Miss Betty Duffy, Ashland is one of 22 Girl Scouts from throughout the United States chosen to attend a world-wide jubilee celebration to be held in Great Britain this summer under the sponsorship of the Girl Guides. She will leave July 5 by plane and will be away for two months.

Rogue Valley Girl Scout To Attend Jubilee Camp

Rogue Valley Girl Scout council announces that Miss Betty Duffy, Ashland, will attend one of the jubilee camps being sponsored in Great Britain this summer by the Girl Guides association. Only 22 girls and two adults from the United States will attend the jubilee camps.

Miss Duffy, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Duffy, 571 Chestnut street, Ashland, will leave Medford by plane July 5 for New York City, where she will take part in a three-day orientation program on the campus of New York university. She will travel from New York City to England on the S.S. United States.

Unique Show Announced By Museum

Portland - "20th Century Design: U.S.A.," the most comprehensive survey of well-designed products ever shown in American art museums, will be on view at the Portland Art Museum through July 24.

The more than 2500 items shown include glass and ceramic ware, kitchen utensils, furniture, appliances, sporting goods, toys, jewelry and leather goods, laboratory ware, tools, and business machines. "20th Century Design: U.S.A." is organized to demonstrate convincingly the continuing vitality, flexibility, and fitness to our various needs of the best in American design. It makes the point that American design has matured enough to have evolved a recognizable "design vocabulary," according to a museum statement.

The exhibition illustrates the evolution of the distinctive character of American design over the last 50 years and what is important about it now. Included are designs by Frank Lloyd Wright and Gustav Stickley, whose work in furniture did much at the beginning of the century to win acceptance for the direct and unadorned approach to object design. Also shown are examples of Tiffany glass by Frederick Carder who founded the Steuben Glass Works, and several fine examples of ceramic ware by Charles Binns, founder of the College of Ceramics at Alfred university.

Because of the high costs involved in bringing an exhibition of this size to Portland, the Museum is charging a 50-cent admission to adults, children under 12 accompanied by an adult free. The Museum is open Tuesday through Sunday, 12:00 noon to 5:00 p.m., Fridays, 12:00 noon to 10:00 p.m.

Relatives, Friends Visit Ferd Jones'

Gold Hill—Many relatives and friends have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ferd Jones recently. Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Morrison and two children from Wenatchee, Wash., visited at the Jones home two days. He is fire control officer of the Wenatchee National Forest.

Also visiting while the Morrises were here were Mr. and Mrs. Wendal Jones, Ore. He is assistant ranger in the Motolas district of the Deschutes National Forest. Wendal Jones is a son of the Gold Hill couple, and Mrs. Morrison is their daughter.

While in southern Oregon the Morrises also were guests of his mother, Mrs. Rika Morrison and other relatives in Grants Pass.

Other guests at the Jones home were his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Measor of Beaver, Ore. The Measors came to Gold Hill after attending a state Grange meeting held at Roseburg.

Women Honored At Two Showers

Applegate Valley—Two local women have been honored at showers recently. Mrs. Earl Brown of Sterling received many gifts at a shower given by women of the missionary society of Ruch community church.

Mrs. Leroy Offenbacher was honor guest at a shower given by mothers of pupils in the Applegate school, where she has taught third and fourth grades for several years.

Brothers to Spend Summer in Gold Hill

Gold Hill - Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Mack have as their guests for the summer months their two sons, David and Herschel Mack. David Mack returned to Gold Hill from Cambridge, Mass., where he completed his sophomore year at Harvard university and his brother finished his freshmen year at Oregon State college at Corvallis.

Medford Student To Enter National Accordion Contest

Miss Sharon Ann Roberts of Medford will compete in the 1960 Olympic Accordion contest on Saturday, July 9, at the Pick-Congress Hotel in Chicago.

Miss Roberts will vie against 47 candidates representing 30 states in the annual competition which will send its winner to Europe to participate in the World Accordion contest (Coupe Mondiale) in Vienna, October 21-23.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Roberts of 710 Beekman street, Medford, the musician has achieved a number of distinctions in accordion competition and last year placed first in solo, duet and orkette in the Oregon Accordion festival. She is a graduate of St. Mary's High school.

The winner of the 1960 Accordion contest will receive an all-expense paid trip to Europe as well as a cash prize, and will perform the evening of Sunday, July 10, at the American Accordionists' association concert in Orchestra Hall, Chicago.

