Win Said Product Of Work and Faith

Editors note: Floyd Patterson tells in the following exclusive dispatch written for United Press International how he regained the world heavyweight championship last night.

By FLOYD PATTERSON
Written Exclusively for UPI
New York—(UPI)—I did it. I don't say this boastfully because months and months of training religiously in the Connecticut countryside makes one humble. My triumph was achieved not only through my fists but also is the product of hard work, good schooling and faith in myself.

Cus D'Amato and my trainer, Dan Florio, never faltered in their faith in me. The lonely hours, the separation from my family and unending training routine are over. I will make up to them for this.

My attack was a surprise to some experts. It was no surprise to my camp. We planned on this on the drawing board months and months ago.

Slugging Right
Make no mistake about it, Ingemar Johansson. He's a solid fighter with a slugging right hand.

During the training session, I vowed I'd be a fighting champion if I regained the title. I'm going to keep my word.

I knew I had the fight won with that second knockdown in the fifth round. When the referee got to six and he still wasn't getting up, I figured it was all over. He lay there kicking. It didn't look like he was going to get up.

I must say he hurt me in the second round with his right but it wasn't nearly as hard as the one he hit me with to beat me just about a year ago. I was staggered, sure, but I was playing it coy, too. I was waiting for him to come to me. When he didn't, well I had to go to him.

I guess I did, huh?

TV Boxing Doublebill On July 18

A doublebill boxing bout closed circuit telecast will be offered on Monday, July 18 at the Craterian theatre here.

Robert Corbin, manager of Oregon California theatres here, said that one bout will match heavyweights Sonny Liston and Zora Foley and that light heavyweights Archie Moore and Eric Schoepner will be in the other.

Since the Liston-Foley mix is set for 10 rounds and the Moore-Schoepner match for 15, the card offers potentially 25 rounds of boxing.

Price and ticket sale information will be announced when negotiations are completed with TelePrompTer corporation, Corbin said.

Victory Decisive; NBA Won't Approve Rematch

By JACK CUDDY
United Press International

New York—(UPI)—Floyd Patterson, who vindicated himself heroically by achieving the ring's first recapture of the heavyweight crown, is willing to fight Ingemar Johansson again within 90 days—but still groggy Ingemar is uncertain whether to accept.

Patterson, whose explosive left hooks floored Swedish Ingemar twice in the fifth round for a knockout Monday night before 31,892 paid spectators in the Polo Grounds, said: "I'll live up to our contract for a rubber match. I always keep my word."

Promoter Jack Fugazy said Feature Sports, Inc., would like to promote the bout "within 120 days" but in some other city, unless New York's police commissioner could provide better protection for the promoters and the fans.

It was estimated that more than 5,000 rushed into the ball park free after smashing three gates.

Ingemar, who was flat on his back for three minutes after suffering the first professional defeat in his career of 23 fights, told friends: "I don't know what I want to do. I don't want to talk about it now."

NBA Opposes Rematch
However, the decision may be taken out of Ingo's hands by the National Boxing association. Tony Maceroni of Providence, R.I., NBA president, said the organization would not approve a third fight between Patterson and Ingo because of the very definite manner in which Patterson established his superiority Monday night.

Brown-haired Ingo, with the nicked and nearly closed left eye and the cut mouth and swollen nose, appeared still woozy from the head blows he had taken before being counted out at 1:51 of the fifth round by Referee Arthur Mercante.

Patterson, an underdog at 75-5 because he had been called a "cheese champion" even before his third-round knockout defeat, vindicated himself dramatically Monday night by beating the odds and tradition.

Although staggered by one of Johansson's stunning rights to the head in the second round, 25-year-old Floyd quickly took command of the fight again and gave Ingo a thorough battering that was climaxed by the two knockdowns from left hooks to the jaw in the final fifth session. Win Rich Purse

Patterson, who became the first man in ring history to win back the heavy crown, was estimated to have earned about $500,000 from what shaped up as the "richest fight" in history. Johansson was estimated to have wound up with a similar sum.

