

Houses To Show Films At Center

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil House will show movies taken on their trip last year to South and Central America to the Arm Chair Travel group at the Senior Activity center, Monday, at 1 p.m.

The Center is located at 601 East Jackson street. The Center has been loaned electric fans for use during the showings.

The films to be shown will include Brazil during the fall carnival in Rio de Janeiro where the couple visited while President Eisenhower visited. Pictures of Argentine and Chile will also be shown.

Preceding the pictures the orchestra class will meet at 11 a.m. directed by Edward Root. The oil painting class will start original paintings Tuesday at 1 p.m., taught by Mrs. Victoria Staley. New members may start at any time and guests are welcome. It was announced. The wood-carving class, which meets every Wednesday at 1 p.m. under the direction of Glenn Van Winkle, will continue. The new classes in drama and copper tooling will be deferred until teachers are secured. Help in finding teachers has been promised by the city park and recreation department from their summer staff.

A change in schedule for Thursdays has been made. Both the Spanish class and the orchestra plan to meet in the mornings when it is cooler. The Spanish class will meet at 9 a.m. and the orchestra will practice from 10 to 12 noon until further notice.

Thursday, June 16, the Rogue Valley Council on Aging will use the Center from 3 to 5 p.m. for its monthly meeting. The future of the Center will be discussed with members of the parks and recreation commission.

Actors and directors who will work with the Oregon Shakespearean festival this season arrived in Ashland last week and Thursday registered at the theater. That evening Producing Director Angus L. Bowmer and Mrs. Bowmer gave a coffee for the group at their home. Pictured during the event are (left to right) Mrs. E. N. Terrill, Ashland, who posed; Mrs. Bowmer, William Curtis, Coral Gables, Fla. who was with the company for the 1959 season, and Director Bowmer. The Bowmers leave the week, when casting is completed, to spend six months visiting Shakespearean theaters and festivals in the United States, Canada and Europe. (Dwaine Smith photo)

Recently Retired Teachers to Speak

Recently retired teachers will speak at a meeting of Jackson County Retired Teachers Association Monday, June 13, at 1:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. J. S. Richardson, Table Rock road.

Each will be asked to give a short biography of teaching days. Officers for the coming year will be installed. Miss Lea Paget, a Crater High school student, will play accordion music. A tea will follow.

Picnic Planned By Altar Society
St. Ann's Altar society will conclude its activities for the year at a picnic Tuesday, June 14. As in past years, the picnic will be a potluck event at Hawthorne park. Members, their families and guests will gather at 12:30 p.m.

Following luncheon a short business meeting will be held. Mrs. Fred Shere, retiring president, will turn her gavel over to Mrs. R. A. Naumes, newly elected president. Mrs. Dean DeLap retires as treasurer and will be succeeded by Mrs. E. E. Ford. Mrs. Joseph Butler will continue in her duties of secretary. Mrs. Jack Van Dyck will take up her duties of vice-president.

The Altar society will take a recess from regular monthly meetings during July and August. The next regular meeting will be the second Tuesday in September.

Extension Committee Has Election

Mrs. Lucian Van Gordon was re-elected chairman of the Jackson County Home Extension Advisory committee at a luncheon meeting last week at the Van Gordon home.

Other officers elected were Mrs. Glen Allen, vice-chairman; Mrs. Edgar Pleasant, re-elected secretary; and Mrs. William W. Jackson, re-elected treasurer.

In addition to committee members, present were Mrs. E. H. Ahlstrom, district chairman from Grants Pass; Mrs. Walter Ricks, chairman of the Jackson County Alumnae committee; and Mrs. Leona C. Sheehan, Jackson county home demonstration agent.

Two new representatives have been elected to the County Advisory committee. They are Mrs. L. H. Wertz and Mrs. M. R. Bartling. They will serve for three years, replacing Mrs. Paul Snook and Mrs. Leland Charley, whose terms have expired.

Mrs. Van Gordon appointed her committee chairman. They include Mrs. Paul Dalton, A.C.W.W.; Mrs. Rollin Smith, health and safety; Mrs. Curtis Stockstill, citizenship; Mrs. L. H. Wertz, 4-H; Mrs. M. R. Bartling, azalea house; and Mrs. Glen Allen, publicity.

Plans were made for the Advisory and alumnae committee of Josephine and Jackson counties to hold a joint picnic at the home of Mrs. A. T. Lathrop on Williams creek on June 20.

The Jackson County committee will meet with the Alumnae committee for a picnic on June 29 at TouVelle State park. The new officers will be installed and reports given of the State Home Extension council meeting held last month in Corvallis.

Thursday Event Set by WCTU

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will meet in the fireplace room of First Presbyterian church at 2 p.m. on Thursday, June 16.

The program will include a story of how the Pima Indians in Arizona, laboriously learned how to sing the Hallelujah Chorus voluntarily. They have sung it before a number of groups. The story will be told by Mrs. William Chapman who has heard them sing.

There will be music and refreshments will be served by Mrs. Fred Reich and Mrs. Robert Bridge. The public is invited.

Brownies Fly Up To Scouting

Fifteen Brownies of Troop 52 walked through a Fairy arch June 1 during fly-up ceremonies to become Girl Scouts. The event was held at 4 p.m. at the home of Mrs. C. Herman, 320 Hillhouse avenue. Mrs. Herman is the grandmother of Charlotte Whalin, troop member.

The girls were Joella Bayliss, Jill Blackhurst, Sonya Eri, Alison Higgins, Valorie Hostetter, Marilyn Jones, Roxanne Lewis, Shannon McIntyre, Vicki Milnes, Maurine Pickett, Janet Price, Jane Raapke, Sally Riechers, Ellen Sleeter, and Charlotte Whalin.

They were honored by three members of Girl Scout Troop 192 led by Mrs. R. E. Barclay. The girls were Julie Barclay, as the fairy, and Sharon Chipman and Jill Hibbs, who sang "Whenever You Make a Promise". Troop 192 had helped the Brownie troop prepare for fly-up.

Mrs. Victor Milnes and Mrs. Donald Whalin, leaders, thanked the girls and their mothers. Mrs. Milnes then introduced the troop leaders for the next year. They are Mrs. Myers Jones and Mrs. R. H. Riechers.

The Brownie and Girl Scout emblem and fly-up wings decorated the cake which was served. The cake and punch were served by Mrs. Riechers and Mrs. Jones.

Guests included families and friends of the new Scouts.

Return

Gold Hill—Mr. and Mrs. Lee Matney, Second avenue, Gold Hill, have returned to their home here after a week's visit at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Bennett, and three children, Jerry, Jenny, and Debi Bennett, at Ontario, Ore. The Bennetts are former residents of southern Oregon.

Wearing a pair of white, washable gloves when hanging wash on a windy day will help to prevent chapping.
