Friend Pitches 4th Shutout Of Year for Pittsburgh Bucs

United Press International

Bob Friend and Vern Law are giving the Pittsburgh Pirates the National league's best 1-2 pitching combination since Bucky Walters and Paul Derringer almost single-handedly hurled the Cincinnati Reds to the flag in 1939.

The league has been such brilliant duos as Mort Cooper and Johnny Beazley, Sal Maglie and Larry Jansen, and Warren Spahn and Lew Burdette in the last 20 years. But Friend and Law look like they'll surpass the exploits of 'em all. You have to go all the way back to that '39 season when Walters won 27 and Derringer won 25 to find a pair with a pace to match the Pirate stars.

In fact, with 20 victories between them in 60 games, Friend and Law are traveling at exactly the pace that would give them 52 wins – the same number totaled by Walters and Derringer.

Friend Blanks Cards

It was Friend's turn Wednesday night and the comeback right-hander fired an eight-hitter that gave the Pirates a 5-0 triumph over the St. Louis Cardinals. This was Friend's fourth shutout and lifted his record to 9-3. Law, who won Tuesday night, stands 11-2, so the two have a combined 20-5 mark.

The victory enabled the Pirates to maintain their 3½-game first-place lead over the Milwaukee Braves, who whipped the San Francisco Giants, 7-4. The Philadelphia Phillies closed out a suspended Tuesday night game with a 7-6 win and then beat the Chicago Cubs, 6-3, in their regularly-scheduled game in other National league action.

The New York Yankees increased their American league lead to 1½ games when they beat the Detroit Tigers, 7-3, for their sixth straight win. The Chicago White Sox downed the Baltimore Orioles, 3-1; the Cleveland Indians edged the Washington Senators, 1-0, and the Kansas City Athletics beat the Boston Red Sox, 2-1.

Dick Groat had four hits and Roberto Clemente doubled home two keys runs to lead the Pirates' 11-hit attack that tagged Larry Jackson with his seventh loss. The Pirates have won six of their last seven games and have a seven-game winning streak at home.

Lew Burdette, aided by Don McMahon's relief, raised his record to 8-2 behind a 13-hit attack that included a homer by Bill Bruton and four doubles. Johnny Antonelli was tagged for 10 hits in five innings to suffer his fifth defeat. It was the fourth straight loss for the Giants, who haven't won since their first game under Manager Tom Sheehan last Saturday.

Robin Roberts completed the final innings of the suspended game for the Phillies and then Chris Short pitched an eight-hitter for his fourth victory. Tony Curry and Tony Gonzalez hit homers for the Phillies, whose four-game winning streak is their longest since last July.

Kent Hadley, filling in for injured Bill Skowron, drove in three runs with two homers as the Yankees made it 13 wins in 14 games and 16 in 19. Art Ditmar won his sixth straight game although Ryne Duren relieved in the ninth. Roger Maris also homered for New York and Rocky Colavito and Al Kaline connected for Detroit.

Ted Bowsfield, acquired from Boston on June 14, won his second consecutive game for the Indians with a five-hitter. The Indians gave him the game's only run in the first inning when Jimmy Piersall tripled and scored on Harvey Kuenn's single.

Ray Herbert pitched a seven-hitter to win his third game for the Athletics and hand Frank Sullivan his seventh loss for Boston. Herbert scored the winning run himself when Andy Carey hit into a double play with the bases filled in the sixth inning.

Spokane Wins Pair To Widen PCL Gap

By ORVILLE BOYINGTON
United Press International

Spokane shrugged off the fence busting tactics of Tacoma's Dusty Rhodes and Bob Perry Wednesday night and as a result the Indians today boast a two and one-half game lead in the Pacific Coast League.

The Indians turned back Tacoma, 5-4, and 8-5, in a double header despite homers in each game by Rhodes and Perry plus single round-trippers by Matty Alou and Tom Haller. Tacoma dropped to third place, three games off the pace.

Seattle helped Spokane gain its comfortable lead by winning a 2-1 squeaker from second place Sacramento. In other games, Vancouver ran its win streak to five games with an 8-1 victory over San Diego and Salt Lake defeated Portland, 7-5.

A squeeze bunt by Curt Roberts with the bases loaded in the last inning of the seven-inning opener gave Spokane its come-from-behind triumph in that game. Roberts' bunt chased Mel Nelson across the plate with the winning run. The run climaxed an Indian rally which started in the fourth inning with the Giants leading 4-0.

