

Potter-Munday Ceremony Held in Community Church

Central Point—Miss Virginia May Munday, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry V. Munday, 1235 N.W. Conklin street, Grants Pass, became the bride of Thomas Jay Potter, Portland, in a ceremony June 12 in the Community Bible church of Central Point.

The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Peters, Portland.

The double-ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Thomas White of Medford Philadelphia church. The Rev. Paul Kroon of Community Bible church assisted.

Baskets of yellow chrysanthemums and white snapdragons decorated the church. Mrs. Kroon played the organ and Mrs. Fred Whaley, Grants Pass, and Jerry Holdridge, Talent, sang.

Mr. Munday gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a ballerina-length gown of nylon lace and tulle over taffeta. It was styled with a fitted bodice, three-quarter-length sleeves, a sweetheart neckline and a full skirt accented by a back panel of cascading tulle ruffles.

Her finger-tip length veil was held by a lace cap with a scalloped brim of pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of yellow roses centered by a large white orchid.

Mrs. Gary Bard (nee Ruth White) Gold Hill, was matron of honor. She wore a ballerina-length dress of yellow taffeta with a yellow chiffon sash. She carried a white carnation nosegay.

Bridesmaids were Miss Carolyn Leonard, Central Point, and Miss Lyndelle Munday, Grants Pass, sister of the bride. Miss Leonard wore a ballerina-length frock of beige taffeta with beige chiffon sash and carried a white carnation nosegay. Miss Munday's frock was of burnt orange colored taffeta with orange chiffon sash. She also carried a nosegay.

The bride's mother chose a beige sheath with jacket and pink accessories and a pink rosebud corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore an avocado green print dress with brown and white accessories. Her corsage was of white rosebuds.

Larry August, Portland, was best man. Ushers were David George and Ron Janitz, both of Portland.

A reception followed at the Jackson hotel, Medford. Miss Elaine Kroon served the wedding cake and Miss Nancy Schewbs poured. Miss Sandy Higinbotham was in charge of gifts and Miss Wanda Munday, Grants Pass, a sister of the bride, had charge of the guest book.

The bride was graduated from Crater High school in 1959 and attended Simpson Bible college, San Francisco. The bridegroom was graduated from Cleveland High school in 1958 and also at-

Presbyterian Church Scene Of Guise-Edwards Service

Miss Janet Mae Edwards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray E. Edwards, 323 King street, became the bride of Raymond E. Guise, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Guise, 2174 Arnold lane, Grants Pass, in a ceremony held June 17 at the First Presbyterian church.

Dr. D. Kirkland West officiated at the eight o'clock evening rites. Baskets of yellow and white gladioli and palms decorated the church for the ceremony attended by 100 relatives and friends.

Mrs. R. A. Sheldon played the organ wedding music and accompanied Miss Karen Lytle, soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of white silk organza over taffeta fashioned with fitted bodice, long sleeves and Sabrina neckline. Appliques of Alencon lace were at the neckline and across the front of the full skirt. A butterfly bustle accented the waistline at back and tapered into a chapel train. Her fingertip length veil of silk illusion was held by a double queen's crown of Alencon lace and pearls. She carried a spray of white gladioli.

Miss Joyce Bauman was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Bobbie Jean Hale and Miss Kathleen Relling. They wore ballerina length frocks of nylon organza with matching hats and carried sprays of yellow and white gladioli. Miss Bauman's frock was pale pink, Miss Hale's orchid, and Miss Relling's pale yellow.

Patricia and Pamela Underhill, identical twins, were flower girls. They wore pale lavender organza frocks and carried baskets of white and lavender sweet peas. Candle-lighters were Donalyn Minear and Debra Pruett. Their frocks were of pale green organza with headbands of lilies of the valley.

Gary Rankin, Castle Air Force Base, Calif., served as best man. Seating the guests were Wayne Guise, brother of the bridegroom, and William Gass, both Grants Pass.

For her daughter's wedding and reception which followed Mrs. Edwards chose an ice blue silk shantung jacket dress. Mrs. Guise wore a lilac silk jacket dress. Their corsages were white carnations.

Spring flowers and an arrangement of calla lilies decorated the reception room at the church. Mrs. Norman Vance and Mrs. Robert Bobbet, cousins of the bride, cut and served the cake. Mrs. Martin Tucker, Clarksville, Tenn., presided at the punch bowl. Miss Diane Franklin was in charge of the guest book. Also assisting with the reception was Mrs. R. A. Skinner.

