

VFW Told Social Legislation Lacks

Baker - (UPI) - Dan Cole of Springfield, Oregon Veterans of Foreign Wars commander, told 400 delegates at the annual Oregon VFW convention Thursday that veterans are losing out on social legislation.

Cole, speaking at the first day of the four-day state convention, said the veterans are losing out because only 11 per cent of them belong to a veterans' organization.

Cole also advocated the United States quit its large-spend foreign aid program and provide more aid for veterans.

Aboard the USS Yorktown—Vice Adm. Charles D. Griffin, commander of the 7th Fleet, on the possibility the Chinese Communists might make an unusual show of force while President Eisenhower is in the Formosa area:
"We are ready if the Chinese Communists try to do something."

Paris—Illness-plagued singer Edith Piaf, on returning to consciousness after a two-day coma:
"I've had enough . . . I've had enough."

Stillwater, Minn.—Minnesota attorney Irving Nemerov, who helped find a home for a 78-year-old blind convict so the convict could be paroled:
"All people are basically kind. I found that out when I started to talk to businessmen about this."

Hollywood—Hillbilly singer Johnny Cash, on the difficulty of gaining recognition in Hollywood:
"I came out here to become a movie star. The people in the street know me, but the guys in the offices don't. Hollywood is okay, but it will never be Nashville, Tenn."

Pendleton Girl Dies of Injuries

Richland, Wash.—(UPI)—Diane Terjeson, 18, Pendleton, Ore., died in a hospital Thursday from injuries suffered Wednesday night in an automobile accident near Hermiston, Ore.
The girl, who graduated Tuesday night from St. Helens Hall in Portland, was rushed here for emergency surgery but failed to rally after the operation. She was student body president at St. Helens Hall.
State police said the car in which she was riding was involved in a collision with another driven by John Lloyd Howton, 19, Hermiston. Hospitalized in Hermiston were the girl's mother, Mrs. Jens Terjeson; her brother, Phillip, and her grandmother, Mrs. E. P. Dodd of Hermiston.

Las Vegas Hotel Destroyed by Fire

Las Vegas, Nev.—(UPI)—A four-alarm fire swept through the swank El Rancho Vegas Hotel on the Strip early today.

First reports said the main building of the fashionable hotel was a total loss, although no injuries were reported.

"It's just about burned to the ground now," said a fire department spokesman. "Flames are shooting about 100 feet into the sky."

No guest rooms are in the hotel itself. Guests stay in small cottages spread out over the grounds around the hotel and were reported in no immediate danger from the flames.

The main building, which was completely gutted, contained a gambling casino, lobby, dining room, a show area and several leased shops.

TROOPS FIRE SNARK

Cape Canaveral, Fla.—(UPI)—Troops of the Strategic Air Command's 702nd Strategic Missile Wing fired an air-breathing Snark intercontinental missile down the Atlantic missile range Thursday. No distance figures were released.
