New York Knots Cleveland For Loop Lead When Tribe Splits Bill With Orioles

By FRED DOWN
United Press International

That treadmill American League race reached the "Can you top this?" point today when the New York Yankees advanced into a first-place deadlock on the strength of a tie.

It was a long, hard road for the Yankees, who hadn't owned a share of the AL lead since the early days of the 1959 season and it ended on a slightly ridiculous note when the umpires finally threw up their hands at 2:32 a.m. (e.d.t.) this morning and declared a 7-7 tie between New York and the Kansas City Athletics.

The Yankees had twice let the Athletics stage three-run rallies to tie, once in the ninth and once in the 12th, and then in 13th the rain came in sharp, slanting pelts. The umps looked at the weary athletes and managers in both dugouts and mercifully said, "Let's all go home."

Yanks Tie Indians

As a result, the Yankees' 29-21 season record tied them with the Cleveland Indians, who split a twi-night doubleheader with the Baltimore Orioles, winning 10-2 and losing 13-5. Both the Yankees and Indians have .580 percentages and the Orioles are practically glued to their backs with a .579 mark.

The Chicago White Sox whipped the Washington Senators, 6-4, and the Boston Red Sox pulled out a 10-inning, 4-3 triumph over the Detroit Tigers in the other AL games.

The Pittsburgh Piartes increased their National League lead to three games with a 14-6 win over the San Francisco Giants; the St. Louis Cardinals beat the Cincinnati Reds, 6-0; the Los Angeles Dodgers routed the Philadelphia Phillies, 12-2, and the Chicago Cubs won, 8-5, after losing to the Milwaukee Braves, 5-4, in a twi-night doubleheader.

Perry Wins Seventh

Yogi Berra and Cletus Boyer hit homers and Roger Maris had four hits for the Yankees while Jerry Lumpe and Pete Daley homered for the Athletics.

Jim Perry won his seventh game with the help of two homers by Johnny Romano and one by Woodie Held but the Orioles staged an eight-run, eighth-inning rally in the second game to split with the Indians.

Roy Sievers hit two two-run homers, the second to snap a 4-4 eighth-inning tie as the White Sox dealt Pedra Ramos his eighth loss. Gerry Staley picked up his seventh win by shutting out the Senators for the last three innings.

Pirates Blast Giants

The Pirates blasted six San Francisco pitchers for 19 hits, including six doubles and two triples, to make it easy for Harvey Haddix to win his fourth game.

Ray Sadecki pitched a three-hitter and Curt Flood drove in four runs with two homers for the Cardinals, who tagged Joe Nuxhall with his third defeat.

Duke Snider and Don Demeter homered to lead a 16-hit Los Angeles attack that enabled Sandy Koufax to snap his four-game losing streak with a five-hitter.

Al Spangler's single drove in the winning run for the Braves in the ninth inning of their opener but the Cubs came up with a six-run eight inning rally in the second game to earn a split. Ed Mathews hit two homers and Frank Thomas, Wes Covington and Ed Bouchee one each during the long doubleheader.

Youngster May Start at Top; $135,000 Bonus

Beverly, Mass. –UPI– Danny Murphy, 17-year-old pitcher-outfielder who was signed by the Chicago Cubs for a reported $135,000 bonus, may jump from high school baseball right into the Cubs lineup.

Lenny Merullo, New England scout for the Cubs, said after the youth was signed Wednesday that he would join the club Friday night in Cincinnati. The bonus was believed the largest in the history of baseball.

Minnesota Victor Over Arizonans

Omaha, Neb.–UPI– Rain returned to haunt the NCAA College World Series Wednesday night and predicted showers posed a threat to today's program which was scheduled to include a game washed out.

Boston college and Southern California, which managed to play part of the first inning of the finals of Wednesday's four-game schedule, were to start over again today.

The loser was to take on Oklahoma State and the winner Minnesota in the nightcap of tonight's third round twin bill.

The opener of the evening doubleheader sends St. John's of New York against Arizona.

A full day of baseball was highligthed by Jim Wixon's no-hit, no-run pitching for defending champion Oklahoma State.

Wixson eliminated North Carolina 7-0, and St. John's struggled 13 innings with Colorado State before dusting the Bears, 3-2. Minnesota's pre-tourney favorites battled in a give and take scrap with Arizona in which the lead changed hands four times before prevailing, 8-5. It was Arizona's first loss.

Pirates Massacre SF's Giants 14-6

San Francisco–UPI–How do you stop those Pittsburgh Pirate sluggers?

That's the question Manager Bill Rigney of the San Francisco Giants pondered today. In two games the Pirates have clobbered his star mound staff for 20 runs and 27 hits in winning the first two tilts of the the three-game series.

"Don't know what we're going to do," said Rigney after Wednesday's 14-6 massacre.

"All our relief hurlers, sooner or later, seem to make a mistake."

The Giants now trail the leaders by three games.

