

Yanks Coming; Gain Seventh Win In Row for Virtua 3-Way Knot

By FRED DOWN

The Yanks are coming—with a vengeance.
That's Casey Stengel's message today to American league rivals who chortled over the collapse of the proud perennial champs a year ago.

Phils Nick Dodgers in 10 Frames

By ALEX KAHN
Los Angeles — (UPI) — Sandy Koufax attempts to end his four-game losing streak tonight against the Philadelphia Phillies, a feat Don Drysdale couldn't perform Tuesday night when the Dodgers dropped a 6-5 decision.
Drysdale, forced to leave the game when his back stiffened after seven innings, held a 3-1 lead at the time and the defeat went to his third relief, Clem Labine.
Koufax, 1-8, was hopeful of a better fate tonight when he opposes Jim Owens, 3-6.
Manager Walt Alston's decision to lift Drysdale was made on the advice of the team physician who examined the hurler between innings. Because of a back injury Drysdale suffered 10 days ago, Dr. Robert Karlan advised against using him further Tuesday night.
The Dodgers got 12 hits including homers by Jim Gilliam and Wally Moon but the youthful Philadelphia club closed the gap to 3-2 in the eighth on Wally Post's homer and tied it up in the ninth on a series of singles.
The Phillies stretched their lead to three runs in the top of the tenth when they touched Labine for five singles but the Dodgers tried to come back, pushing over a pair of runs in the bottom of the inning. And they had two men on base when Norm Larker recorded the third out.
"I still think this team will jell and begin winning games," Alston said. "It's just a matter of putting together pitching with the good hitting we've been getting lately."

down the necks of the Cleveland Indians and the Baltimore Orioles. They haven't lost a game since Stengel left the hospital to resume command June 7, and in that one week they've created a virtual three-way tie for the American league lead.
The Yankees rolled to No. 7 in a row Tuesday night with a 6-2 victory over the Kansas City Athletics to raise their win-loss percentage to .580. The Baltimore Orioles, who beat the Cleveland Indians, 7-4, stand at .582 while the Tribe's league-leading mark is only .583.
Pinch Homer Stops Sox
Pinch-hitter Norm Cash's two run seventh-inning homer gave the Detroit Tigers a 2-1 victory over the Boston Red Sox and ruined Hike Higgin's return as manager in the only other American league game.

SF Giants Cause Hurt By Errors

By HAL WOOD
San Francisco — (UPI) — Billy O'Dell, the hard-luck man of the Giants' pitching staff, goes out tonight to try to stop the Pittsburgh Pirates from making a runaway of the National League race.
Trailing by two games after last night's gift of a 6-3 decision to the Pirates, the San Francisco club is banking on the brilliant southpaw to put it back in the running.
O'Dell has won only two games while losing five. But he has allowed only 1.8 earned runs per nine innings he has pitched.
However, the way the Giant defense has been working in recent games, that doesn't mean much.

NY Charges LA Chargers With Deceit

New York — (UPI) — Ed McKeever, former Notre Dame coach, is the center of the latest pro football controversy, in which the New York Giants charged the newly-formed Los Angeles Chargers with "bribery, fraud, deceit and double dealing."
These accusations were contained in an amended complaint submitted by the Giants in their suit against the Chargers over the signing of All-America fullback Charley Flowers of Mississippi and Jim Varnado, a fullback from Southern Louisiana university.
The Giants' complaint was filed in the District Courts of Northern Mississippi and California. The suit is due to come up in Mississippi later this month. The Giants, Eastern Division champions of the National Football league, hold a temporary injunction restraining Flowers from playing with the Chargers, an entry in the new American Football league.
McKeever now is general manager of the Boston Patriots in the AFL.

Indians Lengthen Lead to 3 Games; Beavers Tip Bees

By PETE COLEMAN
United Press International
You can't win them all, but Spokane is sure trying.
The Indians war-whooped by Tacoma, 5-4, in Pacific Coast league action Tuesday night to hang up their 14th victory in their last 16 starts. The win stretched the Tribe's circuit lead to three games, and that's not bad when you consider they took over first place last Saturday.
Elsewhere Tuesday, Sacramento slipped by Seattle, 1-0, San Diego hung on to defeat Vancouver, 4-3, and Portland downed Salt Lake, 3-1.
It was a night of sparkling pitching performances.
Spokane's Chuck Churn did the job for the Indians. He came on in relief in the sixth and pitched four innings of one-hit relief to save the win for starter Al Nelson.
At Sacramento, Claude Raymond picked up a baseball and threw it right by Seattle all night long. He gave
