Jackson County Softball association had a full night of action at the Medford High school stadium last night, with three league games and an exhibition scuffle.

In league action Cheney Studs downed Lithia Lumber 5 to 1. Timber Products beat the Mail Tribune 14 to 9, and Butte Falls drubbed Civil Service 14 to 6. In the exhibition game S&W Floor Covering shut out the Dairy Maids 5 to 0.

The Studs picked up two runs in the first inning on two singles, an error, and a double by Bill Hollingsworth. Two more runs were tallied in the fourth on John Barlow's double, a walk, an error, and a single. In the fifth a single and an error produced the last run.

Big Sixth Inning
Lithia tallied its lone run in the second on a double by Jerry Montgomery, an error, and a sacrifice fly.

Timber Products used a big sixth inning to down the Mail Tribune. Products scored first in the first on an error, a single, and two sacrifice flies. Runs in the second were on three singles, a double, two stolen bases, a walk, and a sacrifice, this produced four runs. Six runs were tallied in the sixth on two singles, two errors, a double by Dick Hughes, and two sacrifice flies.

Seventh inning runs were on a walk, Mike Smith's triple, and a sacrifice fly. The Tribune run in the first was on a single, and a double by Dick Kuschel which landed in the center field seats.

Shaw Triples
Scores in the sixth were on a triple by John Shaw, a single, a walk, and an error. In the seventh a walk, Shaw's double, and a single produced the final two runs.

Kuschel hit three doubles in four times at bat for the Tribune, knocking in three runs.

Held hitless until the third inning, and not scoring until the fourth inning S&W Floor Covering downed the Dairy Maids on a five-run surge in the fourth. The runs were on a double by Jim Hawes, stolen base, walk, error, two singles, and another error.

Ellen Callaghan, pitching in relief of Pat Barron, struck out six S&W hitters in the three innings she worked.

10 Runs In Frame
In the other tangle Butte Falls banged out 10 runs in the first inning and still led by more than seven at the end of five innings, so the game was called.

Darwin Moore's two run homer highlighted the explosive first frame. Five walks, a hit batter and five singles also added to the score. The lone tally in the second was on a single and ground outs. Counters in the fifth were on a double, two errors, and a sacrifice fly.

Civil's runs in the second were on four walks, two doubles, and a single. Scores in the fifth were on a walk and a double.
