

WARM WELCOME EXPECTED—President Eisenhower is expected to get the warmest welcome of his Asian trip on Formosa but many in Taipei believe Red China may try to spoil the party. Quemoy and Matsu, Nationalist-held islands off the Chinese mainland, have come in for heavy artillery bombardments recently as the Eisenhower visit nears. In this photo, a youngster on Quemoy makes order out of destruction recently near bomb-scarred structures. —(UPI Telephoto)

Seventh Fleet Takes No Chance During Ike's Visit to Formosa

By ALBERT E. KAFF
Taipei, Formosa—(UPI)—President Eisenhower is expected to get the warmest welcome of his Asia trip on Formosa but many here believe Communist China may try to spoil the party.

Eisenhower arrives June 18 for a 24-hour visit with President Chiang Kai-shek and all should be goodwill since there are no serious differences between the two governments.

Band Booster to Make Up Deficit

Ashland—The Ashland Band Boosters have announced plans for a fund-raising project at the area Oregon Food stores Saturday, June 18, to offset the deficits in the amount of the pledges submitted to send the Ashland High school band to the Portland Rose parade last week.

A total of about $100 was needed to balance the budget, the Boosters added.

Between 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. Saturday, Ashland band members and the Boosters will sell "jet-pups," coffee, pepsi-cola, cotton candy, and other snacks.

All of the food has been donated by the distributors and manufacturers of the products.

Also reported by the Ashland group was the winning of "honorable mention" by the band in the schools, community clubs and fraternal organizations division. Several different groups competed for prizes in the division. First and second awards in the category were taken by the Carver Economic and Science association and the American Chinese association, respectively.

The United States is bound by treaty to defend Formosa and the Pescadores from Communist attack but has never made a formal commitment to defend Quemoy and Matsu. Little Strategic Value American strategists say the islands have little strategic military value. But to give them up would be a terrible blow to the morale of free China and to America's allies in the Far East. Chiang might seek a stronger defense commitment on these from Eisenhower.

Eisenhower will fly ashore by helicopter from the St. Paul, flagship of the U.S. 7th fleet, lunch in private, meet with Chiang and then address a mass rally in downtown Taipei. In the evening he will attend a state dinner given by Chiang.

The next day is Sunday and Eisenhower is expected to attend church with the generalissimo and his wife, both protestants, and then fly to Okinawa.

Last Met in 1946
The meeting between Eisenhower and Chiang is the first since 1946 when Eisenhower stopped off in Nanking on mainland China while Gen. George C. Marshall was trying to end the Chinese civil war. The talks will be brief because of the lack of outstanding issues.

Band Booster to Make Up Deficit

Ashland—The Ashland Band Boosters have announced plans for a fund-raising project at the area Oregon Food stores Saturday, June 18, to offset the deficits in the amount of the pledges submitted to send the Ashland High school band to the Portland Rose parade last week.

A total of about $100 was needed to balance the budget, the Boosters added.

Between 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. Saturday, Ashland band members and the Boosters will sell "jet-pups," coffee, pepsi-cola, cotton candy, and other snacks.

All of the food has been donated by the distributors and manufacturers of the products.

Also reported by the Ashland group was the winning of "honorable mention" by the band in the schools, community clubs and fraternal organizations division. Several different groups competed for prizes in the division. First and second awards in the category were taken by the Carver Economic and Science association and the American Chinese association, respectively.

Band Booster to Make Up Deficit

Ashland—The Ashland Band Boosters have announced plans for a fund-raising project at the area Oregon Food stores Saturday, June 18, to offset the deficits in the amount of the pledges submitted to send the Ashland High school band to the Portland Rose parade last week.

A total of about $100 was needed to balance the budget, the Boosters added.

Between 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. Saturday, Ashland band members and the Boosters will sell "jet-pups," coffee, pepsi-cola, cotton candy, and other snacks.

All of the food has been donated by the distributors and manufacturers of the products.

