

Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Nahss

50th Wedding Anniversary Observed by C. T. Nahsses

Eagle Point—The 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Nahss was celebrated Sunday, June 5, at an open house reception at their home on Nick Young road, Eagle Point.

Hosts for the event were their children and families, Mr. and Mrs. Gene N. Savage and sons, Gary and Charles, Raymond, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nahss and sons, Bob, Jack and David, Medford, and Mr. and Mrs. Ira Connor and son, Ira, Eagle Point.

About 85 guests called including Mr. Nahss's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Schanz and Jay Sawne, Oakland, Calif. Mr. Schanz and Mrs. Walter Frick, a niece of Mrs. Nahss, were guests at the wedding in 1910.

Mrs. Earl Green and Mrs. Frick poured and Mrs. Roy Commons cut and served the anniversary cake. Charles Savage was in charge of the golden anniversary book and Mrs. Henry Nahss was in charge of the gifts.

For the event Mrs. Nahss wore a multi-colored jersey dress with a corsage of white carnations flecked with gold.

She wore a gold locket in the shape of a pansy containing the pictures of herself and her husband. Mr. Nahss gave his wife the locket as a wedding gift. It now bears the teeth marks of her children where they cut their first teeth on it.

Above the fireplace mantle was their framed marriage certificate as well as their wedding picture, pictures of the house they were married in, the first house they built, and their first home in Oregon. Pictures of their children when they were small and pictures of their children when grown and their families were also displayed.

The Nahsses were married June 2, 1910, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Watson, parents of the bride, in Muskegon, Mich. Mr. and Mrs. Nahss have lived in the Rogue River valley most of the past 40 years, having spent about four years at San Bernardino, Calif.

Mr. Nahss is an ordained Christian minister and both of them have been active in churches since they were married. Mr. Nahss has preached in churches in the Rogue valley and in California since coming to Oregon.

Court Has Exhibit of Flowers

A flower show directed by Mrs. Richard Mayfield was the highlight of a meeting of the Roxy Ann court, Order of the Amaranth, Thursday, June 16, at the Masonic hall, Mrs. Frank Salyers, and Marshall Day, royal matron and patron, presided.

Mrs. L. G. Frink, Hal Bishop and Charles Hoppe were judges for the show. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Frank Little, Mrs. Lawrence Messal, Mrs. Joseph Jacques, Grants Pass, and Mrs. Mayfield.

The group voted to hold the next regular meeting in September. Mrs. Salyers reported on the official visit of the grand officers June 11 and the official breakfast which followed June 12.

She announced that the grand court officers will hold a meeting of instructions for Amaranth courts of Southern Oregon early in September.

Plans were made for the annual outdoor breakfast to be held Sunday, July 10, at the Charles Hoppe home, Lozier lane, from 8:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. Associate royal patron and matron, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Swing, are in charge. Invitations have been sent to Amaranth members, Masonic friends and guests.

Plans were also discussed for the annual Amaranth Southern Oregon picnic held the third Sunday of August each year at the south end of Diamond lake. This year the event will be August 21 and members, Masonic friends and guests are invited.

The court also plans a rummage sale for early September and persons having rummage may contact Mrs. Swing or Mrs. Salyers during the summer.

Mrs. Mayfield was chairman of the committee which served refreshments following the meeting.

Picnic Given By Study Club At Root Home

Members of Travel Study club, Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, entertained their families at a polluck dinner held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Root, 3621 Jacksonville highway, June 17. The tables were set on the lawn, and decorated with arrangements of wild sweet peas.

Thirty-four members and guests attended.

Guests of the club were Mrs. Ralph Foster, second vice president of First District, and president of Ashland Civic club; Mrs. Mae Russell, past treasurer of First district; Mrs. Hazel Dickson, Mrs. Nina Chandler and George Whitmore, in addition to husbands and children of members.

Clay M. Lee presented a 50-star flag to the club, in honor of his wife, Mrs. Lee, retiring president of the club and president of First District.

Two paintings by Mrs. Thomas C. Reid were awarded to Mrs. Ray Glidewell.

Several selections on the banjo and violin were given by Mr. Root, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Root. Group singing was led by Mr. Thomas Reid.

Travel Study club has suspended meetings for the summer, and will hold their next meeting September 27, at the Girl's Community club in the fireplace room at 1 p.m.
