

Torrid Braves Complete 4-Game Sweep Over Sagging SF Giants

That shrill whistle you hear today means that Charlie Drensen has the Milwaukee Braves' pennant express in high gear.

and eight runs in 5 2/3 innings. Four San Francisco errors made six of the Milwaukee runs unearned.
Snap Winning Streak
Joe Glenn singled to snap a 1-1 tie in the seventh inning and the Cardinals added another run on singles by Ronnie Kline and Julian Javier to snap the Pirates' seven-game home winning streak. It was Kline's third win of the season while Harvey Hadjick suffered his fourth defeat.

Stan Williams pitched a six-hitter to raise his record to 6-1 behind a 10-hit Cincinnati attack that included two hits each by Tommy Davis and Don Demeter. Williams retired the first 18 men to face him before Eddie Kasko doubled to lead off the seventh inning.

The Phillies rose out of the NL cellar on the wings of a seventh-inning solo homer by Ken Walters that broke a 6-6 tie with the Cubs. Dick Farrell, who pitched the last 2 1/3 innings, won his fifth game while Seth Morehead suffered his sixth loss without a victory this season.
Staley Falls Apart
The Orioles scored two runs in the 11th inning when ace relief pitcher Gerry Staley of the White Sox came apart after the White Sox tied the score at 3-3 in the ninth on homers by Roy Sievers and Al Smith. Chuck Estrada, who shut out the White Sox for the last 1 1/3 innings, won his seventh game and Staley was charged with his third loss.

Errors Hurt as Bay City Team Drops 5th Straight

Cincinnati, Ohio (AP)—Manager Tom Clancy (McWorry?) Sheehan of the plummeting San Francisco Giants sends left-handers Billy O'Dell (2-7) or Mike McCormick (8-3) to the hill tonight against the Cincinnati Reds and in quest of something that resembles a victory.

leading the world in making errors" and estimated that the club has made three or four a game for the past two weeks. This was a bit of an exaggeration but Clancy was warm. Jones dropped his seventh loss against nine wins Thursday when Eddie Mathews crashed a pair of two-run homers for the second place Braves and errors were contributed by shortstop Ed Bressoud, catcher Bob Schmidt, first baseman Willie McCovey and old Sam himself.

The Braves gained a full game when the Pirates were beaten, 3-1, by the St. Louis Cardinals, while the Philadelphia Phillies downed the Chicago Cubs, 4-3, and the Los Angeles Dodgers defeated the Cincinnati Reds, 6-2, in the other National League games.

Bressoud atoned for his boot by cracking a bases-empty home run in the ninth inning but it wasn't enough to rally the Giants who sank deeper into third place and now trail pace-setting Pittsburgh by 6 1/2 games. Schmidt, back on the beam as a hitter, homered in the fourth.

The Baltimore Orioles advanced to within a half game of the American league lead when they beat the Chicago White Sox, 5-3, in 11 innings and the Detroit Tigers topped the New York Yankees, 2-1. The Cleveland Indians defeated the Washington Senators, 7-8, and the Boston Red Sox routed the Kansas City Athletics, 13-4, in other American league action.

Warren Spahn, now 5-4, went the distance while hurling the Braves to their sixth win in a row, their longest streak of the season.
Mathews Connects
Mathews banged his first homer in the first inning with Johnny Logan on base to tie the score 2-2, then connected for another off Jones during the sixth with Logan again on base.

Spahn went the distance for the Braves to win his fifth game behind a nine-hit attack that included two hits each by Wes Covington and Frank Torre. Sam Jones suffered his seventh loss after being tagged for eight hits

The blast featured a four-run rally that started when Red Schoendienst was safe at first on McCovey's fumble of his grounder. Charlie Lau had led off with a walk and was safe at second on the play. Then Spahn hit a bleeder back to forward the mound and Ed Schmidt hurled the second out of the inning. Lau scored but Spahn was thrown out at second on the play.

Then Billy Bruton hit another roller which handcuffed McCovey but second baseman Joe Amalfitano grabbed the ball and retired the Braves' outfielder at first. Pinch runner Felix Mantilla scored, however, and then Mathews lowered the boom.

Medford's Legion Nine Tussles GP

Medford Post 15 American Legion junior baseball crew, still aiming for its first victory in the southern division of Area 4, appears in one of two games tonight which round out the current week of league play.

The Medford nine, which has Coca Cola as its main sponsor, will take on Grants Pass at Cheney field here this evening. Time of the game is 8 p.m. The other engagement will have Central Point Cheney Studs at Klamath Falls.

