Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Raymond Avila

California Ceremony Of Interest

A wedding of interest here was held May 21 at St. Jude's Catholic church, Ceres, Calif., when Miss Myrna Annette Callaway became the bride of Daniel Raymond Avila. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Callaway, 1140 Morrow road, Medford. Mr. Avila's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Avila, Hickman, Calif.

The Rev. Hugh McKenna officiated at the four o'clock afternoon rites attended by 200 relatives and friends. William Peteschick served as altar boy.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a white silk organza over satin gown and carried a bouquet of yellow roses. Her accessories were sea foam green. The fitted bodice was fashioned with Peter Pan collar and three quarter length sleeves. Her fingertip length veil was held by a seed pearl and satin crown and she carried a bouquet of yellow roses.

Sister Attends

Miss Pat Callaway, San Francisco, attended her sister. She wore a sea foam green silk organza frock and carried a bouquet of yellow roses. Her accessories were sea foam green.

Francis Avila, Ceres, served as best man for his brother. Seating the guests were Sam Turner, Modesto, Calif., cousin of the bride, and Jim Merriman, Hickman.

White stock decorated the church. Mrs. B. B. Blair was organist and accompanied Robert Parks, soloist.

For her daughter's wedding and the reception which followed in the Community Center, Mrs. Callaway wore an avocado green sheath dress with matching hat and black patent accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations. Mrs. Avila chose a two piece blue floral print frock with white and black accessories. Her flowers were white carnations.

White gladioli and gardenias decorated the Center for the reception. Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Elizabeth Field, Mrs. Louie Petereschick, Mrs. Paul Chorley, Lodi, Calif., sisters of the bridegroom, Mrs. Francis Avila, Mrs. Sam Turner and Miss Janet Edwards, Medford.

Miss Eloise Kilgore and Mrs. Robert Court were at the gift table and Miss Carol Turner and Miss Kathy Petereschick were in charge of the gift book.

The couple traveled to Grand Canyon National park in Arizona and southern California on their wedding trip. The bride wore for traveling an avocado green suit with beige accessories and brown and beige flowered hat. Her corsage was of yellow roses. They are making their home in Modesto.

The bride attended Medford High school and Modesto Junior college. She was bookkeeper and receptionist for the Modesto Tribune. Mr. Avila attended Hughson High school and Modesto Junior college. He is a planning technician with the Modesto planning department.

Among the out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Callaway, parents of the bride, and Shelly Callaway, all Medford.

Citrus Dressing

New York-UPH-Florida citrus dressing is as easy to make as it is tasty. Thin 3/4 cup of mayonnaise with 1/4 cup of undiluted frozen citrus concentrate, thawed, using orange, grapefruit or an orange-grapefruit blend. Serve with fruit salads.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Ilo Dyer

Carol Mann Is Bride Of Douglas Dyer

Miss Carol Ann Mann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Mann, 1425 Stewart avenue, became the bride of Douglas Ilo Dyer, son of Mrs. Ilo C. Dyer, Myrtle Creek, in a ceremony held May 27 at First Methodist church.

Dr. George D. Roseberry officiated at the double ring rites held at 7 o'clock in the evening. Baskets of white stock and yellow daisies decorated the church. Mrs. Leslie Boardman played the organ wedding music and accompanied Mrs. D. G. MacDougall, soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length white lace over taffeta gown. Her fingertip veil was held by a crown of pearls and she carried a bouquet of white carnations encircling a white orchid. The handkerchief she carried was loaned by Mrs. Dyer. It had been carried at the wedding of the bridegroom's great grandmother.

Mrs. Charles Dailey, Phoenix, attended the bride. She wore a silk print frock with white accessories and carried a bouquet of white daisies. Frank Radford, Myrtle Creek, served as best man. Seating the guests were Don Mann, brother of the bride, and Gene Freese, brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Mann chose a light blue and white suit with white accessories. Mrs. Dyer wore a navy blue frock with white accessories. Their corsages were white carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held for the 25 relatives and friends at the home of Mrs. R. L. Harper, 1250 South Columbus avenue, aunt of the bride. Yellow gladioli and white candles decorated the serving table. Mrs. W. H. Colley, sister of the bride, cut and served the wedding cake and Mrs. T. O. Colley presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Gene Freese, sister of the bridegroom, was in charge of the guest book.

The couple traveled to southern California and Mexico on their wedding trip. For traveling the bride wore a light blue suit with white accessories and white orchid corsage. They are making their home at 805 Siskiyou boulevard, Ashland.

The bride is a graduate of Medford High school and is a student at Medford Beauty school. Mr. Dyer is a graduate of Myrtle Creek High school and is employed by the California Oregon Power company.

'Ask the Pastor' Meeting Topic

Rogue River-An open forum discussion is planned for a meeting of The Women's association, Hope Presbyterian church, Thursday, June 16, at 7:30 p.m. in Barnett hall. Devotions will be given by Mrs. Lee Miller. Mrs. Jeff Irwin, president, will conduct the business meeting.

The forum, "Let's Ask the Pastor," will be led by the pastor, The Rev. Robert L. Maxson. Those attending will ask questions in relation to religion in politics, social is-suces, and other pertinent subjects. Immediately following the meeting, refreshments will be served by Vesper circle.

During June the association will collect clothing to be sent overseas. Clean clothing in good repair is being requested, and should be placed in a box which will be in the narthex of the church. Clothing is urgently needed overseas, especially in the disaster areas of Japan and Chile. The winter season is now in progress in the country of Chile and blankets are desperately needed. Everyone in the community is urged to participate in this project.
