

Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Franklin Davis

Miss Ailene Ann Doran Bride of Rodney Davis

Miss Ailene Ann Doran became the bride of Rodney Franklin Davis in a ceremony held May 27 at Sacred Heart Catholic church. The Rev. John H. officiated at the four o'clock afternoon rites attended by 100 relatives and friends.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Myles F. Doran, 2241 Skyview drive. Mr. Davis, who has been making his home at route 1, box 440, Talent, is a son of Mrs. Leatha Hepp, Crescent City, Calif., and Archie Davis, Elgin, Ore.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a ballerina length frock of pale pink lace. Her veil was fingertip length and she carried a bouquet of white carnations encircling pink roses.

Miss Jo Creel was maid of honor. She wore a ballerina length lavender lace frock and carried white carnations.

John Wingham served as best man. Seating the guests were Dr. Bruce Stanley and James Sheldon.

The church was decorated with white stock and pink carnations. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents attended by 100 relatives and friends. Miss Marlene Miller cut and served the wedding cake and Mrs. Bruce Stanley and Mrs. James Sheldon poured. Miss Lynn Creel was in charge of the guest book.

The couple traveled to Crescent City, Calif., on their wedding trip. The bride wore for traveling a white linen suit. They are making their home at 153 Granite street, Ashland.

Installation Rites Held For Central Point Bethel

Central Point—Miss Rebecca Ferrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Ferrell, Old Stage road, Central Point, was installed honored queen of Bethel 38, International Order of Job's Daughters, Saturday, June 11, at the Masonic Temple in Central Point.

Line officers installed were the Misses Helen Goff, senior princess; Janet Hobbs, junior princess; June Hopkins, guide, and Sandra Beasley, marshal. Other officers installed were the Misses Virginia Wilson, recorder; Elaine Wilson, treasurer; Cheryl Ghelardi, chaplain; Charla Meyer, musician; Lorraine Scalber, librarian; Jan Campbell, Cora Bella Ravenor, Cathleen Harsh, Nancy Clark, Colleen Knapp, messengers; Judy Patterson, senior custodian; Lee Hamilton, junior custodian; Melba Graham, inner guard; Sue Kelley, outer guard; Kathleen Collinsworth, lady of the lights; and Pamela Burgoyne, choir. Installed as Bethel choir were the Misses Janice Ayres, Patricia Knapp, Judy Lewis, Elin Livingston, Joane Oswald and Betty Plankenhorn.

Miss Ferrell had chosen "make believe" for her theme and yellow and white for colors. The hall was decorated with huge butterflies and a lighted rose tree stood in the east.

Miss Nanette Ferrell, small sister of the honored queen, escorted the bible. She was dressed in yellow with a crown of yellow and white daisies.

Larry Smith sang "I Believe" for the altar song. The installing officers were the Misses Jeanette Purdy, retiring queen; Rachel Hamilton, Linda Warren, Kay Askwith, Donna Burnett, all past honored queens of the Bethel; Marion Parsons and Barbara Gordon, past honored queens of Bethels 14 and 55, Medford and Janet Kilbourn and Ellen Ward, Central Point, members.

The crowning ceremony was performed by Crater chapter, Order of De Moley. Richard Licht, master councilor was assisted by Jan Ackerman, Leslie Goff, Bruce Burns and Boyd Henry.

Escorted were the past honored queens serving on the team. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Ferrell were introduced and presented the queen with her gavel. Archie Purdy presented Miss Ferrell with a bouquet of yellow rosebuds from Masonic Lodge 135. Members of the Crater Chapter of De Moley and their dad, Russell Fair, were introduced as well as L. R. Manning, Medford, grand Miller, Grants Pass; Mrs. Dale Ackerman, Shady Cove, Mrs. Harold Gordon, past guardian of Bethel 55; Mrs. William Askwith and H. P. Jewett, past guardian and associate, Central Point.

Miss Purdy presented the new queen with her Bethel pin and traveling taira and in return received her past honored queen's pin.

New Plaque
Miss Ellen Ward was presented to the honored queen and an announcement was made that a plaque had been purchased on which the name of an outstanding senior girl would be placed each term in commemoration of the work so many girls do who never aspire to, or become queen. Miss Ward's name will be the first inscribed there.

At the close of the ceremony Mrs. Archie Purdy, guardian, and Paul Hopkins, associate, escorted Queen Rebecca's parents and sister to the east. An addendum was given for Miss Ferrell which included Miss Sue Kelley and Miss Ward with the piano.

For the reception which followed the serving table was decorated with yellow and white roses. Dogwood blossoms also decorated the room. In one corner of the room was a three tiered fountain. Persons in charge of the decorations included Miss Janet Hobbs, Mrs. Ferrell, Miss Jan Campbell, Miss Janice Ayres, Miss Sandra Beasley, Miss Helen Goff, Miss Sue Kelley, Miss Jeanette Purdy, Miss June Hopkins and their mothers.

Family Spends Week End Here
Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Covington and children, Deans and Jack, are week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Mansfield, 1615 Crater Lake avenue. The Covingtons, who have made their home in Richmond, Calif., are en route to Seattle where Mr. Covington will take over the management of the Continental Baking company.

Grandmothers Plan Meeting Monday
Central Point — Mrs. Oscar Minnick has announced that Crater chapter, Grandmother Clubs of America, will meet Monday, June 20 at 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. J. H. Korner, 443 Oak street, Central Point. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Millie Johnson and Mrs. Sadie Cyphers.

First Night Meet Set By Group

The Arm Chair Travel group will meet in the evening for the first time, Monday, June 20. The session will be held at 7:15 p.m. in the Senior Activity center, 601 East Jackson street, to see colored slides of flowers to be shown by L. E. McMurray, 440 Fairmont street.

Pictures of the recent rose parade taken during the Rose Festival in Portland will also be shown. Members of garden clubs and others interested in flowers are invited to attend. Meetings will continue to be at 1 p.m. after Monday unless the evening hour seems more popular during the summer months it was reported.

The art class and the wood-carving class continue to meet on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons, respectively. The art class is from 1 to 4 p.m. and the woodcarving from noon until 3 p.m. Members take a sack lunch and start to carve at 12:30 p.m.

Equipment Needed
Fans loaned temporarily have made the Center more comfortable for the classes but permanent equipment is needed. Persons having an electric fan that they may wish to donate are asked to call the Center.

The Senior Center orchestra, under the direction of Edward Root, was given a violin by Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Teal, 811 Adams lane, new residents of Medford.

Mr. Root notified the committee that the Center is about to lose the use of the piano. The piano was loaned to the Center for the use of the orchestra and dancing classes by Mrs. Ena Foss, of South Stage road, more than a year ago. Anyone who has a piano to give or loan to the Center is asked to contact Mr. Root, SPRing 3-2623.

The orchestra now meets Thursdays from 10 to 12 a.m. and the Spanish class from 9 to 10.

Two Daughters Receive Degrees
Illinois Valley — Mr. and Mrs. Albert Scott, Kerby, attended graduation exercises at Oregon State college in Corvallis June 6. Their two daughters received degrees from the school.
