Catholic Rites Wed Pair

The wedding of Janice Marie to Joseph Edward Hasler was solemnized June 4 at the Sacred Heart Catholic church here. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Grove, Fern Valley road, Medford, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hasler, Table Rock road, Central Point.

The Rev. William McLeod performed the double-ring ceremony at three o'clock in the afternoon. Baskets of pink and white daisies provided a setting for the rites. A program of organ music was played before the ceremony.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a floor-length gown of Chantilly lace with a Sabrina neckline and long sleeves. Her mantilla-type fingertip length veil was edged in scallops of French Valenciennes lace and was held by a crown of Chantilly lace and seed pearls. She carried a cluster of white stephanotis and a white orchid on her prayerbook.

Miss Pamela Grove, sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor. She wore a gown of mint green chiffon over taffeta, with matching hat, and carried a bouquet of white Dutch iris. Miss Bertha Hasler, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Linda Dyingier wore dresses of yellow chiffon over taffeta, with matching hats and carried bouquets of yellow Dutch iris. A niece of the bridegroom, Karen Victorine, of Tulelake, Calif., was flower girl. She wore a dress of mint green chiffon over taffeta and carried a basket of white and yellow daisies.

Robert Bobbett was best man. Ushers were Thomas Caldwell and Donald Relling.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Grove wore a beige linen sheath with lace jacket and matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a green figured print dress with black accessories and a bronze orchid.

Mrs. L. O. Penland, maternal grandmother of the bride, was attired in pink lace with matching accessories and her corsage was a pink orchid.

Miss Gloria Ford was in charge of the guest book.

Approximately 200 guests were entertained at the reception held in the Rogue Valley Country club. The wedding cake, made and decorated by the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Penland, was encircled with white orchids. Mrs. Penland cut and served the cake with the assistance of Mrs. H. C. Witham, aunt of the bride.

The crystal branch candelabra holding white tapers which stood on the bride's table had been wedding gifts to the bride's parents and the white lace tablecloth was a wedding gift to the bride. An heirloom knife, belonging to Mrs. Z. N. Agee was used to cut the cake. The knife, more than 100 years old, has been used at many weddings in the valley.

Serving at the punch bowls were Mrs. Michael Popow and Miss Wava Glasscock.
