

Pastor to Leave Eagle Point; Building Dedication Planned

Eagle Point - The Rev. Joseph J. Munshaw, pastor of Eagle Point Community church for the past five years, will preach his last sermon at the church Sunday, July 10.

He has accepted the position of pastor of three Methodist churches of the Guilford circuit in northwestern Missouri. The churches are in Guilford, Barnard, and Bolckow.

Sunday, July 3, the new educational unit of the church will be dedicated in ceremonies at 3 p.m. The new unit, costing $6,800, is 66 by 36 feet and includes eight classrooms, two auditoriums, rest rooms and storage facilities.

The interior of the building is cedar wainscoting and colored wallboard. The exterior is white asbestos shakes. The building is completely paid for, it was reported.

The public is invited to attend the dedication ceremonies.

is camp director for the Southern Oregon Community Church Fellowship at Lake of the Woods, having served as assistant director during 1959. He has been active in the Medford Ministerial association, Medford Gospel Mission, and has served as assistant Protestant chaplain at Camp White Domiciliary.

During his ministry at the Eagle Point church the new educational unit was planned and built. Sunday school attendance increased from an average of 121 to 193, a Sunday school bus was acquired, missionary giving by the church more than doubled and an organ purchased by the church.

Picnic to Honor Pastor

Mr. and Mrs. Munshaw and sons will be honored at a community potluck picnic Friday, July 8, at 6:30 p.m. at the Eagle Point Grange park. All friends of the family and the church are invited to attend.

Coffee, punch and ice cream will be furnished. Those attending are to take their own table service and food for their family.

The deaconesses of the church are in charge of the event. For further information contact Mrs. Donald Pulley, Hillcrest 6-3555.

Mr. Munshaw will show pictures in the church following the picnic taken during the past five years in Eagle Point of the activities, people and the community.

First Baptists Tell Subject

"Free Indeed" will be the sermon subject of the Rev. Ed Stauffer for the 11 a.m. worship service at First Baptist church Sunday.

Mrs. Ted Graham will direct the adult choir, and Miss Diane Franklin is organist. Mrs. Harold Gankstee and her son, Roland, will present a vocal duet. The Lord's Table will be observed at the close of the worship hour.

The adult Bible study group will meet Sunday at 6:30 p.m. in the north wing of the auditorium. Youth leagues will meet at the same hour for those from junior through college age.

Pastor Stauffer will give the message at the gospel hour at 7:45 p.m., and Ned Landers, youth director, will be in charge of the musical portion of the service. A fellowship hour for young people will follow the evening service at the Helmer Tinseth home, 1300 Queen Anne ave.

The Medford church will cooperate with other Conservative Baptist churches in the area in a workday and family fellowship at Union Rogue Baptist camp, Prospect, on July 4.

Local Members To Campmeeting

The annual campmeeting-convention to be held at the Apostolic Faith Tabernacle, Portland, will attract many of the members of the local Apostolic Faith church during the three weeks, beginning July 3 and continuing through July 24.

In addition to the large tabernacle with seating capacity of 2,400, where regular Bible study and evangelistic services are held, there are an assembly hall and a chapel for youth services. The program will include morning Bible teachings, evening evangelistic services, and daily prayer services. The Rev. Loyce C. Carver, pastor of the local church, and assistant pastor, the Rev. Clifford Friesen, will assist in ministerial work at the camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Carver and daughters Linda and Becky are driving to Portland in time for the opening of the campmeeting on July 3. Mr. Friesen will be at the camp with Mrs. Friesen and their small son Jay.

During the three weeks of the meeting in Portland, the Medford church will hold the highest elective position in the church was Dr. George Coulter, now superintendent of the Northern California district and former pastor of First Church in Medford, serving from 1945 to 1948.

The five superintendents re-elected include D. I. Vanderpool, San Jose, Calif.; Hardy G. Powers, Dallas, Texas; and G. B. Williamson, Samuel Young, and Hugh C. Benner, all Kansas City. Both Dr. Vanderpool and Dr. Williamson have spoken in the local church.

The Rev. Harold M. Sanner, present pastor of Medford, First Church of the Nazarene, represented the Oregon Pacific district during the Kansas City Assembly and will return to Medford July 9. Ten of the local church members attended the Assembly.

Nazarenes Hold General Assembly

General superintendents of the Church of the Nazarene were re-elected during the 15th Quadrennial General Assembly held in Kansas City last week. Five were re-elected to their posts and a sixth was newly elected this year.