The Pirates teed off on starter Billy O'Dell Wednesday for four runs in the third inning and drove him to cover in the fifth with another tally.

But that was nothing compared with what they did to Joe Shipley, Stu Miller, George Maranda and Bud Byerly. Bill Loes, who was in there for only two-thirds of an inning, escaped without damage.

The Giants did a bit of hitting themselves Wednesday, getting 12 safe blows, compared with 19 for Pittsburgh. But the Pirates clustered theirs. They put together four hits for four runs in the third; got five runs off five hits in the seventh.

Harvey Haddix, the winning pitcher for the Pirates, took it easy on the mount—but he was a tiger at the plate with a bloop double, two infield scratches and one solid hit for 4x5 for the day.

KF Legion Tips Studs In Baseball

	W.	L.	Pct.
Klamath Falls	2	0	1.000
Central Point	1	1	.500
Grants Pass	1	2	.333
Medford	0	1	.000

Klamath Falls grabbed two runs in the top of the first inning and it was goose eggs the rest of the way in the American Legion junior baseball here last night.

The 2 to 0 victory over the Central Point Cheney Studs gave Klamath undisputed leadership in the southern division of Area 4.

Central Point will try to bolster its now second place position at Cheney diamond here on Friday evening. The Studs tussle Medford at 8 p.m.

Klamath's crew got just four hits in the game but bunched two of them with two bases on balls and a CP error in the opening canto to manufacture its markers. Don Willey and Rich DePew were the hitters.

Studs runners reached third base on two occasions and second sack in three other innings but teammates couldn't muster the punch to get them across. Wally Palmberg, Klamath pitcher who fanned batters 14 times, allowed CP three hits but no more than one per inning. First Cheney safety was Pat Pepper's bad hop single down the third base line. Steve Harris singled in the sixth inning and Mike Glines doubled in the seventh.

Henry Herrera and Palmberg were the other hitters for KF.

Slow-balling Doug Pfaff was effective in relief for the Studs. He came in with no one out and two men on base in the second inning and allowed just two hits over the rest of the route. After one out in the second, he gave up one hit to load the bases but force-outs retired the side. Errors were the main bugaboo after that.

The Studs got Glines to third in the first inning on an error, stolen base and wild pitch and to the hot corner again in the third canto on a base on balls, error and steal. Leftfielder Don Gresdel's fine snare of a hard sock by Brad Gettling prevented a Cheney tally in the sixth stanza. Pfaff had been placed on base when hit by a pitch and Steve Harris followed Gettling's smash with a single.

All Stud outs were on strikeouts in the first, third, fifth and seventh innings. Palmberg walked three and hit two batters. Bill Anhorn, Stud hill starter, allowed two hits and walked two. He fanned three. Pfaff struck out three. He hit one batter but issued no bases on balls.

Central Point's pitcher-catcher combination against Medford will be Bill Anhorn and Ed Allen or Brad Gettling and Jeff Anhorn. Medford may have Herb Wheeler on the hill with Jim Barry receiving.

Central Point 000 000 0—0 3 4

Golfers Tee Off In National Open

By LEO H. PETERSEN
UPI Sports Editor

Denver – UPI – They teed off in the "big one" today and the betting was that when the firing ends around sundown on Saturday the new 1960 U.S. Open golf champion will be brawny Arnold Palmer.

He was the 4 to 1 betting choice in the field of 150 golfers who are trying for the biggest title in their business. That betting favoritism is about as close as you can come to being an odds-on choice in a field of stars.

Rated next to the Masters champion in the betting odds were former PGA king Dow Finsterwald, Gene Littler, who has been the hottest player on the tour for the past six weeks, and Ken Venturi. All were quoted at 6 to 1.

Sentiment Favors Hogan

At 8 to 1 came one of the sentimental favorites, Ben Hogan. He was grouped at those odds with Art Wall, who seems to be back on his game after a siege of illness. Sam Snead, another sentimental choice who never has won this biggest of all golf titles, was quoted at 10 to 1.

First off the tee at the 7,004-yard par 35-36–71 Cherry Hills Country club course in mile-high Denver was Jack L. Koennecker of Prairie View, Ill., Richard Stranahan of Alameda, Calif., and Don Bies of Seattle, Wash.

Eight former Open champions are in the field, which also includes a strong foreign contingent led by Gary Player, British Open champion from South America, and a better than usual amateur group led by 20-year-old Jack Nicklaus of Columbus, Ohio, the U.S. Amateur king.

Rogue Streams Said Dropping

Portland –UPI– The weekly report on fishing conditions prepared by the State Game Commission:

Southwest: Trout fishing fair in Coos and Coquille systems; striped bass fishing poor in Coos bay, but shad fishing excellent; Winchester bay slow for salmon.

Rogue and major tributaries dropping.

Trout fishing should improve in headwater portions of Applegate and Illinois rivers; trout angling in North Umpqua system between Winchester and Boulder creek good to excellent; fishing on lower Rogue and on the lakes and streams surrounding is very slow.