Miss Roberts will be accompanied by her teacher, Caesar Muzzioli.

Mr. Muzzioli's students recently won more than a score of awards at the annual Oregon Accordion festival in Portland. His senior band of 38 players placed first in band competition, this being the third time the group had taken the award. The Muzzioli junior band of 32 players won second place.

Meat, Cheese Combined For Kabob Cookery

Summertime and eating outdoors seem to go together just like teen-agers and cheeseburgers. Speaking of the latter combination, here is the answer to a teen-age cookout that will top the hit parade. Prepared before leaving home, these protein-rich meat-cheese kabobs are grilled on a portable barbecue grill or open fire allowing the cheese centers to melt and the meat to obtain that unbeatable charcoal-grilled flavor. The kabobs are quick to serve and easy to eat in a buttered hot dog bun with your favorite garnish. We suggest raw green onions and quartered tomatoes and green pepper slices lightly grilled on skewers.

With the help of a portable cooler it is easy to take along plenty of ice cold milk and chocolate flavored milk drink. A carton of cottage cheese and a can of pineapple slices added to the insulated cooler will make available ingredients for just the right salad. Such a salad will help to add the high quality protein, vitamins and minerals supplied by this popular dairy food.

By-the-way this cookout idea is not only good for teenage get-togethers - the whole family will love to try these meat-cheese kabobs.

For the meat-cheese kabobs use 1/2 pounds ground beef, 3/4 cup uncooked rolled oats, 1/2 teaspoons minced onion, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 1 teaspoon monosodium glutamate, 1/2 cup milk, 1/4 teaspoon garlic salt, 2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce, 1/2 pound American cheese cut into 16 squares, 8 buttered hot dog buns.

Combine all of the ingredients except the cheese and buns and mix well; chill. Shape meat mixture into 16 meatballs, each one around a square of cheese. Thread meatballs onto skewers sealing meat closely around skewer; chill, if possible. Broil 4 to 5 inches from glowing coals, turning as needed to brown and cook evenly, 8 to 10 minutes. Makes 8 servings.

Many Topics on Program For Teachers' Convention

Los Angeles - More than 15,000 teachers and other educators are here attending the 98th annual convention of the National Education Association, June 28 through July 1.

The NEA, with a membership of more than 700,000 is the world's largest professional organization.

Theme of the week-long meeting is "A United Profession Enhances Quality in Education." General meetings are held in the Shrine Civic Auditorium or in the Memorial Sports Arena. Hundreds of other meetings, by NEA departments, committees, and commissions, are being held in auditoriums and hotels.

Topics range from such practical classroom problems as the use of teaching machines to long-range planning toward an adequate space age curriculum.

Highlighting the business session is consideration of a proposal to make a bachelor's degree mandatory for NEA membership, and a report on a group insurance plan for teachers under sponsorship of the NEA.

Among resolutions being considered are lowering of the voting age to 18, an affirmation of the rights of teachers to take part in political activity, and a strong stand on federal support for education.

Name speakers addressing the convention are Representative Lee Metcalf, (D-Mont.); Senator John Sherman Cooper (R-Ky.); Miss Pauline Frederick, UN correspondent for the National Broadcasting company; U. S. Commissioner of Education, Lawrence G. Dertwick; Movie Star Jeff Chandler; and Mrs. Rollin Brown, chairman of the recent White House Conference on Children and Youth.

Miss Clarice Kline, head of the social science department at Waukesha (Wis.) High school, will become president of the NEA at the close of the convention. She succeeded Walter W. Eshelman, supervisor of schools at Upper Dublin Township, Pa. Executive Secretary of the NEA is William G. Carr of Washington, D.C.

A large group of Medford and Jackson county teachers are attending the convention. One of the convention speakers, Mrs. Rollin Brown of Los Angeles, lived in Medford as a girl and attended high school here. She is a past president of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers.

Portrait Selected For Exhibit

A portrait of Philip Hanson, Shakespearean actor, taken by Dwayne E. Smith of Classic studio here will be exhibited at the eighth annual Western States Print exhibition to be held in San Francisco beginning June 30.

The picture, showing the actor dressed as an Elizabethan period king, is entitled "King of Kings." According to Robert Toren, exhibition chairman, there were more than 900 entries submitted for the show, and the work of only 90 photographers was chosen.

