Nuptial Mass Weds Couple

Among June weddings was that of Mary Kathryn Conroy to Second Lt. James Franklin Conser, held June 25 at Sacred Heart Catholic church here. The Rev. John Ilg celebrated the double-ring nuptial mass at 12 o'clock noon, and the reception which followed was at Girls Community club.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Irene Kirkebon McKinley, 1102 West Ninth street, Medford, and Lt. Col. (ret.) L. J. Conroy, El Paso, Tex. Mr. Conser's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Conser, Junction City, Ore.

For the ceremony, attended by about 100 guests, the bride wore a gown of meri-mist fashioned with portrait neckline, short sleeves and contoured skirt. Overtiers of tulle were finished with a scalloped hemline and enhanced with lace medallions where the scallops formed points on the skirt. The bride's head covering was a half hat of matching meri-mist which held an elbow length veil and her bouquet was a cascade of blue and white carnations centered with white roses.

Mrs. Neil Murphy, the former Nancy McKinley, was matron of honor for her sister. She wore a white and blue moire cocktail length frock and carried a cascade of blue shasta daisies.

Chester McKinley escorted the bride to the altar, and John Conser Jr., Corvallis, Ore., was best man for his brother. Neil Murphy, Medford, brother-in-law of the bride, and Jon Lang, Portland, were ushers. Neal Conser, another brother, and Michael Paup were acolytes.

Miss Mary Robinson played the wedding music and the church was decorated with pink gladiolus and Shasta daisies.

For the reception Miss Elizabeth Betshart and Mrs. Jon Lang cut the wedding cake and serving punch were Mrs. Helen Murphy and Miss Carolyn McQuigg. Mrs. John Conser Jr., took charge of the guest book.

The bride's mother wore a blue silk chiffon print gown with navy blue accessories and a white carnation corsage for her daughter's wedding. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a navy blue sheath worn with green accessories and white carnations corsage.

In Medford for the wedding were the bridegroom's parents and his grandfather, R. O. Conser, Albany, Ore.; Jack Birmingham, Santa Rosa, Calif.; Mrs. Ray Kerr and Mrs. Donald Weathers, Salem, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Bert Grove, Albany; Mr. and Mrs. George Tracer, Mr. and Mrs. Ivory Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. George Warner, all Junction City; Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Butts, Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Van Leeuwen and daughters, Nancie and Sandi, Days Creek, Ore., and Thomas Maupin, Merlin, Ore.

Following the reception, the bride's mother entertained out-of-town guests at a buffet dinner at her home.

Lieutenant Conser and his bride traveled along the northern California coast for their honeymoon, the bride wearing a pink linen sheath

Couple to Wed In Spring Rites

Glendale—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Johns announce the engagement of their daughter, Sandra Ann, to Douglas Alan Cameron, son of Mrs. Barbara A. Cameron, 803 West Eleventh street, Medford.

Miss Johns, who attended Glendale High school, is employed by the Mail Tribune. Mr. Cameron was graduated from Medford High school in 1958 and is employed at Fir Fly, Inc.

The couple plans a May wedding and will reside in Medford.

Marriage Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Rodney J. Garrett are making their home at 129 North Columbus avenue following their wedding June 21 in Grants Pass. The bride is the former Mrs. Ethyl Weed.

The couple was married in a small ceremony performed by Justice of the Peace L. A. Aschenbrenner. The bride wore a rose lace dress with matching hat.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Scriber Sr., Grants Pass, attended the couple. Mrs. Scriber is Mrs. Garrett's niece and namesake. Mrs. Yetta Flowers, Medford, also was present.

The newlyweds traveled to the state convention of the Eagles lodge in Eugene on their honeymoon. They were surprised at their home Wednesday evening by a charivari given by over 50 members of the local Eagles lodge and auxiliary.

Mrs. Henry Ruch presented a gift from the group to the honored couple. Potluck supper was served.

Couple Married In California

Gold Hill—Mrs. Mary Sutherland, well known Gold Hill woman, and John E. Anderson, Oakland, Calif., were married Friday, June 24. The afternoon ceremony was held at Little Chapel of the Methodist church in Hollister, Calif. The Rev. John Hays, pastor of the church, officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Clabaugh of Palo Alto, Calif., attended the couple.

The bride wore a bronze colored two-piece ensemble, with sand beige accessories. Her corsage was a bronze orchid.

After a wedding trip to Carmel and other points along the coast, the couple will return to Gold Hill where they plan to make their home with her sister, Mrs. Nora Wait. Mr. Anderson is a retired American Can company employee.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Sandberg and two children, Saga and Steve, and Miss Elsie Todd left yesterday for Central, S.D., to visit friends and relatives.

