

Lemon Flavors Senator Punch With Three Sunday Home Runs

By MILTON RICHMAN
 They served punch Sunday and put a real kick in it just by adding a dash of Lemon. First thing you know, there was an all-out slugging brawl in which Washington's Jim Lemon got in the best licks with three homers.

Rocky Colavito of Detroit and Dick Stuart of Pittsburgh entered into the spirit of the occasion with two home runs apiece and Willie McCovey of San Francisco chimed in with a grand-slam homer.

When they finally separated all the combatants, were the results:

The Senators won the opener of a doubleheader from the Tigers, 8-3, but lost the nightcap 12-5. The Athletics knocked the Orioles out of first place in the American league by beating them in a doubleheader, 6-1 and 5-3 in 10 innings. The Red Sox downed the White Sox, 4-1, and the Indians took over the lead by a half game even though their twin-bill with the Yankees was postponed because of rain.

Pirates Split Twin Bill
 In the National league, the Pirates crushed the Cardinals, 15-3, in the first of two games but dropped the nightcap, 5-2. The Giants climbed to within a half game of the top with a 16-7 triumph over Milwaukee, the Dodgers defeated the Reds, 3-1, and the Cubs beat the Phillies, 8-7, in 10 innings.

A total of 11 homers was hit in the Washington-Detroit double-dip. Lemon drove in four runs in the opener with a homer and a single. Jose Valdivia and Eddie Yost also connected.

Lemon belted two more homers in the nightcap, bringing his season total to 16, and Bob Allison also homered for the Senators, but it wasn't enough. Colavito hit two and now has 10; Frank Bolling and Chico Fernandez each hit one and so did pitcher Frank Lary, who drove in four runs while registering his sixth victory.

Bud Daley of the A's scored his seventh straight victory and eighth of the season when he pitched a five-hitter and struck out 11 Oriole batters in the opener. Kansas City won the nightcap by getting to Hoyt Wilhelm for two runs in the 10th inning.

Sullivan Pitches 7-Hitter
 Frank Sullivan hurled a seven-hitter and started the Red Sox winning rally with a fifth-inning single against the White Sox.

The Yankees had taken a 1-0 lead in the first inning of the opener with the Indians when the rain came and wiped out the whole affair.

Stuart ripped into Cardinal pitching for five hits, including his two homers, in the Pirates' opening game victory. The Cards hopped on former teammate Wilmer Mizell for three runs in the first two innings of the nightcap and went on to win behind Ernie Broglio.

The Giants pounded five Milwaukee pitchers for 18 hits, the big blow being McCovey's pinch homer with the bases full during a six-run rally in the seventh.

Stan Williams of the Dodgers checked the Reds on four hits and struck out eight as he won his fifth straight without a defeat.

Richie Ashburn's two-out single in the 10th scored Earl Averill with the run that gave the Cubs their victory over the Phils.

Pilot Bill Rigney Happy With SF Giant Situation

By HAL WOOD
 San Francisco - (UPI) - The sluggers are slugging, the fielders are fielding and the pitchers are effective.

So manager Bill Rigney was happy with the situation today as the San Francisco Giants went into the fourth and final game of their series with the Milwaukee Braves.

The Giants pounded out 18 hits, including six doubles and a grand slam homer, Sunday to trounce the Braves, 16-7, before 39,148 "wind-blown fans" in Candlestick Park.

The run total set a park scoring record and the time it took to play the game - three hours and 52 minutes - set a National league record for nine innings. And it sent a lot of people home late for dinner.

Batter Second Stringers
 Manager Charley Dressen gambled with his second-string pitchers through the first six innings, but it wouldn't have made any difference. The Giants had on their hitting togs. They got seven runs and nine off first-stringers Carlton Willey and Joe Jay.

Sunday's win put the Giants a half game out of first place as Pittsburgh split. It also boosted the Giants' advantage over Milwaukee to three and one-half games.

The blow that put San Francisco in business was provided by Willie McCovey. Willie has been benched against left-handers. But he came up to the plate in the seventh against the right-handed Willey. With one ball and two strikes on him, McCovey cut under the ball and it went sky high. It appeared at first it would be caught in short right field. But the wind caught it and when it came down it was 20 feet over the fence.

"This is the kind of a game we needed," said Rigney after the game. "Maybe our hitters are under way now."

Hurler Stan Shines for Dodger Nine

Los Angeles - (UPI) - Burlly Stan Williams was the toast of the Los Angeles Dodgers today for his top-notch pitching performance against Cincinnati Sunday when he scored his fifth victory without a defeat this season.

The Dodgers rested today on their few laurels for the current home stand, while awaiting the arrival of the last place Philadelphia Phillies Tuesday night.

Williams set the Reds down on four hits in throwing his first complete game at the Coliseum since July 9, 1958. The Dodgers came through with nine hits to score the 3-1 win.

It was only the fifth Dodger victory out of 13 games of the present home stand and the first time they put together consecutive wins since May 27.

Pitches
 Williams faced the minimum of 18 batters in the first six scoreless innings and for the entire game he used only 106 pitches. Shortstop Eddie Kasko spoiled a shutout with a seventh-inning homer over the left field screen.