The show drew a gross gate of $824,814 at the Polo Grounds.

Fugazy said the total gross receipts from all sources should exceed $3,300,000. That would be greater than the fabulous $2,658,660 "live gate" attracted by the second Jack Dempsey-Gene Tunney fight at Chicago in 1927—the top total receipts for a fight before Monday night's international extravaganza.

Credits Floyd's Weight
Trainer Dan Florio said Patterson's weight of 190 — the heaviest of his career — was partially responsible for Monday night's spectacular victory. It gave him more power.

Johansson scaled 194½. When they fought last June and Ingo floored Floyd seven times in the third round for a technical knockout, Johansson scaled 196; Patterson, only 182.

Patterson started right off in the first round Monday night as if to take advantage of his weight. He staggered Ingo with a left hook, and shook him with right smashes to the body. Ingo came back and buckled Floyd's knees in the second with a right. After that, Patterson took command, particularly in the exchanges.

Minnesota Wins Baseball Title

Omaha, Neb.—(UPI)—Minnesota's persistent Gophers, who have the golden touch in the clutch, outwaited Southern California Monday night to claim the national collegiate baseball title they expected to win all along.

The championship run came in the 10th inning of the Big Ten kings' third overtime game with Southern California. A Trojan reliever issued a bases-loaded walk to give Minnesota the crown, 2-1.

The Trojans scored in the top of the ninth after two outs to force the extra inning, but Minnesota's steady righthander, Jim Rantz, starting his first game, set the Westerners down in order in the top of the 10th.

Senior Golf Action Led By Stacey

Qualifying play for the senior men's golf championship of Rogue Valley Country club opened over the week end with George Stacey leading the 12 who have played their 18-hole rounds.

Stacey had an 80. Larry Butler and Glen Fabrick followed with 81s. Butler, defending champion, waived his seeded spot to try for medalist. Seniors have through July 3 to qualify.

Some 70 men have qualified in men's club championship play. Dr. Robert Buck's 68 still is low. Other cards include a 72 by Lee Link, a 73 by Bob Faehl and 74s by Ray Lindquist, Ed Simmons, Bud Brooks and Ernie Pearson. This qualifying concludes June 26.

Alan Holmes and Jerry Cottingham will play Dick Finnell and Walt Shaylor in the first flight finals of the two-ball partnership tourney at Rogue Valley. In semis Holmes and Cottingham defeated Tom MacLeod and Dr. Ralph Schwahn and Finnell and Shaylor won from Don Provost Sr. and Gene Spencer. Championship Semi

A two-ball championship semi-final is billed for Wednesday with Millhollin and Jerry Olson to face Dr. Billy Blackstone and Dr. Jack Price. Winner of the match will oppose Bill Kuhlwein and Randall Gifford who bounced Darrell Miller and Leonard Schildt in a semi last week.

A mixed three-ball six-some tourney is set for 1:30 p.m. next Sunday.

Entry blanks and placecards advertising the Southern Oregon Junior Golf tourney were sent out today by the Medford club. The tourney will be at Rogue Valley on July 18 and 19.

Second-Seeded Darlene Hard Wins At Wimbledon

Wimbledon, England—(UPI)—Darlene Hard, America's top hope in women's singles at the Wimbledon tennis championships, opened her bid for the title today by sweeping into the third round with a 6-1, 6-4 victory over Anne Shilcock of England.

Miss Hard, a bouncy blonde from Montebello, Calif., who is seeded second behind defending champion Maria Bueno of Brazil, drew a first round bye. Miss Bueno, victor over Darlene Hard in the 1959 final, opened today's center court program and entered the third round by whipping Belgium's Christiane Marcelis, 6-3, 6-2.

Miss Bueno, who also holds the U.S. women's title, is the 6-4 favorite to retain her Wimbledon crown. Miss Hard is the second choice at 5-2.