Rhodes Homers

Tacoma's four-run bulge came on Rhodes' two-run circuit blast and back-to-back homers by Perry and Haller.

Spokane led from the start in the second contest, rolling up a five run lead before the Giants could score. The Indians' 12-hit attack gave Ed Rakow his second win in five games. Tacoma paraded four hurlers to the mound in the nightcap in an effort to halt the Indians. Don Choate, Giant starter, suffered his sixth loss against five victories.

Jim Baumer whacked a homer in the third inning then belted a timely single during a three-run outburst in the fifth to lead Salt Lake to its victory. Hugh Pepper saved the win for the Bees when he came on in the seventh inning to put down a Portland rally. In doing so, Pepper was credited with his third win against three defeats. He was the third Salt Lake pitcher.

Walt Threatens To Fine Dodgers

Cincinnati–(UPI)–It might be a little nippy in this Ohio hamlet today, but for the hapless Los Angeles Dodgers, 12 games out of first place in the National League, the weather was hot.

And not a little of the heat smoked from the collar of Manager Walter Alston.

The Dodgers were to meet the fourth-place Redlegs tonight at Crosley field, with a roasting by Alston still looming large in their memories.

Wednesday night's scheduled game between the two clubs was rained out.

Alston tore into his players Tuesday night after losing to the Reds and threatened the team with fines for misdeeds on the diamond.

"I don't want to take their money, and I've never done it as long as I've managed the Dodgers, but this careless, sloppy play must stop.

"What burned me to a crisp was the fact that we'd just gone over these mistakes in a meeting before the game," Alston said.

Braves Get Alvin Dark

Milwaukee, Wis.–(UPI)–Alvin Dark had the chance today to put his "intangible assets" to work in making the Milwaukee Braves the fourth pennant winner he has played with in a 14-year career.

Dark, 37, was traded to the Braves Wednesday night by the Philadelphia Phillies in exchange for third baseman Joe Morgan off the roster of Milwaukee's Louisville farm club.

If the Boston Braves and Milwaukee Braves are counted as two different teams, Dark thus moves to his sixth National league club since he broke in with Boston in 1946. He was with the pennant-winning Braves in 1948 and with the championship New York Giants in 1951 and 1954.

Both Milwaukee Manager Charlie Dressen and General Manager John McHale said Dark would be used as a pinchhitter and utility man.

Engleson Fires Ace

Dr. Dave Engleson carded a hole-in-one yesterday on the Rogue Valley Country club golf links.

The ace was on the 191-yard No. 4 hole and Engleson made the shot with a No. 2 iron.

A seven-handicapper, Dr. Engleson had a 43-42–85 for his 18 hole round. He was playing with Dr. Ralph Odell, Dr. Robert Buck and Harvey Woods Jr.

Track Test At Ashland Saturday

Ashland—No pre-entry will be required for the Saturday all-comers track meet at Southern Oregon college, according to Dan Bulkley, who is in charge.

Bulkley suggested, however, that prospective entrants appear at the college oval about an hour ahead of meet time. This will provide time to register and warm up properly.

The meet is open to amateurs with a 25c entry fee to help pay the cost of awards.

Events for junior boys and girls will get underway at 10 a.m. with 9-10, 11-12, 13-14 and 15-16-year age divisions. High school and college or open rivalry will begin at 5:30 p.m.

The meet is the first of a series in the Rogue valley. Other meets will be rotated among the Medford and Ashland high and college tracks.

City recreation departments in the southern Oregon area have entry blanks.

Americans Start Fast In Cup Play

Portmarnock, Ireland–(UPI)–Arnold Palmer and Sam Snead fired a four-under-par team total of 140 in the first round today to give the United States a fast start in the International Golf and Canada Cup Championship.

Palmer, showing the same brilliant golf that enabled him to surge from behind to win the U.S. Open last Saturday at Denver, fired a three-under-par 69. Snead, the 48-year-old master from White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., shot a one-under-par 71.

Snead had a one-under-par 35 on the front line but Palmer carried the load on the back nine with a three-under-par 33 after matching the par 36 going out.

The Americans produced long, accurate drives despite the crosswind sweeping over the 7,093-yard Portmarnock course, which is surrounded on three sides by the Irish Sea.