Dr. V. H. Lewis, Kansas City, Mo., has for the past four years been secretary of evangelism of the denomination. Dr. Lewis was elected on the fifth ballot, for the highest elective position in the church was Dr. George Coulter, now superintendent of the Northern California district and former pastor of First Church in Medford, serving from 1945 to 1948.

Members Clean Up Church Grounds

Tiller-A number of women and young people met at the South Umpqua Community church recently to cut weeds, grass, and blackberry vines from around the church and parsonage.

They had a sack lunch at noon. The women met to discuss plans for some money making events to make up the $150 deficit. The money was spent for heating oil and electricity.

The first of these events was a bake sale held Wednesday. A box social and film, possibly on big game hunting, will be held later.

Bible study classes on the Book of Revelation began Wednesday evening at the church. The Rev. Hilton Parks is instructor.

Methodists Tell Sunday Subject

"The Theology of Independence" is the sermon theme for Dr. George Roseberry at First Methodist church at 9:30 and 11 a.m. services Sunday.

The youth choir will sing "Glory to God" in the 9:30 a.m. service. There will be a duet in each service by Dr. and Mrs. Milton Snow "I Walked Through Where Jesus Walked."

The commission on education will meet at the church on July 5 at 7:45 p.m. at the church.

The Junior-High Methodist Youth Fellowship will meet Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. in the chapel followed by a social hour of a watermelon feed in the youth center. The Senior-High fun night will be Tuesday at the church at 7:30 p.m.

Californian To Speak at Bethel

The Rev. Harry Leacock, Turlock, Calif., will speak at the Bethel Assembly of God Sunday.

His message at the 11 a.m. service is entitled, "There is a Lad Here." At 7:30 p.m. Mr. Leacock will speak on juvenile delinquency. The title of his message will be "Twelve Ways to Rear a Juvenile Delinquent."

Mr. Leacock, who has traveled throughout the United States conducting children's campaigns, is known as "The Story Teller." Sunday will conclude a week of children's services at the Bethel Assembly of God. The church is located at 1225 East McAndrews rd. The public is invited to attend the services.

Witnesses Plan to Attend Assembly

More than 100 persons of the local congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses will attend the district assembly of Witnesses scheduled for Multnomah stadium, Portland, July 28 to 31.

According to Harlan S. Nixon, presiding minister, services at the local Kingdom hall will not be held during the time of the assembly.

Between 14,000 and 18,000 persons are expected to attend. Among the speakers will be Leo A. Mahan, supervising minister for Oregon circuit. Mahan is a semi-annual visitor to the Medford congregation.

Subject Announced For St. Luke's

The Rev. Melvin Dixon, minister, will preach at St. Luke's Methodist church Sunday at 10 a.m. on the subject "How Free Are We?"

During the service supervised nursery is provided for pre-school children and junior church is conducted for children in the first four grades.

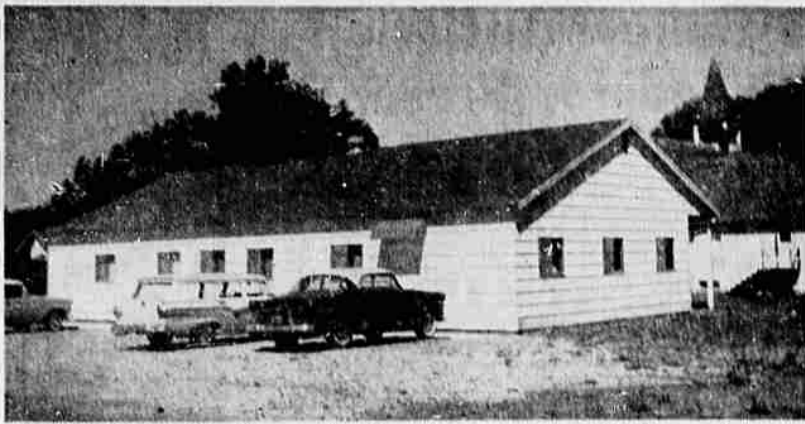

The commission on Christian education will meet at 8 p.m. Tuesday.

St. Luke's church is located at 2040 Siskiyou blvd., across the street from the Hoover Elementary school. The public is invited to its services.

Roundtable Program Question Announced

"How far should the separation of church and state go in the public schools? Should Bible reading and moral training be allowed in public schools?"