Today's program was devoted mainly to women's singles and men's doubles but Gardner Mulloy, 46, the gray-haired veteran from Coral Gables, Fla., completed a men's singles match halted by darkness Monday night. He moved into the second round by defeating Tony Pickard of England, 7-5, 6-4, 15-17, 6-3.

Dorothy Head Knode of Forest Hills, N.Y., and Panama gained the second round in women's singles by defeating Ruth Illingworth of England, 6-3, 6-3.

Braves Top Dodgers As Aaron Hits

That hammerin' National league pitchers hear today may mean Hank Aaron is ready to knock down the fences again for the Milwaukee Braves.

The NL batting champion with a 355 average last season, Aaron slipped to 279 with an early-season slump but he looked like the slugger of old Monday night when he hit two homers to power the Braves to a 4-1 victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers.

The victory moved the Braves into second place, seven percentage points ahead of the idle San Francisco Giants and four games behind the first place Pittsburgh Pirates.

The Kansas City Athletics pounded out a 9-6 victory over the Boston Red Sox in the only other major league game played Monday.

Studs Play GP Tonight At Cheney

This week's program of Area 4 southern division American Legion junior baseball games begins this evening at Cheney field.

Grants Pass and Central Point Cheney Studs will be opponents. Game time is 8 p.m.

Bill Anhorn is the expected moundsman for Central Point. Grants Pass may have either Dennis Walker or Paul Blinks on the hill. Anhorn pitched 11 innings of no hit ball against Medford last week in a scuffle which went 13 frames.

OTHER GAMES

Two other tilts are at Cheney diamond this week. Klamath Falls meets Medford on Wednesday night. Grants Pass and Medford collide on Friday. Also on Friday, Central Point goes to Klamath Falls.

In a non-league conflicts next Sunday, Medford will tussle Klamath Falls No. 2 at Klamath Falls and Central Point will go to Grants Pass.

Medford will be strengthened this week by the return of several players. Bob Guiney, Art Ruhl and Ray Stewart have been to Boys State and Dick Ragsdale to a Young Life camp in Canada.

SO Drivers Triumphant At Redding

Drag racing enthusiasts from southern Oregon made a clean sweep of all major awards at the sixth annual Northern California races Sunday at Redding, Calif.

A host of sleek competition machines, many representing Southern Oregon Timing association, won their way into the winners circle by eliminating some of the best competing California entries.

Taking top money in the meet and capping the meets major trophies was Medford's Noel Black who gunned the powerful Black - Hammond-Roberts A class fuel burning dragster past all competition. Blacks top time was 145.76 miles per hour.

In addition to garnering the top eliminator gold Block got top time of the meet, low elapsed time and won his class trophy.

Larry Sands, Central Point, swept aside all entries in "A" competition and also took home the middle eliminator trophy.

Medford's George Hunt was top man in "A" modified roadster and the "B" modified trophy went to Phil Miles of Medford. Another Medford entry Barney Metcalf won the hardware in "C" stock class.

Grants pass entries in the winners circle included Jim Wilson in "C" class dragster. Regional drag racing returns to White City this coming Sunday, June 26, for a day of acceleration races sponsored by Southern Oregon Timing association.

S and W Floor Covering downs Timber Products 7-4 last night in a Jackson County Softball association contest at the Medford High school stadium.

In the only other contest played last night Butte Falls took eight innings to down a stubborn Mail Tribune nine 4-3.

In the first game, Dale (Fuzzy) McCoy led off the scoring for the winners with a first inning home run with none on. Pitcher Willie Barnum held the Timber Products nine scoreless until the sixth inning when the Products team pushed across two runs.

Butte Falls' pitcher Bill Irwin won his own game in the extra-inning contest when he doubled in the winning run in the bottom of the eighth inning. Mail Tribune had pushed across one run in the top of the seventh to tie the contest at three-all and send the game into the extra inning.