The couple left for Albany, Ga., where the bridegroom is stationed with the U. S. Air Force. For traveling the bride wore a blue and white polka dot dress with jacket and white accessories. Her corsage was white camellias sent by the bridegroom's cousin, Mrs. John Balour, Hawthorne, Calif.

The bride was graduated from Medford High school last year. The bridegroom is a graduate of Grants Pass High school.

The evening prior to the wedding a buffet supper was held at the Edwards home following the rehearsal. Eighteen persons attended.

Among the out of town guests attending were Mrs. Earl Sedgwick, Seattle, Wash., cousin of the bridegroom; Mrs. Rankin, Mercedes, Calif.; Mrs. Gass, Miss Janice Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Heizerberg, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dacey, all Grants Pass, and Mrs. C. E. Miller, Ashland.

Birthday Party Honors Daughter

Gold Hill—Debby Kaye Knepper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Knepper, Gold Hill, celebrated her fourth birthday June 18 at a garden party. A pink and white doll cake was served, with other party refreshments, and games were played. The honored guest received a number of presents.

Guests were Sherrell Governor, Penny Smith, Penny Hargraves, Kathy Ladd, John Edward Graves, Glenn Taylor, Glenda, Marlene and David Owens, Ireta Taylor, Mrs. Floyd Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Alva Walker, Mr. and Mrs. William Lowe, Mrs. Virgil Ladd, Mrs. Jack Graves and Lloyd Rae Gwaltney, cousin of Debby who is spending the summer in Gold Hill with the Kneppers.

Valley Teachers Married In Rites Held at Selma

Of interest here is news of the wedding June 18 in Selma of Miss Dorothy Joanne Warren, Springfield, to Marvin Arnold Throne, Gold Hill.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dean H. Warren, Selma, will teach in Medford Public Schools next year. The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Paul A. Throne, Gold Hill, and the late Mr. Throne.

The Rev. Milton Gardiner, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Springfield, performed the double-ring ceremony at 8 o'clock in the evening. Approximately 70 guests attended. Baskets of white lilies and pink and white chrysanthemums provided a setting for the service.

Carl Rollings, Beaverton, a cousin of the bride, was soloist and Mrs. Raymond C. Huey, Springfield, was at the organ.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white floor-length brocade taffeta gown and a fingertip-length veil. She carried a handkerchief which her grandmother and mother had carried at their weddings. Her bouquet was of white chrysanthemums and carnations.

Mrs. Larry M. Alberts, Grants Pass, was matron of honor and Mrs. Donald Warren, Dixon, Calif., sister-in-law of the bride, was bridesmaid. They wore street-length princess style dresses of pink tulle and carried bouquets of pink and white chrysanthemums.

The bride's mother wore a navy linen sheath frock with navy and white jacket and a white carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother chose a dress of rose lace with a white carnation corsage.

David Warren, the bride's brother, and Carol Brown were candlelighters. Miss Brown wearing a pink and white nylon frock, James P. Hughes, Phoenix, Ariz., was best man. Richard Carter, Medford, and Larry Alberts, Grants Pass, were ushers.

The guests attended a reception for the young couple in the Selma Grade school gymnasium following the wedding. Baskets of summer flowers decorated the room.

The bridegroom's mother baked the cake which was served by Mrs. Don Metcalf and Mrs. Clarence Lewis, Selma. Mrs. David Coutant, Grants Pass, poured punch. Coffee was poured by Mrs. Howard Zimmerman, Eugene, and Miss Noreen Arnold, Hugo, cousin of the bridegroom.

Miss Janice Gramse, Tucson, Ariz., took charge of the guest book and Miss Maxine Arnold, Hugo, cousin of the bridegroom, and Roger Rollings, Beaverton, cousin of the bride, were in charge of gifts.

The newlyweds will make their home at 215 North Ivy street, Medford, following their return from a wedding trip to Canada. The bride chose a pink pleated tulle dress with white accessories for traveling. Both the bride and bridegroom were graduated from Southern Oregon college and he is a teacher in Gold Hill schools.

Out of town guests at the wedding, in addition to those taking part in the service, were Mrs. H. W. Rollings, Roger and Carl, Beaverton; Mrs. Margaret Fessenden, Salem; Mrs. Myrtle Johnson, Red Bluff, Calif.; Donald Warren, Dixon, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. David Barnhart, Bend.

Also Raymond C. Huey, Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Zimmerman and daughters, Eugene; Mrs. Dorothy O'Brien, Lake Tahoe; Miss Irene Berryman, Tucson, Ariz.; and Miss Sharon Zimmerman, Portland.