These questions will be discussed Sunday on the Ministers Roundtable radio program at 8:05 a.m. over KMED. Ministers participating in the informal discussion will be the Rev. Elvin S. Tollefson, Ascension Lutheran church; the Rev. King Jones, Jacksonville First Presbyterian church; and the Rev. John V. Heberling, Central Church of Christ.

EDUCATIONAL UNIT—The new educational unit of Eagle Point Community Bible church will be dedicated Sunday, July 3, at ceremonies at 3 p.m. The building, costing $6,800, is 66 by 36 feet and includes eight classrooms, two auditoriums, rest rooms and storage facilities. The building, designed by Al Gandt, was built mainly by donated labor.

Alcoholics Anonymous Has 25th Anniversary

By LOUIS CASSELS United Press International

Ex-drunks from all over the world are gathered in Long Beach, Calif., this week end.

They are celebrating the 25th anniversary of a remarkable fellowship of men and women who have managed to draw near to God, in reality, without formulating any detailed creed about him.

The fellowship is called Alcoholics Anonymous. Members usually shorten the name to "AA."

During the quarter century since it was founded in Akron, Ohio, by a stockbroker and a surgeon, AA has helped to salvage at least 250,000 human beings from life's scrap heap.

It has won the high esteem of doctors, psychiatrists, clergymen, judges and plain citizens - of everyone, in fact, who has seen AA succeed where all else failed in rescuing alcoholics from the fetters of a progressive and ultimately fatal disease.

At the 11 a.m. worship the Rev. Clifford Young, pastor, will give the message, "A Vision From Neb's Heights," using Deuteronomy 34 as his scriptural background.

During the summer months the Baptist Youth Fellowship will meet in groups at stated times to work on projects for the Church School of Missions in October. The School of Missions will be based upon the recent visit to the mission fields in Mexico.

Wednesday, July 6, at the mid-week service, the pastor will give an exposition of the Life of Christ based on Luke 18. He will also speak on the trip to Mexico.

July 10 the board of Christian education is sponsoring an all-church picnic.

Adult Class To Start New Course

Sunday at Eastwood Baptist church Mrs. Clara Harshman will teach the senior adult class during the 9:45 a.m. Sunday school hour. She will start a new course, "Prophecy and the Problems of Life."

At the 11 a.m. worship the Rev. Clifford Young, pastor, will give the message, "A Vision From Neb's Heights," using Deuteronomy 34 as his scriptural background.

Four Churches Tell Activities

Rogue River - "Pride and the Grace of God" will be the sermon topic Sunday at both the 8:30 and 11 a.m. worship services at Hope Presbyterian church, Rogue River. The Rev. Robert Maxson, pastor, will speak.

Central Point-Members of the junior group of Central Point First Presbyterian church are camping this week at Lake of the Woods. The all-church picnic will be held Tuesday, July 12, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Faber, Hazel st.

Jacksonville - During the worship service Sunday at First Presbyterian church, Jacksonville, a report on the Junior High camp at Lake of the Lakes will be given. Fourteen young people of the church attended.

The Rev. King K. Jones, pastor, will speak Sunday at 11 a.m. on "Meet Amos: Neither a Prophet nor the Son of a Prophet." The music will include a solo by Miss Jacques Long, "Bless Thou, O God, This Day."

Phoenix-Men of the Ashland First Presbyterian church will speak at the Phoenix Presbyterian church during the four Sundays the Rev. William Saladin is on vacation.

The men of the Phoenix Presbyterian church assisting with the services will be John Stewart, Dr. Leland T. Pierson, Ed Brown, Joe Webster, J.O.N. Poling, Gary Beard, and Lloyd Hale. The young men of the church assisting will be Douglas James, Jim James and Mike Clafin.

No choir practice will be held throughout July.

Evangelist To Speak Sunday at Assembly

The Rev. C. C. Burnett, campmeeting evangelist and president of Bethany Bible college, Santa Cruz, Calif., will be guest speaker at First Assembly of God, 1108 West Main st., Sunday at the 11 a.m. worship service, according to the Rev. R. E. Cull, pastor.

Prominent in the Assemblies of God movement and in interdenominational activities such as the American Bible Society, and the National Association of Evangelicals, Mr. Burnett has been in the ministry since 1935.

Mr. Burnett's address at First Assembly will center around the educational opportunities offered at Bethany Bible college.

The public is invited to attend.

Adventists Tell Sunday School Plans

The Sabbath School department of the Medford Seventh-day Adventist church is sponsoring a Sunday school to be held in the basement rooms of the church located at Edwards and Beatty sts.

