven thousand Oregon and Washington National Guardsmen of the 41st Infantry Division will converge on Fort Lewis, Wash., Saturday for the Sun-set division's annual two-week summer camp.

Oregon troops leave their home bases early Saturday morning to join advance details which departed Wednesday and Thursday to prepare the area.

Governors of both states are expected for the annual Governor's Day parade Saturday, June 18 at Gray Field.

Fire Hits Dance Studio in Salem

Salem—The Salem branch of the Arthur Murray dance studios was hit by fire Thursday night and damage was estimated at $5,000.

The fire, which apparently broke out in a reception room about 10:30 p.m., damaged that room, offices, a ballroom, and other rooms.

The intense fire melted music records, portable radios and shattered plate glass windows.

W. E. Hutton & Co., notes there is quite a convincing precedent for a mid-summer rise.

In the past 41 years, he notes, there has been a mid-summer rise in the Dow-Jones Industrials (average 13.3 per cent) in 37 years, and in the Dow-Jones rails (average 18 per cent) in 39 years.

"The subsequent high," he says "has come as early as June 30 and as late as Sept. 30 but it has averaged Aug. 6 in the rails and Aug. 11 in the industrials.

"In view of the indifferent behavior of the averages in recent months, the probability of a mid-summer rise in 1960 would seem to be higher than usual."

Eldon A. Grimm, analyst for Walston & Co., finds several reasons for expecting a rally in basic stocks over the coming months.

In the first place, he believes the party in power will do everything in its power to get the business cycle "rolling upward" again by late summer and autumn.

Secondly, he says the gov-