A doubleheader is scheduled for Medford at Klamath on Sunday afternoon with the first game counting in the standings. Central Point will have a non-counting mix at Cheney field on Sunday at 2 p.m. against Grants Pass.

Coach Cliff McLean of the Medford nine said this morning that Bud Lowery is the likely pitcher for the Coke team this evening. He was not certain of the availability of Jim Barry for the receiving end of the battery and said that Art Ruhl may be the catcher.

Parry was hit on the side of the elbow by a line drive Wednesday night when Medford played Klamath Falls. He played through the game, however. The receiver was not at drill last night and McLean didn't know just how much the arm might be troubling the player.

Grants Pass may have Denny Walker or Paul Blink on the hill. GP beat Medford just 5 to 3 last week and hopes of the Post 15 club are higher for this evening's brush because it has players back who missed the other scuffle. Other setbacks suffered by Medford in the loop have been by a lone run in extra innings.

Central Point will have its whole pitching staff ready to pick from for this evening's KP session. Coach Bill Askwith has indicated that the choice is between Bill Anhorn and Doug Pfaff.

Not mentioned, through oversight, in yesterday's story on the Medford-KP tilt was Medford rightfielder Dick Deffley's great catch of a hard low fly rap by Rich DePew in the fourth inning. KP had men on second and third bases at the time and Deffley's deep over-the-shoulder juggling catch robbed DePew of a seeming hit and the KP team of two likely runs. The catch retired the side.

First Track Meet In Series Saturday

Competition at the Southern Oregon college oval on Saturday, June 25, will lead off a series of six all-comers amateur track and field meets in Ashland and Medford this summer.

The complete schedule has been announced by the three sponsoring agencies, the college, Ashland High school and Medford city recreation department.

Meets are being rotated and the other dates are July 9 at Ashland high, July 23 at Medford high, Aug. 6 at Southern Oregon college, Aug. 20 at Ashland high and Sept. 2 at Medford high.

This Saturday's meet and those which follow will have junior events in the morning and college or open division and high school contention in the evening.

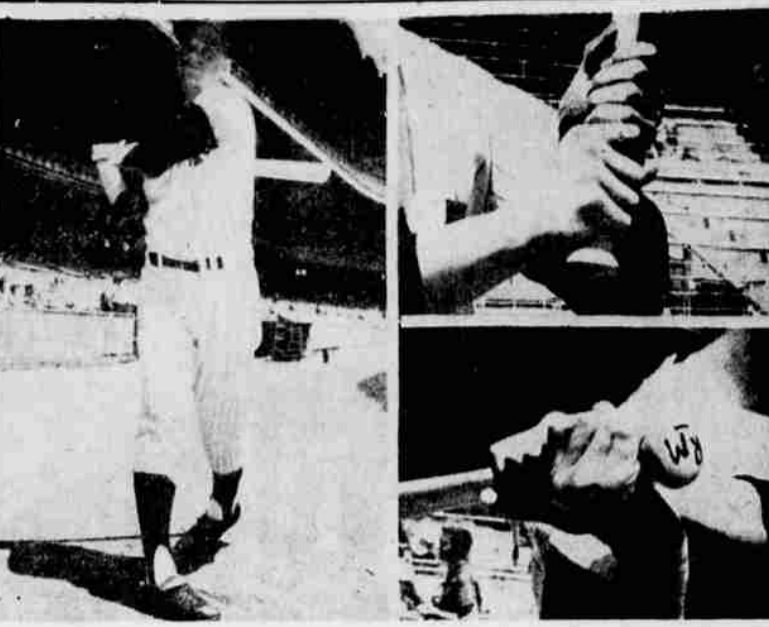

Junior events, for both boys and girls, will have age divisions of 9-10, 11-12, 13-14 and 15-16 years. They will get underway at 10 a.m. Events for high school age boys and college or open division athletes will start this week at 5:30 p.m. College events will include all open ones and all high school events for which there are entries will be run.

Boys 9 through 12 will compete in the 75, 220 and 440 yard runs, the 70-yard low hurdles, the pole vault, shot put, high jump and broad jump. Those 13 through 16 will have these same events plus the half-mile, 70-yard high hurdles, discus and javelin.

Girls will run in the 75 and 220-yard sprints, the 70-yard low hurdles, the shot put, high jump and broad jump. Up through the high school division, a boy may enter either the half or the mile but not both, whether in one division or in another.

An entry fee of 25¢ per individual is being charged for each meet. For the final meet, a championship event, the fee will be 50 cents. The money will help pay for awards. Ribbons, mounted on certificates, will go to the first five places in each event.

Advance entry can be made but is not necessary and the fee can be paid on the day of the meet.

