Presbyterian Rites Marry Couple

Miss Delora Louise Dunn became the bride of Richard L. Copple in a ceremony June 18 at the First Presbyterian church. Dr. D. Kirkland West officiated at the three o'clock afternoon rites attended by 100 relatives and friends.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Dunn, 2444 Biddle road. Mr. Copple is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Copple, formerly of Medford and now of Springfield, Ore.

Mrs. R. A. Sheldon played the organ music for the double-ring rites and accompanied Miss Mira Frohnmayer, soloist.

Baskets of pink and white gladioli and palms decorated the church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown fashioned with lace bodice and tiered nylon tulle skirt. Her fingertip length veil was held by a cap of lace and seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of white carnations and pink rosebuds.

Mrs. James W. Grey was matron of honor. She wore a turquoise nylon organza frock with balloon sleeves. Other attendants were Mrs. Richard McLoughlin, Miss Donna Witter, and Miss Nyla Murray. Their frocks were styled as the honor attendants' but in aquamarine blue. Their headresses matched their dresses and they carried bouquets of chrysanthemums encircling pink rosebuds.

Flower girl was Kathy Carlon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Carlon. Larry Copple, Springfield, served as best man for his brother, Richard McLoughlin, Larry Perkins and Robert Abel, Sacramento, Calif., seated the guests.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the church. Mrs. Joe L. Fader, Ashland, and Mrs. Harry Dunn, Central Point, aunts of the bride, cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. Ermold Koch, Eugene, aunt of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Kenneth Murray presided at the punch bowls. Mrs. Robert Abel, nee Nancy Bessonette, was in charge of the guest book. Miss Louise Fader, cousin of the bride, was at the gift table.

The couple traveled to Washington state and Victoria, B.C., on their wedding trip, the bride wearing for traveling a black and white sheath frock with white picture hat and black patent leather accessories. Her corsage was of carnations.

The couple are making their home at 1836 Woodlawn drive, Medford, this summer and in August will move to Clarkston, Wash., where the new Mrs. Copple will teach first grade in the public schools. Mr. Copple will work for Fluhrer's Bakery this summer and return for his senior year at Washington State university, Pullman, this fall where he is a lineman for the Cougar varsity football team. The bride is a graduate of Medford High school and Washington State university. Mr. Copple is also a graduate of Medford High school.

Among the out of town guests were Mrs. J. W. Cole, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Fredericks, Mr. Koch, all Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Hanscom, Manson, Wash.; and Mrs. Anna Harmon, Grants Pass. Prior to the wedding the bride-elect was honored at two showers. One was given by Delta Delta Delta social sorority at the university and one in Medford by Mrs. Murray.

Attendants were Mrs. W. C. Fillman, Yuma, Ariz., and Mrs. C. L. Cole, Eagle Point, both sisters of the bride. They wore "look alike" dresses of pastel blue with matching accessories.

The bride's mother wore a blue and white dress and the bridegroom's mother chose a blue suit.

Jack Herburger, Rogue River, served as best man and Don Martin, also Rogue River, was usher.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. Ernest White was in charge of the refreshment table. Miss Dorothy Dubay, Medford, took care of the guest book.

The bride's father also was honored at the reception, the

Putnam-Murray Wedding Held

St. Mark's Episcopal church was the scene Sunday, June 19, of the wedding of Miss Martha Josephine (Marjo) Murray to Mark Merle Putnam. The Rev. George R. V. Bolster performed the marriage ritual at two-thirty o'clock in the afternoon, and the reception following was held in St. Mark's Guild hall. About 200 guests attended.

The bride is the older daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth F. Murray, 3734 Crater Lake highway, Medford, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn I. Putnam, Myrtle Point, Ore.

The marriage of the bride's parents was also held in St. Mark's church.

The bride, whose father gave her in marriage, wore a gown of silk organza and lace over taffeta. The empire style bodice was of organza and re-embroidered Alencon lace, with long sleeves of the lace and a scalloped neckline embroidered with seed pearls.

An organza rose trimmed the bodice. Draped puffs, held at the top by organza roses, accented the gores of the wide hooped skirt. Her short silk illusion veil was held by a cap of Alencon lace embroidered with pearls and topped with a miniature tiara of pearls and rhinestones. She carried an orchid and stephanotis on a Bible.

Miss Nyla Murray, honor attendant for her sister, wore a teal silk chiffon frock with scooped neckline, full skirt and puffed sleeves. The other attendants, Mrs. James Street, Torrance, Calif., a cousin of the bride, Miss Melba Snow, Lakeview, Ore., and Mrs. Andrew Travis, Malin, Ore., wore frocks of silk chiffon identical to that of the honor attendant except of turquoise blue. All the attendants carried puffs of white organza with Cecile Brunner roses and wore wide bows of pink organza and white veils on their hair.

Vicki Linnell, Cortez Madera, Calif., a cousin of the bride who was flower girl, wore a frock of seafoam green and carried a basket of petals.

Barry Pinkley, Myrtle Point, nephew of the bridegroom was ring-bearer. Acolytes were Carl Voegtly and Roland Arney.

Jack Pinkley, Myrtle Point, was best man for his brother-in-law and ushers were Tom Putnam, cousin of the bridegroom, John Godlove, Roseburg, Jerry Pawlowski, Jacksonville, Neil Knudsen, Ashland and Richard Roush, Myrtle Point.

Mrs. Ernest Conrad was at the church organ, and Miss Rosemary Doolen sang.

The altar bouquets were of pink roses and the reception room had been decorated with a profusion of garden flowers.

Mrs. Steven Shorey served the wedding cake and Mrs.

J. C. Murray Jr., and Mrs. Eddie Albright served punch. Miss Sharon Astrander, Roseburg, took charge of the guest book and the Misses Janice Butts and Rita Bateman were at the gift table. Also assisting was Mrs. Donald Stewart, Klamath Falls.

For the event the bride's mother wore a gown of silk contemporary print in shades of turquoise with white feather hat and matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue lace gown with matching hat of lace, and white accessories. Their corsages were white orchids.

Mr. and Mrs. Putnam are making a wedding trip to southern California. For traveling they wore matching sports attire of gray flannel and white sweaters. They will live at 1092 Pine street, Central Point, after their return July 1.

The bride is a graduate of Medford High school and Southern Oregon college and is a teacher at Washington school. Mr. Putnam, who attended Myrtle Point High school, the University of Oregon and Southern Oregon college, is a junior high school teacher for the Central Point school district.

Here for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Combs, El Cajon, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. John Muschler, Lemon Grove, Calif., uncles and aunts of the bride; Mrs. Lottie Mae Street and daughter, Torrance, Calif.; Mrs. Walter L. Linnell and children, Corte Madera, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. James Young, Sacramento, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Nolan, Redmond, Ore., and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pruett and children, Yakima, Wash., cousins of the bride.

Relatives of the bridegroom who came from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Tobey, Gold Beach, Ore.; Walter Tripp, Mrs. Ross Pinkley, Mrs. Louise Scofield, Mrs. Richard Roush, Mr. and Mrs. George Slagle, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pinkley, Mrs. Augusta Stephenson, his grandmother, all from Myrtle Point; Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Barker, and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Gregg, Springfield, Ore.

Before her wedding, the bride was honored at two showers. The first was given by the faculty of Washington school at the school, and the second by a group of teachers at Howard school. About 24 guests attended the latter event. At both the bride-elect was presented gifts for her new home.
