Mrs. Oscar Anderson, president of the Medford chapter, and Mrs. William Everett, Hillsboro, department hospital chairman. Following the meeting in the park, the visitors were taken on a tour and visit at the domiciliary. Gold Star Mothers are women whose sons and daughters have lost their lives while serving in wars.

Travel Study Club Holds Installation Ceremonies

Mrs. Jack D. Brummond was installed president of Travel Study club of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, Friday night, June 3, at Kim's banquet room. Mrs. Clay M. Lee retiring president and First District president, was the installing officer. The insignia of the General Federation of Women's clubs was the theme of the installing ceremony.

Other officers installed were Mrs. Frank L. Stratton, first vice president; Mrs. Fred Gross, secretary; Mrs. Beryl Lyon, treasurer; and Mrs. Carrie Walters, corresponding secretary. Mrs. Brummond named Mrs. Ray Gidewell, Ashland, international hostesses.

Proceeding the ceremony a seven o'clock dinner was served. The banquet tables had arrangements of painted daisies in brandy glasses, and tall tapers in pastel shades. Carnation corsages were presented to the incoming officers. Mrs. Brummond and Mrs. Lee were presented cymbidium orchid corsages, gifts from Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hoppe.

Delegates Announced

Mrs. Ivan Lusk and Mrs. O. O. DeBerry have been elected to attend the national Veterans of Foreign Wars convention in Detroit, Mich., in August. Alternates are Mrs. Russell Zundell and Mrs. Ben Allison.

Miss Carla Borough Installed Honored Queen of Bethel 14

Miss Carla Borough, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merlyn Borough, Myers lane, was installed honored queen of Bethel 14, International Order of Job's Daughters, at a ceremony held Saturday, June 4, in the Medford Masonic temple.

Miss Borough was escorted and presented the gavel and the queen's line officers introduced their parents. The new queen's family, Mr. and Mrs. Borough and her sisters Pat and Debora, were escorted and introduced. They presented her a bouquet of yellow roses. Miss Borough also introduced her aunts and uncles, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Fraker, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Porter, and Miss Theima Tolles.

Past Honored Queens Escorted and introduced were six past honored queens of Bethel 14, the Misses Skoog, Noble, Hubbard, Morris, Parsons, and Mrs. Breeze. Miss Barrell, honored queen of Bethel 55, Medford, was introduced.

Also introduced were Miss Sonya Wall, junior princess of Grants Pass Bethel, and Miss Teresa Six, senior princess of Bethel 55, Medford. Mrs. W. K. Sult, grand guide of the state of Oregon, and L. R. Manning, vice associate grand guardian, were escorted, and Miss Diane Evernham, grand Bethel representative to Australia was introduced.

Other guests included Mrs. Charles Turner, guardian of Bethel 55, Medford, and Mrs. T. H. Denny, guardian, Grants Pass Bethel. A large group of officers of various Masonic orders in the area were guests. John Eddy, worshipful master of Medford Blue lodge, introduced his officers.

Miss Julie Gandt sang "Legend" by Tschalkovsky, for the altar song, and Dr. D. K. West gave the invocation.

On behalf of the Bethel, Miss Parsons presented the new queen with her Bethel pin and traveling tiara. Miss Borough presented the retiring queen with a crown of flowers as a token of appreciation from the Bethel, a Jobina doll, and past honored queen pin.

During an addendum following the ceremony, Miss

Rupert and Miss Ellis escorted Miss Borough to the east where she remained while a group of 14 girls, accompanied by Miss Selby, sang "The Yellow Rose of 14." Queen Carla was then presented with a gift of silver from the Bethel.

Baskets of yellow roses and snapdragons decorated the hall and the programs were printed from yellow roses. Miss Julie Faught was in charge of the guest book and programs.

Serving the queen's cake and punch were the Misses Ada Harris, Monte Noble, Linda Farmer, Karen Schultz and their mothers. A dance, under the direction of Miss Barbara Morton, followed the reception.

The first meeting over which Miss Borough will preside is scheduled for Wednesday, June 15, at 7:30 p.m. at which time plans will be made for the summer picnic. All officers are to attend a 6:30 p.m. practice session prior to the meeting. Any girls planning to be out of town that night should be excused before leaving.

Others installed were the Misses Barbara Morton, senior princess; Diane Evernham, junior princess; Laura Rupert, guide; Pat Ellis, marshal; Vicki Ingram, recorder; Cindy Anderson, treasurer; Pat Borough, chaplain; DruAn Graff, musician; Louise Hoover, librarian; Janet Kelly, Linda Nash, Barbara Jacobson, Cheryl Potucek, and Carol Wood, messengers; Kay Fields, senior custodian; Pat Harris, junior custodian; Sharon Mellish, inner guard; Janice Taylor, outer guard; Betty Hatch, lady of lights; Susan Elmgren, page; Monte Noble, prompter; Barbara Wood soloist.

Installing Officers

Miss Marion Parsons, retiring queen, installed the new queen, assisted by the Medford chapter, Order of DeMolay, for the crowning ceremony. Bob Baker was master counselor. Other installing officers were the Misses Bernice Skoog, guide; Mieke Noble, marshal; Marcia Barrell, recorder; Sylvia Morris, senior custodian; Susan Hubbard, junior custodian, Pat Selby, musician; Julie Gandt, soloist; and Mrs. Wayne H. Breeze, chaplain. Assisting members of DeMolay were Mike Phillips, Dean Evernham, Eddie Brownell, Wayne Kelsoe, James Myers, Ted Van Sickle, Roger Kelsoe, Doug Farnsworth, Steve Knight and Willis Williams.