Bill Skowron Sprains Wrist

Detroit–(UPI)–Bill Skowron, the New York Yankees' muscular but injury-prone first baseman, is on the shelf again.

The ex-Purdue football player will be lost to the team for a week to 10 days because of a badly sprained left wrist which he suffered sliding into second base in the sixth inning of Tuesday night's 6-0 victory over the Detroit Tigers.

What Next Question For Giants

Milwaukee – (UPI) – What's the next step?

That's the question President Horace Stoneman probably is asking himself today after his San Francisco Giants dropped their fourth straight Wednesday night, 7-4, to the sizzling Milwaukee Braves.

Last week the Giant prexy responded to four straight setbacks by replacing Manager Bill Rigney with Chief Scout Tom Sheehan. And the team was in second place then – just four games back of league-leading Pittsburgh.

Today the Giants are six and one-half games behind the Pirates, and trail the second-place Braves by three.

Sheehan continued to shuffle his lineup Wednesday night, bringing in Hobie Landrith to catch, placing Willie McCovey back on first base and injecting Willie Kirkland in the cleanup spot.

McCovey was dropped to sixth position from his customary fourth batting spot so the fleeter boys – Orlando Cepeda and Kirkland – could have first crack at the base paths.

Burdette Credited

Sheehan also has Andre Rodgers back at shortstop – when he played the first half of last season – replacing the slumping Ed Bressoud.

Veteran Lou Burdette got credit for Wednesday night's victory – his eighth – to become the Braves' winningest pitcher.

But San Francisco bats routed the crafty righthander in the eighth with two out. A bunt by Don Blasingame, consecutive doubles by Jimmy Davenport and Willie Mays – his second of the game – and Kirkland's single produced three runs to make it 6-4. Then Don McMahon came in to put out the fire.

Johnny Antonelli lost his fourth straight and got touched for 10 hits in five innings. But his fast ball after the third looked better than it has all season. It was during the first two frames, when he tossed mostly curves and change-ups, that the Giant hurler got pounded for four runs and six safeties. The Braves added one more tally in the fifth to make it 5-0.

Billy Bruton slammed an inside the park homer off Stu Miller in the seventh after rightfielder Kirkland failed in a shoestring catch attempt.

Mays, now third among National league batters with a .343 percentage, extended his hitting string to eight consecutive games.

Dodgers Sign Moeller Boys

Los Angeles–(UPI)–The Los Angeles Dodgers have their second brother battery team in the making today with the signing of pitcher Joe Moeller and his catching brother, Gary, for an estimated total bonus of $75,000.

And the same scout who signed World Series pitching hero Larry Sherry and his catcher-brother, Norm, took part in the signing of the Moellers.

But scout Harold (Lefty) Phillips said the Moellers received nearly 10 times as much as the Sherry brothers to join the Dodger organization. The combined bonus was the largest paid by the Dodgers this season for playing talent.

Game Won By Klamath

Klamath Falls semi-pro baseball nine downed Medford Bowling lanes 13 to 12 last night in a non-league scrape at Memorial stadium, White City.

The late starting contest went for seven innings.

Klamath had the biggest inning of the night with eight scores in the second frame. Most the Keglers could muster at a time was three. They gained that many in three different innings.

George Ice, Frank Rector and Ray Anderson each got two hits for Medford.

Medford pitchers struck out batters 11 times and issued nine walks. Klamath tossers had three strikeouts in the book and gave up nine free passes.

American Legion junior baseball contention in Area 4 southern division continues Friday night with Medford meeting Grants Pass at Cheney field here and Central Point going to Klamath Falls. Play ball will be at 8 p.m. Medford will go to Klamath Sunday with the first of two games counting in league standings. Grants Pass and Central Point Cheney Studs will have a non-counting game here on Sunday.

Klamath Falls kept its Area 4 southern division record unblemished in American Legion junior baseball by scoring its fourth league victory last night.

Don Willey singled home the winning run in the extra eighth frame for a 5 to 4 nod over Medford at Cheney field. It was Medford's third setback in the circuit.

Dave Stippich drew a base on balls in the inning and was sacrificed to second by Wally Palmberg to set the stage for the hit. Palmberg, pitching in relief, retired the side in order to prevent a Medford rally in the bottom of the eighth.

