

New York Yanks, Pittsburgh Lengthen Winning Streaks

By FRED DOWN
United Press International

This just could be 1927 all over again with the New York Yankees "bombing" their way to the American league pennant and the Pittsburgh Pirates "pecking" their way to the National league flag.

These teams haven't met in a World Series since that 1927 campaign but both are currently "red hot" and looking more and more every day like the teams that can go all the way.

The Yankees ran their latest winning streak to five games and made it 12 victories in 13 games when they whipped the Detroit Tigers, 6-0, Tuesday night while the Pirates scored their sixth win in seven games with a 3-2 "sneaker" over the St. Louis Cardinals. The Yankees now lead the Baltimore Orioles by a half-game and the Pirates lead the Milwaukee Braves by 3 1/2 games.

The Yankees looked like the "bombers" of old with a 14-hit attack that included two homers by Mickey Mantle and a booming triple by Roger Maris. But the Pirates scored all their runs on singles and then needed a brilliant clutch relief performance by Eloy Face to nail down their triumph.

The Chicago White Sox snapped a four-game losing streak with a 4-3 decision over the Orioles; the Cleveland Indians nipped the Washington Senators, 5-4, and the Kansas City Athletics outslugged the Boston Red Sox, 11-7, in other American league games.

The Braves gained only a half game on the whizzing Pirates when they won a twin-night double header from the San Francisco Giants, 9-6 and 2-1 in 12 innings, the Cincinnati Reds beat the Los Angeles Dodgers, 6-4, and the Philadelphia Phillies beat the Chicago Cubs, 7-6, in 13 innings and led 7-5, when the second game was suspended after eight innings, in the other National league action.

Whitely Ford won his first game since May 26 behind the Yankee attack which routed nemesis Frank Lary in 6 2/3 innings. Mantle had three hits and Maris, Tony Kubek, Bill Skowron and Bobby Richardson two each, making it easy for Ford to win his third game of the year.

Dick Groat singled home two runs and Bill Virdon singled in the other for the Pirates. Vern Law won his 11th game. It was Face, however, who came out of the bullpen after three straight singles by the Cardinals in the ninth to preserve off-season Face picked a runner off second base and then struck out Daryl Spencer and Stan Musial to end the game. It was the little reliever's 10th "save" of the season.

Jim Landis homered for the White Sox in the ninth inning, giving Frank Baumann his fourth win and tagging Chuck Estrada with his third defeat. The Orioles had 12 hits but the White Sox clicked for three double plays. Walt Dropp homered for Baltimore.

Johnny Temple's two-run sixth-inning single enabled Jim Grant to beat the Senators for the 13th straight time. Johnny Klippstein pitched the last three innings to preserve the win for Grant, who yielded homers to Dan Dobbeek, pitcher Pedro Ramos and Earl Battey, for all of Washington's runs.

Jerry Lumpe and Marv Throneberry homered for the Athletics as Pete Daley gained his 10th win with late-inning relief aid from Bob Trowbridge. Ted Williams accounted for four of the Red Sox' runs with a run-scoring single and his 10th and 11th homers of the year.

Del Crandall, Hank Aaron and Joe Adcock homered and the Braves added four doubles to their attack on five San Francisco pitchers in their first game. The second game was a brilliant pitchers' duel eventually broken up by Red Schoendienst's run-scoring single in the 12th. Bob Buhl, who took over for Juan Pizarro in the 10th, was the winner in the nightcap.

The Reds ran their winning streak to four games on the strength of a three-run fifth-inning rally featured by Wally Post's homer. Bob Purkey gained his sixth win for the Reds and Johnny Podres suffered his sixth loss for Los Angeles. Norm Larker and John Roseboro hit two-run homers for the Dodgers.

ING and Dick Phillips contributed another run-producing single in the ninth.

Wend pitched four and two thirds shutout innings for Seattle and yielded only three hits. He struck out five batters and gave up three harmless walks. Wiend came on with one out in the fifth inning after the Solons had pounded Seattle starter Ray Rippelmeyer for four runs to erase a 3-0 Rainier lead. The Sacramento outburst ruined Rippelmeyer's bid for his ninth victory of the season. Seattle backed up Wiend's relief hurling with two runs in the fifth inning and two more in the seventh.

In the continued tussles First Presbyterian topped First Christian 11 to 9 and LDS beat First Methodist 12 to 6.

A nine-run frame aided the Phoenix team, First United almost caught up with five markers in the last canto.

Chuck Clemens and Russ Carr each had three hits for First Baptist. Lowell Dener and Tom Laurance homered for the Nazarenes.

LDS toppled Westminster with the help of eight runs in the first stanza.

Methodist socked 25 hits against First Christian and tabulated 11 runs in the sixth inning. Anderson and Edinger each had five hits.

Same Old Problems For Giants

Milwaukee (UP) — The San Francisco Giants may have a new manager but they appeared to have the same old problems today.

Milwaukee bounced the Giants twice Tuesday by scores of 9-6 and 2-1 in 12 innings.

The relief corps failed to hold back the Brave tide in the opener so that some lusty Giant stick-work went for naught. Then in the nightcap, with Jack Sanford pitching like Walter Johnson, the batters could not muscle up any scoring punch.