"I thought my control was much better than it had been in the past," Williams commented after the game. "I walked only two men and the ball Kasko hit was a bad pitch, a half speed fast ball."

Williams said he developed control the past year by practicing on his curve while he played winter ball.

Manager Walt Alton said it was the fast-breaking curve that was responsible for Williams' success because he learned to mix it up with his fast ball.

Ortiz Favored In Title Fight

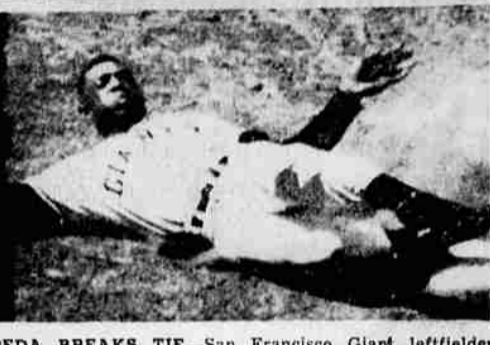

New York - (UPI) - Carlos Ortiz of New York is favored at 11-5 to keep his junior welterweight championship Wednesday night against Dullio Loi of Italy at the San Francisco Cow Palace in a 15-round fight that tops this week's boxing schedule. Loi is welterweight champion of Europe.

Their bout will be televised nationally by ABC.

Semi-final Scraps Set In 2-Ball

Bill Kuhlwein and Randall Gifford will play Darrell Miller and Leonard Schildt in one semifinal match of the men's two-ball partnership golf tournament at Rogue Valley Country club.

Max Millhollin and Jerry Olson will face Dr. Billy Blackstone and Dr. Jack Price in the other.

In quarterfinals during the past week Kuhlwein and Gifford defeated Gene Rieker and Harold Holmes 5 and 4. Miller and Schildt won from Jim Vargo and Dr. Russell Barnes 5 and 4. Millhollin and Olson beat Ray Wise and Bob Dickey 2 up and Blackstone and Price were winners over Jack Mitchell and Bob Lockwood. Buck Has 68.

First flight quarterfinals saw Tom MacLeod and Dr. Ralph Schwann defeat Tom Teutsch and Lou Martin, Alan Holmes and Jerry Cottingham trip John Jensen and Wayne Chase 4 and 3. Dick Finnell and Walt Shaylor bounce Stoy Elliott and Berg Marten 2 up and Dom Provost Sr. and Gene Spencer won over Jim Lowman and Jack Crawford.

Qualifying for the men's club championship tourney of RVCC began Saturday and Dr. Robert Buck fired the best round, a two-under-par 68, as 37 men played their 18s that day and Sunday. Qualifying will continue through June 26. Jim Sheldon is defending champ in the tourney and reportedly will take his seeded spot.

Five strokes back of Buck over the week end was Bob Fasel with a 73. Ray Lindquist and Ed Simmons qualified with 74s.

Qualifying play for the senior men's tourney of RVCC is to run June 18 through July 3. Larry Butler is defender.

Net Deadline To Be Thursday

Thursday evening, June 16, is the deadline for entries in the Rogue Valley Tennis tourney instead of the date inadvertently listed in a Sunday story.

The tournament is set for Saturday and Sunday, June 18 and 19, at Ashland and entries can be sent to Dick Joy, tournament chairman for Rogue Valley Tennis club. His address is 1885 Siskiyou blvd., Ashland and his telephone number is MURdock 9-8741.

Competition is slated in boys', junior men's, men's, junior women's, women's and mixed doubles divisions.

Jake Lamotta First Witness

Washington - (UPI) - Former middleweight champion Jake Lamotta has been carded as the first witness in the Senate investigation of boxing and its possible links with the underworld which gets underway Tuesday.

Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.) chairman of the anti-trust subcommittee which is launching the long-scheduled inquiry, said Lamotta will be questioned about three fights in which he figured as a top-flight fighter in the late 1940s.

According to Kefauver, the preliminary rounds of the investigation will try to determine if bribe offers and undercover arrangements were made by underworld figures weight and light heavyweight fight careers.

Ray Robinson Had Virus Cold

New York - (UPI) - Sugar Ray Robinson's mother, Lella, let out the secret and Ray had to admit reluctantly today that he was sick with a virus cold when he lost a split decision to Paul Pender at Boston Friday night.

In that bout Robinson was trying to recapture Pender's portion of the middleweight crown. Pender of Brookline, Mass., is recognized as champion by New York, Massachusetts and most foreign countries.

Phils Play At Portland

Portland - (UPI) - The Portland Beavers of the Pacific Coast league play host to another cellar-dwelling team tonight, the Philadelphia Phillies of the National league.

Portland officials were hoping for a turnout of 15,000 to help make up for money loss when early-season rains caused postponement of several games.

The Phillies were scheduled to start Taylor Phillips, a big right lefthander, on the mound against Noel Mickelson, young Beaver righthanded ace.

Batting cleanup for the Phils will be Bobby Gene Smith, outfielder from Hood River.

