Medford Bowling lanes team will oppose Klamath Falls on Wednesday at Memorial Stadium, White City. Game time will be 8 p.m. Klamath fields an independent aggregation. The club applied for admission to the Rogue Valley league but the application came too late to be accepted.

Roseburg White Sox and Ashland Lithians, both unblemished, maintained their deadlock for the Rogue Valley league baseball leadership yesterday by taking both scuffles in twin engagements.

At Memorial stadium, White City, Roseburg bounced Medford Bowling lanes 11 to 5, then nicked the Keglers 3 to 2. Ashland, playing at home, garnered a pair of close ones from Crescent City, Calif. Scores were 2 to 1 and 2 to 0.

Roseburg effectively combined its hits with bases on balls and Medford misplays to push over runs in the first game. The White Sox won out on the strength of two big scoring surges, five runs in the first inning and four in the seventh.

Jess Munyon singled home Don Wells in the top of the seventh inning for the winning marker of the second skirmish. The Bowling lanes had knotted the fracas at 2-2 all after once trailing 0 to 2. Pitcher John Livingston held Medford in check with four-hit pitching. He allowed only singles and no more than one in an inning. The Umpqua city batters got to Keger tosser Jim Eggers for eight safeties. Munyon 4 For 6

Munyon with a double and three singles in six times up and Jerry Droscher with three hits in four turns led a 12-hit assault against Medford in the curtain-raiser. Fred Hargis and Ken Ayers each tripled. Bob Pond had three singles in five trips for Medford. George Ice and Frank Rector had two hits each and Ice and Larry Perkins three-baggered as the Bowling lanes got 10 hits.

Pitching victory in the first game went to White Sox Manager Mike Coen who scattered five hits in 4 2/3 innings of relief, striking out six and walking one. Roseburg hill starter Ron Beamer was charged with all Medford runs, including four in the fifth panel when he was lifted. Beamer in that frame gave up a walk, the triple to Ice and singles to Pond and Rector. Perkins tripled off Coen to bring in one runner. Beamer put on base. Beamer walked four and struck out two.

Medford's first chucker, Earle Tichener was tagged for 11 hits. He walked four and struck out two while reliever Don Sanford permitted one hit, issued four walks and hit a batter. He fanned two.

Hargis Triples
The five runs in the first frame were on singles by Droscher, Munyon and Wells, a triple by Hargis, two errors and a double swipe with Droscher stealing home. In the seventh Jim Dietz, Livingston and Munyon singled.

Droscher hit a sacrifice foul flyout, Coen contributed a bunt sacrifice and there were two bases on balls and two miscues.

In the second scrape Roseburg tallied in the second inning on hits by Ayers and Munyon, a fielder's choice and an error and in the fourth panel on safeties by Myers and Livingston, two walks and an error.

In the fourth inning for Medford, Ice singled and got to third base on a pair of passed balls. Frank Rector walked and stole second base and Ray Anderson drew a pass to fill the bags. Bob Serak forced Ice at the plate. Then Rector got home on a passed ball. Medford tied it in the sixth on a walk to Ice, a sacrifice bunt by Rector on which he was safe on an error and a hit by Dick Durante.

For the Sox in the seventh Wells walked and advanced on a wild pitch and a Droscher single before Munyon brought him in.

Livingston walked five and whiffed seven and Eggers also walked five, striking out three.

McABEE SHINES

Jim McAbee dashed across the platter for three of Ashland's four runs of the day. Dave D'Olivo hurled a three-hitter for the Lithians in the opener and Gene Parent a six-hitter in the nightcap.

McAbee's triple, Wayne Paulson's double and two errors made the Ashland counters in the eighth inning of the initial hassle. For Crescent City in the fourth inning, Larry Howard was hit by a pitch and scored on a double by Lee Templeton.

In the second brush McAbee slapped a ground rule double in the fourth session. He went to third on an error and stole home. In the sixth inning he homered.

D'Olivo walked one batter and hit another and fanned four in the first game. His mound rival, Ron Dimmick gave two bases on balls and whiffed one. Paulson had two hits for Ashland in the mix and Snuffy Smith doubled.

Parent walked three and struck out five in the second battle. Ashland drew a pair of bases on balls off CC throwers Terry DeGross and Bill Palmer. Templeton hit three for three for the Californians and Harley Dickerson had two safeties for Ashland.
