CP Legion, Medfordite Nine Clash

Sam Ostinger is expected to make his first appearance in the lineup of the Medford American Legion junior baseball nine tonight when the Coca Cola gang takes on Central Point Cheney Studs at Cheney field here.

Game time is planned for 8 p.m. It will be an Area 4 southern division contest.

Coach Cliff McLean said that Ostinger likely will be in the right field slot for Medford. The mentor listed Herb Wheeler as the probable pitcher for the locals. His mound foe will be Bill Anhorn or Brad Gettling.

The Studs are eyeing a firmer hold on second place in the loop. Medford seeks its first league victory.

Central Point goes to Roseburg Sunday afternoon for a non-league doublebill.

Mike Souchak Grabs National Open Lead

Denver — Ed Oldfield of Astoria, Ore., had a bad day Thursday in the opening round of the U.S. Open golf tournament. Oldfield had an 84, which is 13 over par.

By LEO H. PETERSEN UPI Sports Editor

Denver — Mike Souchak, the man of steel with the velvet touch, led them all into the second round of the U.S. Open golf championship today.

His three under par 68 in the first round Thursday gave him a one-stroke lead over two veterans who long have known golfing heartbreak — Little Jerry Barber and weather-stained Henry Ransom of Texas.

Noted for his long hitting, Souchak used it to advantage. But his putting was the payoff in the opening round over the 7,004-yard par 35-36-71 Cherry Hills Country club layout in the snow-capped Rockies.

The Ashland lumber crew trailed Butte Falls 3 to 2 when it came to bat in the seventh. In the top of that inning Butte Falls had scored three markers on two errors, two walks and a double by Al McCorkquade. A base on balls and a double by Lindley preceded McAbee's roundtripper.

Pin Lanes Encounters White Sox

Co-leaders of the Rogue Valley Baseball league will scrap to keep their unbeaten records intact this Sunday and are favored in their games.

Roseburg's new White Sox will be guests of Medford Bowling lanes at Memorial stadium, White City, Crescent City, Calif., is to vie at Ashland. First pitch on each diamond is set for 1 p.m. Double-headers are slated.

Roseburg and Ashland each have 4-0 records. If they get over this week end's foes, big battles for the loop leadership will come about on June 25 at Roseburg. The two meet on that date.

The Sox will be a big challenge for the Medford nine. Roseburg has both strong pitching and good hitting. Mike Coen, with Coast experience, and Duane Miller, with Linfield college background are a top line chucks for the Sox. Statistics show Miller hitting 1,000 for the Roseburg club. Other top averages are Jerry Droscher 600, Ray Munyon 529, Ron Beamer, Ted Kolberg, and Myers each 500, and Ken Ayers 467.

Manager Pete Hale will pick from among Earle Tichever, Don Sanford and Jim Egger for Medford pitching. The Pin lanes has Frank Rector swatting 833 and Bob Serak 867. Other top batters include Ray Anderson and Dick Durante, each 500.

Hale said that Medford will lose Third Baseman Doug Kinney after Sunday. He is going into the Navy. Rector may be assigned to the hot corner.

Psychologist Aims to Make Champ Savage

By JACK CUDY

Grossinger, N. Y. — Now that Ingemar Johansson has finished his training, Dr. Gosta Karlsson — the Swedish physician-psychologist — has taken over as his trainer.

It is Karlsson's job to instill savagery into the amateur fighter so that he'll again fire his right fist like a "Gottberg thunderbolt" at Floyd Patterson in the Polo Grounds and never let up until Floyd's knocked out.

When Karlsson, a blondish, fortyish six-footer, began his psychological walks and talks with Ingemar five days before the first Johansson-Patterson fight last June, American sports writers smirked and said "nertz."

But they're not saying it today because they recall the destructive demonstration the unbeaten Swede gave on the night of June 26 when he went after Floyd in the third round like a berserk hammer-slayer, and while flooring him seven times — even struck him in the back of the head.

Breakfast Will Help Baseball At Jacksonville

Jacksonville — Jacksonville Parent-Teacher association and American Legion Post 100 will serve a baseball benefit breakfast on Sunday, June 26, at the Oddfellows lodge hall.

Proceeds will be used to pay the coach for the community's summer baseball program.

Hot cakes, sausage, ham and eggs will be served. The sponsoring groups will offer "all you can eat" for a reasonable price. A lesser price will be charged to youngsters.

The PTA and Legion post said that they will gladly accept donations of money from persons who are unable to attend the 7 a.m. to 1 p.m. breakfast or who do not wish to attend.

Francis Guidry is chairman for the breakfast.