McDowell-Myers Rites Held in Medford Church

Central Point—Miss Carol Mae Myers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan R. Myers, 121 Manzanita street, became the bride of Richard LeRoy McDowell, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. McDowell, 434 Manzanita street, June 10.

The double-ring wedding ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock in the evening at West Main Church of Christ, Medford. H. O. Martin officiated, and approximately 150 guests attended. Mock orange blossoms, Ester Reed daisies and snapdragons decorated the auditorium.

Miss Julie Ashton was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Patricia Bigham, a cousin of the bride, and Mrs. John Spiess, sister of the bridegroom. Miss Glenna Brown, a cousin of the bride, was to have been in the wedding party, but was unable to take part because of illness.

Mr. Myers gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a ballerina-length gown of satin cummerbund. Her fingertip-length veil was held by a crown of seed pearls and she carried an orchid encircled by white carnations on a white Bible.

Miss Ashton wore a yellow taffeta frock with a matching chiffon overskirt. Miss Bigham wore a green taffeta frock with matching organza overskirt and Mrs. Spiess wore a pink taffeta frock of similar design. All carried bouquets of matching Ester Reed daisies.

Deborah Mayfield, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a pink nylon frock and carried a basket of pink rose petals. Terry Myers, brother of the bride, was ring bearer.

Serving as candle lighters were Miss Aletta Myers and Miss Sandra Mayfield, who wore blue nylon frocks.

Tom Turner was best man. Charles Dorrell, Grants Pass, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, Gene and Albert Myers, brothers of the bride, and Forrest Cook were ushers.

Over 100 guests attended a reception which followed in the church. Mrs. Don Anderson and Mrs. John Bigham served cake. Mrs. Ernest Smith and Mrs. Charles Dorrell served punch and Mrs. James Gann and Mrs. Norman Mayfield poured coffee.

Miss Pat Striplin was at the guest book. Gifts were cared for by Miss Alice Thompson, Miss Kathy Straus, Miss Wanda Smith and Miss Linda Dora. Others assisting at the reception were Mrs. Kenneth Bigham, Mrs. Dale Bigham, Mrs. Roy Patten and Mrs. H. O. Martin.

The young couple traveled to the Oregon coast on their honeymoon, the bride wearing a green silk sheath dress with matching chiffon jacket. They are at home at Bugle Falls Star route, Box 30, Eagle Point.

Both the bride and bridegroom have lived in Central Point all their lives and are graduates of Crater High school. He is employed by Daugherty Lumber company.

Ardith Glassford Married To John Ernest Campbell

Miss Ardith Kathleen Glassford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Glassford, Route 4, Box 333, South Stage road, became the bride of John Ernest Campbell, Escondido, Calif., in a ceremony held June 26 at the Valley View Seventh-day Adventist church. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Campbell, Cornville, Ariz.

Elder W. Floyd Brees, Longview, Wash., former pastor of the Medford church, officiated at the eight o'clock evening rites attended by 250 relatives and friends.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of white brocade with fitted bodice and flared skirt. Her fingertip length veil was held by a tiara of white leaves and she carried white carnations and baby rosebuds.

Miss Carolyn Glassford, Arlington, Calif., was maid of honor for her sister, Miss Pamela Redmer, Gaston, Ore., and Miss Carol Ann Campbell, Paradise Valley, Calif., sister of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids. They wore pink frocks and carried white carnation bouquets.

Miss Melody Brown, Portland, niece of the bride, was flower girl. Bible boy was Edward Glassford, Glendale, Ore., nephew of the bride.

James Campbell, Escondido, Calif., served as best man for his brother, and seating the guests were Ronald Archer and Richard Jones, Florence, Ore.

Baskets of pink and white gladiolus decorated the church. Miss Muriel Wilbur played the wedding music.

Following the ceremony, an outdoor reception was held in the park near the church. Mrs. Richard Christianson assisted.

Since the bridegroom's parents could not be in Medford for the wedding, his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Meechen, Grants Pass, substituted for them during the wedding and reception.

The couple traveled to Escondido on their wedding trip, the bride wearing for traveling a pink suit with white orchid corsage. They will make their home in Escondido after July 6 where Mr. Campbell is a carpenter. The bride attended Laurelwood and Rogue River academies. Mr. Campbell attended Laurelwood academy.