Also reported by the Ashland group was the winning of "honorable mention" by the band in the schools, community clubs and fraternal organizations division. Several different groups competed for prizes in the division. First and second awards in the category were taken by the Carver Economic and Science association and the American Chinese association, respectively.

Band Booster to Make Up Deficit

Ashland—The Ashland Band Boosters have announced plans for a fund-raising project at the area Oregon Food stores Saturday, June 18, to offset the deficits in the amount of the pledges submitted to send the Ashland High school band to the Portland Rose parade last week.

A total of about $100 was needed to balance the budget, the Boosters added.

Between 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. Saturday, Ashland band members and the Boosters will sell "jet-pups," coffee, pepsi-cola, cotton candy, and other snacks.

All of the food has been donated by the distributors and manufacturers of the products.

Also reported by the Ashland group was the winning of "honorable mention" by the band in the schools, community clubs and fraternal organizations division. Several different groups competed for prizes in the division. First and second awards in the category were taken by the Carver Economic and Science association and the American Chinese association, respectively.

Band Booster to Make Up Deficit

Ashland—The Ashland Band Boosters have announced plans for a fund-raising project at the area Oregon Food stores Saturday, June 18, to offset the deficits in the amount of the pledges submitted to send the Ashland High school band to the Portland Rose parade last week.

A total of about $100 was needed to balance the budget, the Boosters added.

Between 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. Saturday, Ashland band members and the Boosters will sell "jet-pups," coffee, pepsi-cola, cotton candy, and other snacks.

All of the food has been donated by the distributors and manufacturers of the products.

Also reported by the Ashland group was the winning of "honorable mention" by the band in the schools, community clubs and fraternal organizations division. Several different groups competed for prizes in the division. First and second awards in the category were taken by the Carver Economic and Science association and the American Chinese association, respectively.

Ashland Slates 4th Celebration

Ashland—The southern Oregon Fourth of July celebration in Ashland will be sponsored again this year by the Ashland Lions club.

Chairman for the event is G. E. Thomas of Ashland. Scheduled events for the week end include a 10 a.m. parade through downtown Ashland, a concert by the Ashland city band in the Lithia Park Butler Memorial bandshell, a carnival in Lithia park, a public barbecue sponsored by the Presbyterian men's group, and a fireworks display sponsored by the Ashland Jaycees.

Organizations may reserve concessions at the carnival by contacting Thomas or Alvin L. Fellers, Southern Oregon college. The registration fee is $10.

Parade categories include children's entries, motorized, equestrian, commercial floats, clubs and organizations, and musical groups. Cochairman for the parade are Howard Sanborn and Don Lewis, both of Ashland.

The Family Council

Editor's Note: The Family Council consists of a judge, a psychiatrist, three clergymen, a newspaper editor, a women's editor and two writers. Each article is a summary of an actual case history. The Council reports on problems that have been dealt with by responsible agencies and counselors.

Jane M. — Mother should leave him.
Mrs. R. T. — He's not a bad sort at heart.

Jane M. — I am 20 and a junior at college. My problem involves my mother, who married for the second time two years ago after having been a widow for five years.

My stepfather is an uncouth man with a vile temper. I couldn't live under his roof for a day and was glad to be able to go off to college when my mother married him. Now I can hardly bear to come home on visits because I can't stand the way he talks to my mother.

I have begged Mother to leave him, but I can't convince her this would be the best thing. My older brother can help contribute to Mom's support and I'll be working soon, too, so she doesn't really have to worry about money.

Mrs. R. T. — The main thing that bothers me is that I don't want to be a burden on my children. My son has a young family and plenty of responsibilities ahead of him. Jane will, I hope, marry in a year or two and I don't want her husband to feel he has to undertake the support of a mother.

I know some women of my age go to work, but I haven't had a job in nearly 30 years and I don't feel that I could go back to an office.

It seems that I must put up and shut up. My husband is not a bad sort at heart. It's just that he has a bad temper. When he is in a good humor he can be very nice and charming. He is also generous with me and Jane—in spite of her coldness toward him.

The Council: Jane is talking out of turn in advising her mother to break up her marriage.