Five Magic Digit In Coast Circuit

By JOE SANDERS
United Press International
Five was the magic number Thursday night in a round of Pacific Coast league games which saw Spokane stretch its league lead to three and one half games by beating Tacoma, 9-6.

Spokane did it mainly on the strength of five runs batted in by Ron Fairly. At the same time, Seattle stretched its current winning streak to five downing Sacramento, 5-0. San Diego ended its five-game losing streak and Vancouver's five-game winning streak, beating the Mounties, 4-1. Salt Lake City beat Portland, 7-5.

Fairly collected a homer, a double and a single and also figured in pushing across two other runs in addition to his five RBIs. Fairly's stick work enabled starter Mel Nelson to pick up his seventh straight victory against one loss.

At Seattle, the Rainiers got two-hit pitching from former major leaguer Erv Palica, and a donation of three unearned runs in a five-run seventh inning to complete a sweep of their three-game series with Sacramento.

Palica allowed only one runner as far as second base as he pitched his third shut-out in four starts with the Rainiers.

Butte Falls Gains Tie In Softball

Butte Falls subdued previously unwarmed Cheney Studs at the Medford stadium last night 9 to 3 to pull into a tie at the top of the Jackson County Softball association standing with the Studs.

The Cheney nine, which earlier in the evening laced Civil Service 12 to 5, and Butte Falls each have 3-1 records in the loop.

Lithia Lumber bounced Timber Products 9 to 1 also last night and its 2-1 record in the circuit ties it for third spot with S and W Floor Covering.

Fans 11 Batters
Butte Falls pitcher Bill Irwin tossed a four hitter and whiffed 11 batters in the association nightcap a game at Cheney. The Logger town established its victory with six runs in the sixth inning. Lloyd Rols in the sixth inning. Lloyd Rols tripled, Art Ellis and Jerry Ferguson each doubled and Hank Tygart, Irwin and Ray Abbott singled. A walk helped out.

Ellis and Irwin each had three hits.
Cheney tucked away its game with Civil Service with a five-run seventh canto. There were three walks, a single by Cy Perkins and sacrifice flies by Harry Tonn and Gordon Carrigan. Jack Brown homered for the Studs and Harvey Tonn hit three for four.

A home run by Jim McAbee highlighted the Lithia win.

Swim Class At Jackson Pool

Boys and girls, who are interested and who meet the requirements may register at 6:30 p.m. today for synchronized swimming at Medford's Jackson pool.

To be eligible a boy or girl must have passed in intermediate swimming instruction or must be able to swim with some efficiency.

The pool is offering the course at no charge. At the end of the instruction, a water show will be presented.

LA's Stan Brilliant On Mound

Milwaukee (AP)—The Los Angeles Dodgers moved into Milwaukee for a series with the second-place Braves today, hoping the superb pitching of Stan Williams will be duplicated by Sandy Koufax

Williams, who now owns a 6-1 record, set Cincinnati down Thursday night with six hits as the Dodgers defeated the Redlegs, 6-2, and brought themselves from 12 to 11 games out in the National League race.

For tonight's game against Charlie Drensen's Beertown Braves, Manager Walter Alston, who had threatened his team with fines for sloppy play, named strikeout artist Koufax (2-8) to pitch against Carlton Willey (4-3).
Kasko a Spoiler
Eddie Fiksko's double in the seventh inning spoiled Williams' fair-sized bid for a no-hitter. Up to that blow at the top of the frame, Stan had pitched to 18 batters in a row without giving up a hit.

Williams now has won four consecutive games.
The Dodgers' victory in the series finale with the Reds was aided by rookie Tommy Davis, who collected two hits in five trips and drove in a pair of runs. Lean Don Demeter got two hits, and Charlie Neal got two RBIs.

Norm Larker, the current fair-haired boy with a bat for Los Angeles, pinch-hit for catcher Norm Sherry in the ninth and hit a single.

Africans Head Links Tourney

Portmarnock, Ireland (AP)—America's Arnold Palmer and Sam Snead set out today to overtake South Africa's "walking wounded" on the second round of the International Trophy and Canada Cup golf matches.

Little Gary Player and methodical Bobby Locke, neither in top physical shape, took the lead Thursday.

Player, who took adrenalin injections before and during the first round because of a severe attack of asthma, shot a seven-under-par course record 31-34-65 to take over the individual lead.

The 42-year-old Locke, still in pain from injuries suffered in an automobile accident last February, carded a 36-36-72, giving the South Africans a 137 aggregate.

U.S. champ Palmer shot a 36-33-69 which put him in third place in the individual standings. Snead had a 35-36-71, giving the U.S. pair a 140 total.