Unique Anniversary Celebration Held At Lake of the Woods Sunday

A Medford couple celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary last Sunday, June 26, with a religious ceremony and a reception at the same resort where they spent their honeymoon and where they have spent each anniversary since.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Milnes, 15 North Groveland avenue, who were married June 23, 1937, at Medford's First Methodist church and who went to Lake of the Woods on their honeymoon, re-pledged their marriage vows in a ceremony held outdoors at 2:30 o'clock in a secluded wooded spot. Mr. Milnes has named the spot "Fern Dell." The reception which followed was held at the resort lodge and was attended by more than 100 guests.

The Rev. George R. V. Bolster of St. Mark's Episcopal church officiated for the anniversary service. Little Gary Johnson, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Johnson, carried the anniversary rings on the same pillow which had been used for the couple's wedding ceremony. Attending the couple were their daughter, 10-year-old Vicki, and their son, Gregory, student at Willamette university.

Also present for the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Budd Gail, Medford, who attended the couple for their wedding. The couples have remained friends throughout the years.

For the re-pledging of the marriage vows Mrs. Milnes wore a white cotton lace sheath over blue and carried white orchids. Vicki wore a frock of aquamarine blue cotton and carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations and pink rosebuds.

Mrs. Milnes is the former Alene Ray, foster daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lee Ray, Medford, and Mrs. Ray was present for the ceremony. Also in attendance was Mr. Milnes' mother, Mrs. William Milnes, Medford.

Mrs. G. W. Kellington, the former Mary Roseberry who sang for the couple's wedding, also attended the ceremony and reception at the lake.

Before Mr. and Mrs. Milnes cut their anniversary cake, they drank a toast from a silver "marriage cup" which was a gift from their son and daughter. The cup, actually two separate small cups hinged together, are fashioned in such a manner that both the bride and bridegroom may drink simultaneously.

Mrs. George Watson and Mrs. Walter Wilson, sisters of Mr. Milnes, completed cutting the cake. Mrs. C. C. Hansel, Eugene, a sister of Mrs. Milnes, poured coffee. Punch was served by Mrs. Robert Voegtly, Mrs. Gail, Mrs. Harold Little, Mrs. Ray Johnson, Mrs. L. G. Miles and Mrs. Ed Davis assisted. Mr. Johnson arranged music for the two events.

Farewell Party Given Recently For Bride-Elect

Miss Edna McLeod was honored at a patio party given at the home of Mrs. Hazel Middlekauff, 525 Valley View drive, June 25. Miss McLeod, on the staff of First National bank for the past five years, will leave Medford soon for Seattle where her wedding to Donald Mac Kersie will take place.

The party was a farewell and also a shower for Miss McLeod.

The patio was decorated with Japanese lanterns hanging in the trees, and blue and white streamers decorated the dancing area. The centerpiece was a small tree hung with blue and silver bells.

The bridegroom-to-be, Mr. Mac Kersie, arrived by plane just in time for the party. Assisting Mrs. Middlekauff with the serving of refreshments were Mrs. Lester Boardman and Mrs. Herbert Ellis.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Boardman, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Redmond, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Merritt.

Open House Announced At Scout Camp Low Echo

Open house will be held at Girl Scout Camp Low Echo Monday, July 4, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. for all interested adults and their families, particularly parents of campers.

Picnic tables will be available for families wishing to bring their lunch. Coffee and punch will be served. Council board members will serve as hostesses and camp staff members will be on hand to show visitors around the camp site, and answer any questions about the program and facilities, according to Mrs. T. R. Lytle, established camp chairman.

First session begins July 6 and closes July 13. All campers leave from and return to Hawthorne park, across from the Red Cross Chapter house, 60 Hawthorne street, Medford. No girls are to travel to camp via private automobile. Buses leave promptly at 12:30 p.m. and girls are urged to arrive early and have their baggage tagged with their name. The balance due on fees and health cards must be in the Scout office by Tuesday, July 5. No money will be accepted at camp.

According to Mrs. Lytle there are a few openings in the second session, July 14 through 24, and registrations are still being taken for third and fourth sessions, July 24-August 4 and August 5-15. Program includes swimming, boating, canoeing, crafts, archery, nature study, hiking, unit cookouts, unit overnights, hayrides, picnics and music.

Mrs. Lytle reported that the third session of Pioneer unit is closed. However, there are a few openings in second session and registrations are being taken for fourth session. This unit is for girls 14 years of age or older or going into the ninth or tenth grades. Program in this unit is centered around primitive camping and includes cooking two meals a day on altar fireplaces, sleeping under the stars, swimming, boating, hiking and a pack trip.

Camp folders are available from any Girl Scout leader
