DANGER! 'SWIMMER'S EAR' OFTEN CAUSES DIZZINESS, BUZZING, BLOCKED EARS

New medical formula prevents trapped water in ears by removing hidden wax

Why is it sometimes so hard to get water out of your ears after swimming or showering? Why, in spite of all your thumping and foot pounding?

The reason is often simple—wax in one or both ears, buried in the ear canal. Water gets behind this wax and it is trapped. It makes your ears feel blocked and buzzing. When you are in swimming, dizziness may result.

To keep out the water, you must keep out the ear wax. And now, for the first time, with New Formula Kerid® Drops, you can get rid of this wax in minutes—without the pain of instruments.

The ingredients in Kerid have been medically tested with remarkable results.

Don't risk "swimmer's ear." Don't chance blocked, buzzing ears, or dizziness while swimming. Get New Formula Kerid Drops, and feel the difference it makes.

A father tried to cure his 10-year-old son of spending his allowance on worthless items by having him write a detailed account of how he spent each penny.

One night the youngster was laboring over his account and remarked wearily, "I sure think twice before I buy anything nowadays."

"Good," the father replied, proud of the way he had handled things. "I hope you always ask yourself: 'Can I really afford this item?'"

"Oh, I never ask that," the boy said. "I ask: 'Can I spell it?'"

"What I want is something so strong the Boy Scouts will ask me to join!"

The owner of a cellar-dwelling baseball team returned home from a talent hunt to the minors and was cornered by the manager. "Did you get us any help, boss?" he asked desperately.

"I think so," the owner replied. "There's a team I saw down south playing .800 ball, and I..."

"Wow! Bring up their top pitchers and batters, and we're in!"

"Matter of fact, every pitcher has a sore arm, and the batters barely get the ball out of the infield."

The manager shook his head disgustedly. "What help can they be?"

"They won't be any help at all," the owner replied. "But, boy, their manager!"
