Oregon University Choice of Anderson

Jerry Anderson, Medford High school all-star in three sports, has announced that he will attend the University of Oregon.

He said that he gave Steve Belko, head basketball coach at U of O, the word last night that he would officially report his plans to enroll at the Eugene school.

Anderson stated that he would turn out for basketball and baseball, for sure, at Oregon and that he probably would "try football," also. He indicated that he was not entirely certain on his course of collegiate study but said that pre-law likely will be his choice. He mentioned the possibility of taking a general business course.

On Three Title Teams
Jerry was a three-year letterman in basketball and baseball at Medford High and a two-year monogram wearer in football. He was one of a half-dozen Black Tornado athletes who played on all three of Medford's state title teams, football, basketball and baseball, in the fabulous 1959-1960 school year.

Anderson was named to the second all-state team in 1959 and to the first team in 1960 at Oregon A-1 prep basketball tournaments. He played with the State baseball team against Metro in the prep all-star game at Eugene last month and has been selected to the State squad for the Shrine all-star football game in August. He was a pitcher-outfielder in baseball, an end in football and a forward in basketball for Medford's Black Tornado teams.

Jerry is working at the family store, Andy's Jewelers, during the summer.

Spokane battled 12 full innings against the Vancouver Mounties in Pacific Coast league action Tuesday night before going down to defeat, 8-5, for its second straight loss.

The Indians, who led the league by five games Sunday night, are now only two and one-half in front of Sacramento. The Solons moved up on Spokane by downing Salt Lake City, 8-3, as Elmer Singleton recorded his eighth season win.

At Seattle, the fourth place Rainiers continued their victory skunk over Portland taking both ends of a double-header, 4-1 and 14-3.

Long Night Ends
Spokane and Vancouver were tied, 3-3, at the end of nine frames, in the Mountie half of the 12th, Jim Finigan singled to drive Ray Barker home after the runner had doubled to open the inning. Howie Goss clouted his 16th homer for Vancouver in the first stanza.

Five consecutive hits, including Milt Smith's double, produced what proved to be Sacramento's winning run in the fifth inning. Three runs scored in the frame. Salt Lake had knotted the count, 2-2, in the third on Harry Bright's 17th home run of the year, and went ahead in the fourth on a round-tripper by Jim Baumer.

J. W. Porter had a solo clout in the seventh for Sacramento.

Two-hit pitching by Seattle's Ted Wieand paced the Rainiers to their first game victory over Portland. Wieand struck out five and walked none to chalk up his second win against no losses.

The lone run for the Beavers was one of the two hits. Bill Wilson put the ball over the wall in the fifth. Loser Pete Mesa gave up only four hits, struck out four and walked three, but all the safeties worked into Rainier runs.

Beavers Battered
Seattle blasted three Beaver hurlers for 14 hits in the second game with eight of the blows good for two-bases. Bill Wilson again homered for the Beavers and Hal Bevan led the Rainier assault with two doubles and two singles for five RBIs.

A single by Dick Smith and a wild pitch moving him to second set the stage for San Diego's win over Tacoma. The two Padre decision runs came in the seventh. Smith scored on a double by Jim Greengrass and Stan Johnson brought Greengrass around with a triple.

Tacoma scored its three markers on lone attempts in the third, fourth and sixth.
