Strikeout Record Tied By Dodgers

Philadelphia - (AP) - Despite gas to the contrary, Philadelphia was anything but a dull town Wednesday night. Sad maybe, but not dull.

Aided by a Frank Howard howitzer shot, a record number of strikeouts and relief rescue performances by Larry Sherry and Ed Roebuck, the fifth-place Dodgers defeated the Phillies in a twilight twin bill, 6-3 and 5-2.

Tonight, it'll be the regular single game, starting half an hour late because of some pre-game entertainment from Count Basie and his band. Vice President Richard Nixon will watch as Danny McDevitt (0-1) pitches against Jim Owens (3-8) for the seventh-place Phils.

Howard, the youthful powerhouse from Ohio State who looks like he should have been an All-America tackle instead of the university's top basketball player, apparently has found the slugger's groove.

He hit his 10th homer of the season in the first game and drove in three of the Dodgers' six runs with three hits in four trips. Larry Sherry received credit for the victory after replacing Don Drysdale in the seventh.

Drysdale gave up only four hits in his 6 1/3 innings. Sandy Koufax won the second game, although Ed Roebuck was sent in to handle the Phils for the final two innings.

The four Dodger hurlers struck out 24 Phils in the doubleheader, equalling the major league mark previously set by the Chicago Cubs in 1933 and the Philadelphia Athletics in 1936. Drysdale had 7, Sherry, 3; Koufax, 10; and Roebuck, 2. Dodger batters struck 10 times in the two games.

Drysdale, counted on at the start of the season to be the club's ace, has failed to win a game in more than a month. Despite his poor record, 4-10, the lanky fastballer leads the league in strikeouts.

Another strikeout artist, Koufax, now has a record of 3-3, no better than Drysdale's. Koufax also was expected to be a mound mainstay for Manager Walter Alston.

Since the start of the season, New York Yankee scouts have been whispering "watch the Orioles" into Casey Stengel's elephant-sized ears.

But Cle Case and the rest of the Yankees had better start worrying about the Cleveland Indians. For while the Orioles are showing signs of skidding, the Indians are flying.

The Tribe, behind the six-hit pitching of rookie southpaw Dick Stigman, bounced back into second place in the American League race Wednesday night by handing Baltimore its third straight defeat, 5-3. The loss dropped the Orioles into third place by a single percentage point.

Cleveland now has won seven of its last nine games but over that period Manager Joe Gordon has gotten only two route-going jobs from his prized pitching staff. And both of these efforts were turned in by Stigman, who stopped the Yankees with a four-hitter last week end.

In his latest outing against the Orioles, Stigman was bothered by wildness, walking six while fanning five. But he permitted only one hit over the last three innings and was aided by three double plays.

Helps Own Cause

Stigman, who earned a promotion to the Indians this year, although he lost 17 games at San Diego in 1959, helped his own cause in the fourth inning with a key two-run single off loser Jerry Walker.

Two home runs by Roger Maris helped the Yankees to a 10-0 victory over the Kansas City Athletics and Ted Williams unloaded a 430-foot homer to give the Boston Red Sox a 4-2 triumph over the Detroit Tigers in other AL action. Rain washed out the Chicago at Washington night game.

In the National League, the Milwaukee Braves downed the Chicago Cubs, 3-1, after dropping the opener of their doubleheader, 3-2; the Los Angeles Dodgers swept a twilight-night doubleheader at Philadelphia, 6-3 and 5-2, and matched another major league high.

The Cincinnati Reds, 5-2. The San Francisco at Pittsburgh night game was rained out.

Both of Maris' homers came with a man on base and raised his major league-leading total to 24. Jim Coats allowed only three singles in scoring his ninth consecutive victory of the season and his 13th in a row over two seasons.

Williams' homer at Boston was his 12th of the season and the 504th of his career, leaving him only seven behind Mel Ott's lifetime total. Russ Nixon also hit a two-run homer for the Red Sox, who broke a five-game losing streak.

A pair of homers by Joe Adcock featured Milwaukee's second game victory over the Cubs, who won the opener on Bob Willis' pinch single in the ninth inning.

Two major league strikeout records were equaled during the Dodgers-Phils twinbill at Philadelphia. Dodger pitchers fanned 24 men in the two games to equal one mark and the combined total of 34 strikeouts for both clubs