Clyde Smith, ex-Jacksonville high athlete, will be the summer baseball mentor. Jacksonville has a team entered in the pee wee league of Southern Oregon Junior Baseball and a team is projected among the older boys. Diamond practice begins Monday for boys eight through 16 years of age.

YANKS NOT INTERESTED

New York — George Weiss, general manager of the New York Yankees, today confirmed that the Detroit Tigers offered Rocky Colavito in a proposed deal for Mickey Mantle shortly before Wednesday night's trading deadline. "They offered us Colavito but we weren't interested," Weiss said.

TV Tickets Sold Out For Fight

Tickets for the Craterian theatre showing of closed circuit television of the Ingemar Johansson-Floyd Patterson heavyweight title boxing bout on Monday, June 20, have been completely sold out.

Robert Corbin, manager here for Oregon California theaters, said that the last available ticket was sold yesterday and that there have been more orders than tickets.

In past TV fight showings at the Craterian, sellout has not occurred until the day of the fight.

Newtown, Conn. — Floyd Patterson, the ninth man who'll attempt to recapture the heavyweight crown, finished training today for Monday's big fight with this storm warning: "I'm not the ninth o-l-d man!"

The 25-year-old ex-champion, who was so impressive in Thursday's sparring, said before today's final workout that when he faces champion Ingemar Johansson at the Polo Grounds Monday night, he'll be the first man under 30 to take a comeback shot at the title.

The United Press International poll of 54 writers from American and foreign cities disclosed today that 46 picked Johansson to keep the title he had won on a third-round knockout over Floyd last June 26.

STILL HAS SHARE

Chicago — Chuck Comiskey was still a major shareholder in the Chicago White Sox today but was minus his vice president status. Comiskey's letter of resignation, submitted last week, was officially accepted Thursday by the White Sox board of directors. However, he still holds 46 per cent of the club's stock.

LUCKY LICENSE

San Juan, P.R. — Federico Torres, 45, placed a 33 cent pool bet on the last six races Thursday using his license plate numbers to pick the horses. Today he picks up a check for $28,704 as the only winner in the pool.

Termite Hordes Gorging Selves in Widening Areas

Kansas City — Termites suspect, since man is moving to the natural domain of the termite, who got to this earth ahead of him by several million years. Unlike man, the termite has come down through the eons little changed from his ancestors.

While there are many species of termites, Stone has one rule of thumb to distinguish them from the flying ant, which looks pretty similar.

The villain has a boat-shaped body and four wings of equal length. The ant has four wings of unequal length, attached to an hour glass figure.

Whatever the reason, the voracious insects with a taste for lumber now are eating their way through the homes of millions of Americans, according to Dr. Philip Stone, University of Missouri entomologist.

Anybody's Guess

Stone said one large commercial organization estimated after a detailed survey that termites each year in a v a d e about two million homes in which their dining produces enough damage to send the owner in quest of professional aid.

How many marauders escape detection, or haven't yet reached the stage where their depredations produce a call for help, is anybody's guess, Stone said.

In any event, the winged insects are now found in all continental states except Alaska. Alaska is believed to be free of them, but Stone said that might be only because there has been no intensive study there.

Termites, which love warm, moist places, now are found even in such semi-arid regions as Arizona and New Mexico, Stone said.

Modern building practices tend to help support the invaders. Stone said homes built on concrete slabs not only provide a cozy winter residence for termites but permit them to eat the year around, instead of just during the summer months. Protected and insulated crawl spaces provide just the right environment, he said.

Dean Goddard to Compete in State Speech Contest

Portland — Dean Goddard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fay F. Goddard, 507 King st., Medford, will participate here Saturday in the state-wide finals of the Knight's of Pythias oratory speech contest. Lodge officials said today.

Goddard won both the local and district contests with his oration based on the topic "2000 A.D." and will compete with six other district winners from the state at the contest.

The winner of the competition will compete in the regional contest in Spokane July 9 with contestants from northern United States.

Medford Graduate

Young Goddard is a 1960 graduate of Medford High school.

He will leave early Saturday morning by plane and will return Sunday afternoon. He is to be a guest of the Lodge at a dinner prior to the contest in Portland at the Park Heathman hotel. The contest itself will be held in the Pythian building.

Judges of the contest will not be lodge members, Pythian spokesmen advise, but rather public speaking coaches and educational leaders in the state.

At the regional meet in July, contestants will compete from Washington, Oregon, Idaho, and three provinces in Canada. Contestants from Hawaii and Alaska are also competing in the nationwide speech competition.

Winner of the regional contest will then speak at the national contest to be held in Roanoke, Va., during August.

The national winners will compete for scholarships totaling $3,500, with the winner to make a choice between a $1,500 scholarship or a trip abroad, the Lodge added.
