

Mrs. Daniel Bradford Voorhies is the former Kathy Ingle. The Voorhies-Ingle wedding, held June 17 at Trinity Episcopal church, Ashland, was one of the largest of June, with about 275 guests present for the ceremony and reception. (Memory Lane photo)

A June bride is Mrs. Richard L. Copple, the former Delora Louise Dunn. Mrs. Copple is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Dunn, Biddle road, Medford, and Mr. Copple's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Copple, formerly of Medford and now of Springfield, Ore. The Copple-Dunn wedding took place June 18 at First Presbyterian church, Medford. (Landis photo)

Before her wedding June 19 in St. Mark's Episcopal church here, Mrs. Mark Merle Putnam was Martha Josephine (Marjo) Murray. The bride, who taught last year at Washington school in Medford, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth F. Murray, 3734 Crater Lake highway; the bridegroom, who teaches for the Central Point school district, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn I. Putnam, Myrtle Point, Ore. (Landis photo)

Following their wedding June 17 in Trinity Episcopal church, Ashland, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Bradford Voorhies posed for traditional wedding pictures. The bride is the former Kathy Ingle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Schooley Ingle, 1155 Fern street, Ashland, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Voorhies of Portland and Medford. The newlyweds will spend the summer in the valley, and in the fall the bride will attend Ohio State university where she has a teaching fellowship and the bridegroom will report for duty with the National Guard. (Memory Lane photo)

A reception held June 17 at Medford Latter Day Saints church honored Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gerald Brass, who were married June 6 in the Temple at Salt Lake City. About 200 guests attended. The bride is the former Sharee Lue Skipworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Skipworth, 808 Church street, Phoenix, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Brass, 1626 Kings highway, Medford. (Knackstedt photo)

Mark Putnam and his bride of two hours, the former Marjo Murray, were pelted with rice when they left St. Mark's Episcopal church June 19 for a wedding trip to southern California. (Landis photo)

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond E. Guise, who were married June 17 at Medford's First Presbyterian church, left after the ceremony for Albany, Ga., where the bridegroom is on duty with the United States Air Force. About 100 guests attended the wedding and the reception which followed. (Landis photo)

A ceremony June 18 at the Selma Baptist church married Miss Dorothy Joanne Warren of Selma to Marvin Arnold Throne of Gold Hill, and the newlyweds are living at 215 North Ivy street in Medford. This fall the bridegroom will return to his teaching position with the Gold Hill school system, and the bride will teach in the Medford system. The bride wore brocaded taffeta and carried a keepsake handkerchief which both her mother and grandmother had carried at their weddings. (Knackstedt photo)

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gerald Koester (Virginia Geraldine Laborde) were married June 18 at Medford Friends church and are making their home in Newhall, Calif. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Laborde. (Classic photo)