

Quotes From the News

BY UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL

Havana—Cuba's semi-official radio, referring to President Eisenhower in a broadcast that hinted the United States was to blame for Saturday's munition explosion here:

"Too bad his majesty, Caesar Attila Nero Caligula Eisenhower, the first ambassador of the United States and its putrid decadent democracy, was playing golf."

New York—A court-appointed guardian for Beverly Aadland, filing suit against the estate of the late actor Errol Flynn for $5 million.

"Errol Flynn led her (Miss Aadland) along the by-ways of immorality, accustomed her to a frenzied life of wild parties, subjected her to a moral debauchery and sex orgies, and taught her a lewd, wanton and wayward way of life."

Lake Hiawatha, N.J.—Mrs. Anne Lupoli, admitting she fatally shot her executive husband, Joseph, as he lay sleeping:

"I did not love my husband."

New York—Impresario Luben Vichey, concerning efforts to comply with a city ordinance requiring garments for an African woman fire dancer who usually performs bare from the waist up:

"It will be impossible for her to 'cover' up unless you can supply us with fireproof brassieres."

Air Line Receives Notice of Strike

Los Angeles—The Flight Engineers union gave Continental Air Lines a 72-hour strike notice Monday to back its demand that flight engineers be used on the lines' 707 jets instead of rated pilots.

A union spokesman said a walkout against Continental would come some time after 10 a.m. (p.s.t.) Thursday.

Continental said that there would be no interruption in service if the 22 engineers did walk off six flights of four-engine planes. The airline, which has been using rated pilots as passengers on its 707s since May 29, said it would replace the six flights with jet powered Viscounts, which do not carry flight engineers.

Marion Judge Taken To Hospital

Salem—Marion County Judge Red Hartley was taken to a Salem hospital Monday by ambulance but his ailment was not immediately diagnosed. Attendants listed the 59-year-old jurist in "good" condition.

He complained of a pain in the chest two weeks ago and was checked for a possible heart condition.

Goettingen, Germany—Prof. Walter Baade, 67, one of the world's leading astronomers, died Saturday.

The Family Council

Editors Note: The Family Council consists of a Judge, a psychiatrist, three clergymen, a newspaper editor, a women's editor and two writers. Each article is a summary of an actual case history. The Council reports on problems that have been dealt with by responsible agencies and counselors.

Lorraine A.—I want to tell Johnny the truth.

Betsy R.—The past must be buried.

Lorraine A.—My husband and I have been married eight years and have three wonderful children. I could be perfectly happy if it weren't for something that happened in the first few months of our marriage.

Johnny and I had had a lot of quarrels—we were only 17 and 18 at the time and I decided to leave him. I ran away for a week and picked up a stranger and had relations with him. Then I came home and I didn't say anything about it.

This preys on my mind all the time. I know now that I love Johnny and I feel I shouldn't hide anything from him, but I'm afraid to tell him. My sister thinks I'm nuts.

Betsy R.—I sure do think Lorraine is nuts. She knows the kind of temper Johnny has. He'll walk right out on her. He isn't the man to put up with that kind of thing.

I don't see what good could possibly be accomplished by dredging up the past like that and I can't understand why Lorraine doesn't put the whole thing out of her mind. All right, it was a mistake, but fortunately nothing so terrible came of it and it is best forgotten.

Lorraine has been a good wife and mother for many years now and she doesn't deserve the kind of treatment Johnny would give her if she brought up this old mistake. It's got to be buried.

Record Death Toll Feared on Week End

Chicago—The three-day Fourth of July week end could bring a traffic death toll, eclipsing the 367 killed over the recent Memorial Day holiday, the National Safety Council warned today.

The council said almost all of the nation's 73 million cars will be on the road during the week end and will travel a total of 7.2 billion miles.

The Memorial Day slaughter "should serve as a grim warning for motorists to drive with greater care," a council spokesman said.