Far West NCAA Playoffs May Be in Portland

Portland - (UPI) - Portland has a good chance to play host to next year's Far West regional NCAA basketball playoffs, Sports Editor George Pasero of the Oregon Journal has reported.

The city's new Memorial Coliseum is due for completion in November.

The regional tournament was held for several years at Gill Coliseum in Corvallis and later moved to San Francisco and Seattle.

Pasero said Spec Keene, athletic director at Oregon State and NCAA leader in this area, has "indicated he would go along with a strong Portland bid now in process."

Dairy Maids Break Even At Salem

Salem Shamrocks and Rogue Valley Dairy Maids broke even over the week end in Northwest Women's Major Softball league rivalry at Salem.

The Shamrocks won Saturday evening 7 to 2 and the Dairy Maids on Sunday 7 to 3.

Rogue Valley now has a 5-5 league record, having divided each series it has played.

Yesterday RV pitcher Ellen Callaghan held Salem to two hits while walking seven and fanning five. The Maids got four runs, enough to win in the opening time at bat. They scored on a walk, fielder's option, sacrifice by Doris Hickson, a single by Jean Main and a double by Callaghan. Helen Wolgamott tripled for RV in the fifth inning. She scored on a double by Jan Bateman.

Marge Hurley, Salem checker, also walked seven. She struck out one.

Salem picked up 11 hits on Saturday evening. Nadine Brood, an ex-Dairy Maid, swatted two for three and Hurley Vivian Reaves and Betty Mantyla.

Wolgamott hit two for four for Rogue Valley, walked one batter and fanned six.

The Maids meet S and W Floor Covering men's team at the high school stadium here on Wednesday evening then play the Roseburg Lumberjacks Thursday evening at White City.

Medford Semi-Pros Split in California

Medford Bowling lane semi-pro baseball aggregation divided with Crescent City Sunday in Rogue Valley league contention in the California town but two victories probably will go into the record book for the Medford crew.

The Keglers from Oregon's Pear City took the first combat 6 to 4 and Crescent City copped the second action 2 to 1.

However, the California club likely will be penalized for failure to send in their signed player contracts to League President Harry Chipman. The president has repeatedly instructed CC to send in the contracts, required by league rules, but the California club, despite warnings, has failed to comply. A forfeiture may be decreed.

Roseburg downed Grants Pass Saturday 6 to 1 and Sunday 12 to 8 in other league conflicts to pull even in loop standings with idle Ashland. Each is 4-0 in the circuit.

Tie Broken
 In the first game yesterday, Medford broke a 3-each deadlock with three runs in the fifth inning on two errors, a sacrifice fly by Bob Serak and hits by Neil Green, George Ice and Doug Kinney. Crescent City had knotted the mix in the fourth inning on three safeties, a sacrifice fly and an error.

Green had three safe blows and Dick Durant two for the Keglers. Ken Vannice, tossing a seven-hitter for Medford, struck out batters five times and walked three.

All the scoring in the second fust was in the fifth inning. For Medford, Durante, Dave Neet and Earle Tichenor each singled to provide the run. Crescent tallied on a triple by Smith, a single by Bunky Peterson, a fielder's option and an error.

Tichenor threw six-hit ball for Medford. He whiffed seven and issued no walks. The Bowlers got only five safeties off Crescent City's Dimmick. Tichenor slapped two of them and Bob Pond doubled.

Ice and Pond joined the Keglers after playing Frosh ball at University of Oregon this spring.

Medford entered the loop victory column for the first time but will be 2-2 in the circuit if the forfeiture is ruled. Crescent City also came out on the long end of a RVL score for the first time.

CP Cheney Studs Defeat KF No. 2 Junior Legion

Medford and Grants Pass open this week's American Legion junior baseball play at Cheney field here.

They meet at 8 p.m. Tuesday in a southern division. Area 4, tangle.

Central Point Cheney Studs oppose Klamath Falls No. 1 on Wednesday night in another league ruckus and the Central Point and Medford nines are Friday evening foes.

Central Point Cheney Studs, displaying sharp, hard, impressive hitting power, disposed of Klamath Falls No. 2 by scores of 12 to 8 and 9 to 2 yesterday in non-league American Legion junior baseball play at Klamath Falls.

The Studs smacked 24 hits in the two games, despite the fact that twirlers from the KF No. 1 club saw duty in both games.

Pat Pepper tripled once and singled twice for Cheney in the opener and Bill Ahorn socked two doubles and a single. Mike Glines and Jim Doster each got two safeties for CP with Glines hitting once for two bases. Edwards, Lancaster and Franklin each got two hits for Klamath in the contest.

Getting Four-Hitter
 The Studs tagged KF pitching starter Gary Bieber for nine of their 15 safe blows and Doug Pfaff, tossing for CP, allowed six of the nine. KF collected. Pfaff and Ahorn combined in a five-walk, six-strikeout hill job. Ken Hunsaker, Edwards and Bieber teamed for a four-walk performance. Only one Cheney player was whiffed.

Chuckler Brad Getting limited Klamath to four hits in the second game while the Studs got nine. He fanned two and walked two. Jeff Ahorn blasted three hits for CP, one a triple and Glines had two singles.