Mr. Toren states that for the first time, the award-winning prints were selected by distinguished critics of photography, rather than a panel of photographers themselves. The judges included George D. Culler, director of the San Francisco Museum of Art; Nell Sinton, member of the San Francisco Art commission; Wayne Mayfield, president of the Art Directors and Artists club of San Francisco Art commission; and George B. Leonard Jr., San Francisco editor for Look magazine.

The initial showing of the exhibition in San Francisco June 30-July 4 will be in conjunction with the Western States convention sponsored by the Professional Photographers of California, Inc. The show will be seen in Chicago at the National Convention of the Professional Photographers of America, the first time a Western exhibit has been so honored, and also at the Los Angeles County Fair, where it is expected to be seen by some 800,000 visitors.

Medford Lions, Auxiliary Hold Annual Ceremony

Newly-elected officers of the Medford Lions club and the Ladies' auxiliary were formally installed at a dinner party held June 17 at Rogue Valley Country club.

David Irving, Medford, district governor of Lions International, performed the installation ceremonies for the Lions and Mrs. J. Frank Christian, Talent, state auxiliary president, installed Lady Lion officers.

Officers installed included Anthony Cappello, president; Thomas R. Eslinger, first vice-president; Harve L. Enderby, second vice-president; J. A. Dollard, third vice-president; Gerald J. Scannell Jr. and Marvin L. Nelson, Lion tapers; James W. Warner, secretary; Leland J. Knox, treasurer; E. E. Setzer, E. Roy Bashaw, Sharon H. Hawk, and Al Hunteemann, directors.

Installed for the auxiliary were Mrs. W. Edward Ashton, vice-president; Mrs. James W. Warner, secretary; Mrs. John W. Henson, treasurer.

Awards for perfect attendance were presented to 13 Lady Lions by Mrs. Cappello. Mr. Irving presented the Medford Lions with a plaque, one of three awards authorized in district 36-E, for Girl Scout projects completed at Tomlin Forest and Lake-of-the-Woods.

Michael Beck, retiring president, awarded Mr. Eslinger a plaque for being outstanding Lion of the year.

Lions and wives attending the annual state convention in Pendleton earlier in June were Mr. Cappello, Dr. Lee Mellish, Joseph Tomjack, Alan Jewett, Herbert Seitz, Ray Barnett, Mr. Beck, and Leland J. Knox.

Gold Hill Visitors

Gold Hill - Mr. and Mrs. William Sutherland have returned to their home in Vancouver, B. C., after a visit at the home of Mrs. Nora Wait on Sardine Creek. The Sutherlands were en route to their home following a vacation in Los Angeles, Calif.

Other guests at the Wait home were Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Clabough from Palo Alto, Calif., and Miss Linda Harmer of Grants Pass, who is spending the week with Mrs. Wait.

Tudor Guild Makes Plans For Annual Bard's Heyday

Ashland - Plans are well under way for the annual Bard's Heyday sponsored each year by the Tudor Guild. This year's event is scheduled for Sunday, July 10, at the Shakespearean Festival Theatre, starting at 5 and lasting until 8 p.m.

Admission is 50 cents per person, with children under 12 free; and the general public is invited to attend. As has been done in past years, the Guild will set up booths, schedule entertainment, sell various articles, and generally provide an atmosphere of an Old English Fair.

Mrs. C. H. Putney, publicity chairman for the event, states that food on sale will include saffron bread, pastries, different types of sandwiches, cole slaw, cold punch, ice tea and coffee.

Entertainment will be provided by Festival dancers and singers, all in Elizabethan style; and a pantomime contest will be held between the Festival actors with cash prizes as awards. A magician, John Eads of Medford, will entertain and various games are planned.

All proceeds taken in by the Tudor Guild will go into their fund which is used to benefit the Shakespearean Festival in various ways. The Tudor Guild gives several $300 scholarships each year to deserving members of the company, maintains a loan fund for the company, and hosts several dinners for them. Helping hands are often given company members by the Guild in finding summer housing; and the Guild hosts a closing night party.

Heyday is being co-ordinated through the efforts of chairman Dr. R. L. Burdick. Mrs. Philip Gates is in charge of food; Frank Davis, games; Mrs. Putney, publicity; Bernard Windt, music; and Mrs. William Patton, pantomime.

Society Names Camp Delegate; Reports Given

Gold Hill - Mrs. Thomas Z. Smith was elected at the last meeting of the Woman's Society of the Gold Hill Community Methodist church, as a delegate to represent the group at Camp Magruder July 17 through 22. Mrs. Smith will attend the school of missions.