Klamath made it 3 to 0 on the scoreboard in the third inning on two bases on balls, hits by Don Willey and Bruce Brickner, an error, a fielder's option, a passed ball and a stolen base. Medford centerfielder Dick Ragsdale, whose bobble had permitted one runner to advance a base, redeemed himself with a fine throw which cut off another possible run at the plate.

Medford put to use three errors, a passed ball, a sacrifice flyout by Bob Quinney and a flyout by Craig Laurance for two runs in the third canto. The Post 15 club went ahead 4 to 3 in the fourth inning with two runs on hits by Jim Calhoun and Mike Neathamer, a passed ball and an error.

Klamath knotted the game in the fifth on a walk, Don Gresdel's single and Bucky Wilson's groundout. The KF nine threatened in the seventh when a base on balls, a stolen base and an error got a runner, Hank Herrera, to third. A hurler Herb Wheeler pitchout to catcher Jim Barry foiled a Klamath squeeze or steal effort and Herrera was trapped between third base and home. A hit batter and a double by Wilson revived the threat but Shortstop Danny Miles fielded a deep infield swat by John Bianchi and got the ball to first base just in time for a third out.

Medford in the seventh loaded the bases on an error, a walk and catcher's interference but Calhoun hit into a force play for the third out.

Klamath collected nine hits off Wheeler including three each by Willey and Wilson. Calhoun and Neathamer for Medford each got two safeties as John Webb yielded six bingles in 6 1/3 innings. Wheeler registered six strikeouts, Webb four and Palmberg three.

Hard, Hopps Grab Wimbledon Tangles

Wimbledon, England – (UPI) – Darlene Hard, Montebello, Calif., and Janet Hopps, Seattle, Wash., surged into the fourth round in women's singles today at the Wimbledon tennis championships with straight-set triumphs.

Miss Hard, seeded No. 2 behind defending champion Maria Bueno of Brazil, walloped Frances Walton of England 6-1, 6-0.

Miss Hopps, U.S. Wightman Cup captain, ousted Florence de La Courtie of France, 6-4, 6-1.

Rain delayed the start of the fourth day's play and interrupted the action again after Miss Hard and Miss Hopps won their matches.

Despite rain and thunderstorms in the area, about 18,000 spectators were on hand when Barry MacKay of Dayton, Ohio, America's big hope in men's singles, opened play against Sweden's Ulf Schmidt. Play was halted, after MacKay won the first set, 6-4.

The Yanks started the tournament with 18 entries in the men's singles. Nine were eliminated in Monday's opening round and five more were chased to the sidelines in the second round Wednesday.

The other U.S. survivors in addition to MacKay were young Earl (Butch) Buchholz of St. Louis, 46-year-old Gardnar Mulloy of Coral Gables, Fla., and Jack Frost of Monterey, Calif.

It was the same story in the women's singles, where only four of the original eight U.S. entries reached the third round. They were Darlene Hard of Montebello, Calif., Karen Hantze of San Diego, Calif., Janet Hopps of Seattle, Wash., and Dorothy Head Knode of Forest Hills, N.Y.

Mulloy amazed a crowd of 20,000 Wednesday with a variety of placements, passing shots and drop shots that earned him a 6-3, 6-3, 6-4 victory over Mike Davies, Britain's No. 1 player.

Portland–(UPI)–The Portland Beavers of the Pacific Coast league gave outfielder Don Frailey his outright release and sold pitcher Bob Anderson to Salem of the Northwest league here Wednesday. The Beavers earlier in the day recalled outfielder-first baseman Gerry Mason and pitcher Pete Mesa from Salem. Both had been with Portland earlier in the year.

4 Tiffs Slated By Dairy Maids

Four games in five days are included in the next activity for the Rogue Valley Dairy Maids softball team.

The Maids tussle Port Angeles, Wash., on Saturday in a doubleheader. Then, they meet the strong Irv Lind Florists of Portland on Tuesday and Wednesday, June 28 and 29.

All of these games will be in the Northwest Women's Major Softball league. All four games will be at Memorial stadium, White City.

RAMBLERS BEAT LIND

Phoenix, Ariz. – (UPI)–The Phoenix Ramblers defeated Erv Lind Florists of Portland, Ore., and their ace pitcher, Louise Mazucca, 3-2, in softball Wednesday night to sweep a three-game series.