She seems to be offering her brother and herself as substitutes for a husband. But they would be poor substitutes indeed!

Jane sees herself as a heroine, protesting and supporting her mother. But her noble sentiments have yet to be put to the test. She might find them wearing thin when money is scarce and her responsibilities are heavy.

Money, however, may be the smallest part of the problem. Mrs. R.T.'s husband offers her loyalty, tenderness and the companionship of a person of her age. These are no trifling benefits and they cannot be fully supplied by children with the best intentions.

We doubt very much that Mrs. R. T. is as unhappy with the bargain she has made as her daughter seems to think. For Jane, her stepfather is an outsider who has walked into her home and started abusing her mother.

But he's not an outsider to her mother. Mrs. R. T. is deeply involved in an emotional relationship with her husband. Like all relationships it has good and bad elements and Jane should recognize that the good doesn't always reveal itself as readily as the bad.

The fact that Jane feels free to speak up so strongly on this subject suggests to us that Mrs. R. T. may have complained to her or turned to her for comfort in moments of stress. This was a mistake.

Mrs. R. T. should be aware that her unhappiness is extremely painful to her daughter, yet she can do nothing to help her.

Mrs. R. T. appears to be a passive sort of person who seeks protection from others. She might do herself a lot of good by going out and getting that job and proving to herself that she can function well and independently. But there is no reason for her to break up her marriage as long as she finds her husband basically kind and congenial.

(Copyright 1960, General Feature Corp.)

Newest-of-the-New

9056
SIZES
10-18

by Marian Martin

Fashion page flash! The new, new lower waistline descends from a starkly simple bodice to a mobile skirt. Dazzling for day or evening in silks, cottons spiked by contrast buttons.

Printed Pattern 9056: Misses' Sizes 10, 12, 14, 16, 18. Size 16 takes 4 1/4 yards 39-inch fabric.

Send THIRTY-FIVE CENTS (coins) for this pattern — add 10 cents for each pattern for first-class mailing. Send to Marian Martin, Medford Mail Tribune, Pattern Dept., 232 West 18th St., New York 11, N.Y. Print plainly NAME, ADDRESS with SIZE and STYLE NUMBER.

JUST OUT! Big, new 1960 Spring and Summer Pattern Catalog in vivid, full-color. Over 100 smart styles... all sizes... all occasions. Send now! Only 25c.

VISIT TOMORROW'S HOME TODAY!

MANOR VIEW HOME

1008 MIRA MAR AVE. (Manor Hill)
R. E. MARSH, Owner and Builder

Open 7-10 P.M. Week Days
by
WAKEFIELD DRAPERY
SP 2-6010 — Medford's Exclusive Drapery Shop

Air Conditioning*—temperatures made to order—for all-weather comfort. Get a demonstration! See the Chevy Mystery Show in color Sundays, NBC-TV—the Pat Boone Chevy Showroom weekly, ABC-TV.

why shouldn't you enjoy THE FEATURES THAT MAKE CHEVY

AMERICA'S
1ST CHOICE CAR
! right now

It's sure a cinch to see why Chevrolet is America's biggest seller for 1960. Just look over all the fine features you won't find in any other car of the leading low-priced three: FULL COIL SUSPENSION that cushions your ride with coil springs at the rear as well as up front... shift-free, satin-smooth TURBOGLIDE*, the only automatic transmission in Chevy's field that eliminates even a hint of a shift... up to nearly 3.1 inches more entrance height, three inches more front seat width in that ROOMIER BODY BY FISHER... an EASIER LOADING TRUNK with a new lower sill and a deck lid that's as much as a foot and a half wider. Interested? See your dealer soon for a whole happy carload of reasons why YOU CAN'T BUY ANY CAR FOR LESS UNLESS IT'S A LOT LESS CAR!

This is the Impala Convertible

FOR ECONOMICAL TRANSPORTATION

Get in on the hottest thing this spring... see your local authorized Chevrolet dealer.

COURTESY CHEVROLET

9th at BARTLETT MEDFORD PHONE SP 2-6115