The school will be on Sundays at 9:30 a.m. for all children aged 4-14 in the Medford area. The first session will be July 3. Additional information will be available next week. There will be no charge for the school.

Church Begins Fiscal Year With Dedication

July is the beginning of the fiscal year at the First Christian church. In keeping with this, the Rev. Fredrick Ross Evans will preach at both services Sunday morning on the subject "Looking in the Right Direction." Commitment cards made during the Every Member Canvass to undergird the budget for the coming year will be dedicated.

At the first service the youth choir will sing the spiritual "Come By Here." Mr. and Mrs. Gary Beard will sing a duet for the second service.

Mrs. O. O. Alenderfer and Mrs. Frank Chapman will be hostesses at the coffee hour which follows the second service.

Gary Myers will be study leader for the Christian Youth Fellowship when it meets at 8:30 p.m. Sunday. Wednesday evening they will meet at the Simmons' home for their mid-week recreation night.

The Chi Rho Fellowship will meet Sunday from 7 to 8:30 p.m. Friday they will go to Ashland's Lithia park for a planning day and swimming party.

'Worship' and 'Freedom' Are Presbyterian Topics

The Rev. G. Robert Jacks, assistant pastor, will deliver the sermon, "Why Worship?" at the First Presbyterian church, Eighth and Holly sts. Sunday morning.

The youth choir will sing, "For the Blessings of Our Days," an old Welsh hymn, at the early service and at the 11 a.m. service the church choir will sing, "Come Let Us Sing." John Frohnmayer will sing, "The Lord Is My Shepherd" at both services.

Junior High Fellowship will meet Sunday at 5 p.m. at the church to hear reports from those who attended Junior-High camp. The Eighth grade will provide worship and refreshments.

Youth Fellowship for senior high young people will be held at the church at 7 p.m. The meeting, "Hinduism and Buddhism - Oriental Religions," will be led by Jim Lacy. Firealde will follow at 8:30 a.m. service Dr. D. K. West will present to Eagle Scout Tom Turpin the "God and Country" award. Tom has spent two years in directed study to qualify for the award. At the present time there are five other boys studying for this award.

Six Confirmed In Yreka Event

Hornbrook - Six Hornbrook youngsters were in the class of 42 boys and 35 girls who were confirmed June 26 at St. Joseph's Catholic church, Yreka.

The solemn ceremony was the climax of the annual summer school of Christian Doctrine conducted for the past three weeks at the church and parish hall by the Sisters of the Holy Family of Mt. Shasta.

The Most Rev. Joseph T. McGucklen, D.D., Catholic bishop of the diocese of Sacramento, administered the sacrament. He was accompanied by the Rev. Cornelius P. Higgins, chancellor of the diocese, and the Rev. John K. Clarke, director of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine for the archdiocese of Los Angeles.

The clergy of the Siskiyou Deanery headed by the Rev. James Casey, Dunsuir, attended.

The Rev. James E. Vaughan, Weed, and the Rev. Cornelius O'Connor, Tulelake, acted as deacon and subdeacon to the bishop during the confirmation and at the benediction.

Westminster Sundry the Rev. John O. Reynolds will speak at the 11 a.m. worship service of the Westminster Presbyterian church on the theme "The New Enemy of Freedom."

The message will consider some of the effects that communism has had upon the Christian Church in other countries of the world.

Otis Swisher, tenor, will sing "O Lord Most Holy" during the service and Mrs. Earl Lawson will be at the organ. After the service, the Women's Association will sponsor a brief period of informal fellowship to help the members of the congregation get acquainted with each other.

During the summer months, church school classes for all departments will continue as usual at the church at 9:45 a.m. The adult study group is continuing its examination of several small Christian and non-Christian groups. New members are welcome.

A church membership class will be held Wednesday, July 6 from 7:30 to 10 p.m. This single class will cover the beliefs of the Christian faith and the nature of the Christian and Presbyterian churches. Those who are interested in joining the Westminster church are invited to attend.

The Westminster Presbyterian church is located on Oakwood dr. between Barneburg and Groveland aves.

New Members To Be Honored Sunday

The sermon by the Rev. Thomas McCamant at the Congregational church Sunday at 10 a.m. will be on "Our Nation Under God." There will also be a reception of new members.

During the summer period there will be a unified program for the younger children of the church school under the leadership of various parents, each of which will take a one Sunday turn. Children of the third grade and above are invited to attend church with their parents.