It was this shoddy relief hurling and spotty hitting that had the wolves howling for Manager Bill Rigney's job until he was replaced last Saturday by Tom Sheehan.

As a result of the double dumping, the Giants pennant hopes seem to be going "bye, bye baby." The Pirates kept winning and Milwaukee is getting tougher and trails the Bucs by 3 1/2 games. The once-proud Giants are 5 1/2 down and seven games back in the loss column, where a team can never get them back.

Sheehan was planning to shoot either Sam Jones (9-5) or Johnny Antonelli (3-4) at the Braves tonight. Milwaukee had more bad news for the Giants as fidgity Lew Burdette—a long-time Giant nemesis—takes the hill. Burdette is 7-2 on the year.

Three Yanks Beaten In Wimbledon Play

Wimbledon, England—(UP)—The United States' contingent in the Wimbledon tennis championship suffered further humiliation today when three of its players were chased off the courts early in the second round of the men's singles.

Herb Flam of Beverly Hills, Calif., a former Davis Cup player, dropped a 6-2, 6-2, 6-2 decision to third-seeded Rod Laver of Australia, the beaten finalist in last year's tournament.

Dennis Ralston of Bakersfield, Calif., the U.S. junior champion, was eliminated by Jan Erik Lundquist of Sweden, 6-4, 6-1, 9-7, and Mal Fox of Baltimore lost to Jean Noel Grinda of France, 6-0, 6-1, 6-2.

There were times during his match with Laver that Flam must have wished he had remained in California. His plane was delayed and he had to play his first round match Monday without sleep. Today he ran into the red-haired Laver at the top of his game.

Flam dropped his service in the fourth and final games of each set, double-faulting at set point in the first set. It took Laver only 61 minutes to wrap up the victory.

One other Yank was sure to bow out today with Earl (Butch) Buehholz of St. Louis favored to oust John Cranston of San Marino, Calif., in an all-American match.

Chuck McKinley, the promising 19-year-old from St. Louis, faced an experienced internationalist in France's Pierre Darmon.

Gardnar Mulloy, the 46-year-old Coral Gables, Fla., lawyer, faced Britain's No. 1 player, Mike Davies.

Jack Frost of Monterey, Calif., the only other Yank who survived Monday's opening round of men's play, was to meet Rejmo Nyssonen of Finland. Nine of the 18 Amer-

Giallombardo, Pitches, Bats Indians Into Lead

By ORVILLE BOYINGTON
United Press International

The Spokane Indians are the leaders in the Pacific Coast league once again thanks to the power hitting of ace lefthander Bob Giallombardo and some timely cooperation from the Seattle Rainiers.

Giallombardo belted a two-run triple in the fourth inning and added a single as he scattered eight hits and went the distance on the mound to lead Spokane to a 6-3 win over Tacoma.

At the same time, the Rainiers, with new addition Ted Wiend pitching effectively in relief, turned back Sacramento, 7-4. The action left Tacoma and Sacramento in second and third places respectively and each a full game off the pace. Four percentage points separate the Giants and the Solons in the standings.

In other games Tuesday night, the Vancouver Mounties stretched their winning streak to four with a 3-2 victory over San Diego and Portland defeated Salt Lake, 5-2.

Giallombardo's long triple sparked Spokane's three-run uprising in the fourth inning that gave the Indians enough to win it. Tony Roig's two-run homer in the fifth inning was the biggest blow of Spokane's 11-hit attack. Giallombardo was credited with his fourth victory in six decisions.

Tacoma's pinchhitting saved the Giants from a shutout as Danny O'Connell hit a two-run single in the seventh inning.

Back to back home runs by Bill Wilson and Pete Gongola in the eighth inning gave Portland its victory. The circuit clouts broke open a 2-2 ball game and gave Beaver pitcher Lynn Lovenguth his eighth win of the season against five defeats. Lovenguth needed relief help from veteran Barry Byrd in the ninth inning.

Methodist socked 25 hits against First Christian and tabulated 11 runs in the sixth inning. Anderson and Edinger each had five hits.

LDS topped Westminster with the help of eight runs in the first stanza.

Church Softball Loop Underway; Tussles Tuesday

First full slate of the Medford Church Softball league was played last night with four regular tussles played and two others completed after being started last week.

First Baptist tripped First Nazarene 14 to 8, Phoenix Presbyterian nipped First United Presbyterian 14 to 13. Latter Day Saints walloped Westminster Presbyterian 17 to 3 and First Methodist pasted First Christian 27 to 9.

In the continued tussles First Presbyterian topped First Christian 11 to 9 and LDS beat First Methodist 12 to 6.

Pin Lanes Opposes KF

Medford Bowling lanes steps out of Rogue Valley league action this evening to meet a Klamath Falls semi-pro aggregation.

Game time will be 8 p.m. at Memorial stadium, White City.

The Klamath team is playing independent ball under sponsorship of the Klamath Falls city recreation program. It was "priced" out of the Northern California circuit and attempted to join the Rogue Valley loop but was too late with its application.
