Friends Pastor Marries Couple in Home Ceremony

Miss Ruth Anne Marshall officiated at the home of Douglas Clayton Brooks, Portland, in a ceremony held June 5 at the home of the bride's aunt, Miss Martha Boshears, 404 South Grape street. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Blaylock, 412 South Grape street. Mr. Brooks' mother is Mrs. Lillie Brooks, Portland.

Pastor Clynton Crisman of the Medford Friends church officiated at the double ring rites held at three o'clock in the afternoon. Thirty-five relatives and friends of the couple attended.

Baskets of pink and white gladioli were on either side of the fireplace and pink gladioli decorated the fireplace mantel. Bowls of roses were placed throughout the room. Mrs. Kenneth Boshears played the piano wedding music.

The bride wore a floor length gown of white lace and net over taffeta. Her fingertip length veil was held by a pillbox cap of lace and pearls and she carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds. Her jewelry included a locket, a gift from the bridegroom. Mr. Blaylock gave his stepdaughter in marriage.

Miss Donna Granger served as maid of honor. She wore a pink embroidered chiffon frock over taffeta in ballerina length with pink headband and veil. Her flowers were deep pink rosebuds.

Larry Brooks, Portland, served as best man for his brother. Seating the guests were Donald Marshall, brother of the bride, and Dennis Boshears, cousin of the bride.

Candlelighters were Roger Blaylock and Audie Brooks, Portland, both nine years old and brothers of the bride and bridegroom, respectively.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Blaylock chose a rose dress and Mrs. Brooks wore a

Miss Alma Lou Stovall Bride of George Stevens

Miss Alma Lou Stovall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe B. Stovall, 1394 Pacific road, Medford, became the bride of George Allen Stevens, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Stevens, 546 Fairmont avenue, in a ceremony held June 4 at the Church of Christ, 1056 Court street.

Alpha Lemley, Ashland, officiated at the 7 o'clock evening rites attended by 200 relatives and friends.

Roy VanPelt, Klamath Falls, cousin of the bride, played the organ wedding music. Baskets of pastel colored roses decorated the church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of white lace over satin. Her veil was fingertip length and she carried a bouquet of pink carnations encircling a white orchid.

Miss Charlotte Stovall, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Marion Stovall, another sister, and Miss Phyllis Tosh, cousin of the bride. The honor attendant wore a pastel green taffeta frock and matching hat and carried a bouquet of white carnations. The other attendants wore pink frocks and carried bouquets of pink and white carnations. Flower girls were Shannon Reynolds, and Becky VanPelt, Klamath Falls, cousins of the bride. Candlelighters were Suzan Beacham and Virginia VanPelt, Klamath Falls, another cousin of the bride. They wore pale pink taffeta frocks with net hats.

Herbert Herzog served as best man for his brother-in-law. Seating the guests were James Albright and Chester A. Stevens and Donald L. Stevens, both Eugene, brothers of the bridegroom.

For her daughter's wedding and reception Mrs. Stovall wore a pale blue lace dress with white accessories. Mrs. Stevens chose a blue silk dress with white accessories. Their corsages were gardenias. Mrs. Maude Reynolds, Tulare, Calif., maternal grandmother of the bride, wore a blue lace dress with matching accessories. Her corsage was white carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Albright. Mrs. Pat VanPelt, aunt of the bride, cut and served the wedding cake and Mrs. John Beacham, aunt of the bride, presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Philip Reynolds and Mrs. B. M. Tosh were at the gift table. Mrs. Beverly Tosh was in charge of the guest book.

The couple are making their home at 505 South Holly street following a wedding trip to Eugene. For traveling the bride wore a white lace sheath frock with red accessories.

Among the out of town guests were Pat VanPelt, and Roy Reynolds, uncle of the bride, both Klamath Falls; Mrs. Donald Stevens, Mrs. Chester Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Stevens Jr., all Eugene, and Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Dantzman, Crescent City, Calif.

The bride is a graduate of Phoenix High school and is employed by Weisfield's Jewelers. Mr. Stevens attended Eugene and Medford High schools and is employed at Fir Ply Corporation.