Mrs. E. C. Hoffman, president of the society, also plans to attend the session.

Mrs. S. M. Christensen was reported that funds derived from money making activities the past year financed such expenses as the new furnace for the church, parsonage projects, and funds that were sent to missions and conference projects.

The business session was conducted by Mrs. E. C. Hoffman. Other officers who took office during the June meeting were Mrs. Roy Eskew, vice president; Mrs. Lawrence Smith, secretary; Mrs. Thomas Z. Smith, secretary of promotion; Mrs. George T. Allen, secretary of youth; Mrs. Blanche Merriman, secretary of student work; Mrs. S. M. Christensen, secretary of supply, and Mrs. Melvin Brunette, secretary of spiritual life. These officers were installed during the May session of the society by Mrs. Lucius Robinson from the Cave Junction Methodist church.

Mrs. George Dorman, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Wilbur Martin were appointed to serve as historians.

Plans were made to have a "foodless food sale" during the month of August to raise funds for the new budget.

Title of the program presented during the afternoon by Mrs. Merriman was "Set Apart For Me."

Mrs. Allen who represents the society on the Gold Hill Summer Recreation board, gave a report in regard to the project which commenced Monday, June 20 and will continue for six weeks, concluding on July 30. The program is held five days each week, three hours a day from 1 until 4 p.m. with Leon Myers, recreation director, in charge of activities. Miss Grace Gail is assistant director. A 75-cent per child registration fee covers insurance and incidentals.

The society made a cash donation of $625 to the program.

Mrs. Paul Molloy gave a report on a new money making project. Those interested may contact either Mrs. Hoffman or Mrs. Ivan Smith for further information.

Two Designers Resurrect Knickers for Fall Season

By GAY PAULEY

UPI Women's Editor

New York (AP) - Vicki and Don Cooper, a couple of young marrieds also young to the sportswear business, give the feminine pants craze another push from behind.

They resurrect knickers for fall and winter.

"Only I wish I could think of another word for them," said Mrs. Cooper, a tall slim blonde with brown eyes.

"Knickers bring up visions of Englishmen on bikes and fat men on golf courses. But these bear no resemblance to the plus-fours of old. They are slim, hip-hugging bits of nonsense in mad colors and madder fabrics. And they are lady-like."

"The knickers resemble capri pants which women have been wearing for loafing and sports, except they are gathered to a band which buttons just below the knee."

"The pants craze has killed skirts," said Mrs. Cooper. "And the woman who doesn't want to wear pants, now gets into culottes."

Cooper trousers, whether knickers or regular slacks, are cut to shape without a waistband because, Mrs. Cooper explained, "they look more feminine... don't look like something stolen from the men."

They also are cut one to one and one-half inches roomier through the hips than a standard size because "let's face it, most women need that extra space."

The Coopers own a firm called Ulla Fashions, Inc., named for the Viking god Ulla who is to skitters what St. Christopher is to travelers.

Makes 'Hair Shirt' Vicki, who since childhood has made her own clothes, ran up a wacky Christmas present for Don - a parka of shaggy fake fur immediately dubbed the "hair shirt."

Don, who looks and talks like Cary Grant, courageously wore the parka, friends admired, and pretty soon Vicki found herself with a whole string of friends in line for similar parkas.

She then added a shaggy fake fur hat, shaped like a megaphone when stretched upward to its full height, but crushable into a Cosack style.

She dubbed it the "Hoople," which as Don explained "means fun, in the set we run around with."

Other guests at the Jones home were his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Measor of Beaver, Ore. The Measors came to Gold Hill after attending a state Grange meeting held at Roseburg.

Was Leader Miss Duffy has been a patrol leader in her troop, which is Troop 123, Ashland, has been secretary, treasurer and council representative; has served as song leader, representative to the Senior Planning board of the Rogue council, and also secretary of the latter board.

Council officials state that Miss Duffy's selection to go to England was the result of systematic planning and work on her part toward such a goal.

The Scout reported that packing will be one of her main troubles since she must take a sleeping bag, mess kit and other camp equipment in addition to clothing for stays in New York City and London.

Brothers to Spend Summer in Gold Hill Gold Hill - Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Mack have as their guests for the summer months their two sons, David and Herschel Mack. David Mack returned to Gold Hill from Cambridge, Mass., where he completed his sophomore year at Harvard university and his brother finished his freshmen year at Oregon State college at Corvallis.
