

Cards Beat SF Giants

San Francisco — The Giants just went thataway — in the general direction of fourth place that is — and chances are they might land there tonight if Jack Sanford can't pull 'em out of the spins.

The chilly-eyed right-hander (8-5) goes after his third straight victory tonight when he faces the St. Louis Cardinals and Ray Sadecki (2-4).

"I don't see how our pitching could go so bad all of a sudden," Sheehan said Thursday after the Cards had thumped the locals, 7-3, to plaster 'em with their third straight loss. "And our hitting isn't much, even if we did get nine off Larry Jackson, I don't think we had so much."

Thanks to some confusion on Willie Kirkland's part, Jackson went the distance Thursday to post his 10th win although clubbed for nine hits.

Kirkland stunned the crowd of 14,614 experts, press box pundits and Sheehan in the fifth inning when — with the bases full and two out — he took a cut at a three and nothing pitch and fled out.

WALL LEADING

Toronto — Art Wall Jr. playing once again like the pro who won golfer-of-the-year honors in 1959, carried a one-stroke lead today into the third round of the Canadian Open championship. The quiet-spoken Pocono Manor, Pa., pro, displaying a brilliant tee-to-green game and waving the trusty wooden-shafted putter he inherited from a late friend some 15 years ago, moved into the 36-hole lead Thursday by shooting a five-under-par 67 for a 133 total.

Drysdale Snaps Coliseum Jinx
Los Angeles — The curse of the Coliseum that has been haunting pitcher Don Drysdale since the first week of the season appeared over today as the lanky Los Angeles hurler snapped a six game home losing streak against the Chicago Cubs.

The victory was the fourth in a row for the Dodgers and the ninth in eleven games. It moved them a half game out of third place.

Drysdale beat the Cubs 7-1 aided by strong support at the plate from his teammates with Duke Snider getting a triple and a homer to drive in three runs.

ALL SET TO GO — Are these members of the Medford municipal swimming team who'll take part in the city-sponsored relay meet on Saturday, July 9, at Hawthorne park pool. Boys, from left, and their ages, are Ted Lyons, 15, Bruce Hess, 13, Don Thompson, 13, and Mike Stimson, 14. Boys and girls will compete in various age divisions 29 relay events planned. Preliminaries are set for 9 a.m. and finals are to start at 12:30 p. m. Amateur Athletic union rules will prevail and entries must hold current AAU or YMCA cards. At last report not more than 150 entries were listed for the meet with Grants Pass, North Bend, Prineville, Klamath Falls and Roseburg, as well as Medford, represented. Grants Pass has entered 60 swimmers and North Bend 43. Medford's natators number 32. The pool will be closed to public swimming during the meet but spectators are welcome.

Buc Winner In Skinner
By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press International
There was a young man named Skinner, who once looked like a rank beginner, but the Pirates were patient, and lo and behold, they now have themselves a real winner.

That would be Bob Skinner, often kidded about his two left feet but never about the bat he's using to bring Pitts-burgh a possible National league pennant for the first time since 1927.

"Skins," as his teammates call him, powered the Pirates to victory for the second straight night with a two-run double in the ninth inning that ruined the Reds, 3-2. Thursday night and preserved Pittsburgh's 5 1/2 game lead.

The victory was the Pirates' fourth in a row and they accomplished it with two out in the ninth to earn Vinegar Bend Mizell his fifth triumph.

Semifinals Reached in PNGA Meet

Victoria, B. C. — Judy Hoelmer of Seattle was to clash with Tacoma's Mrs. John Harbottle in today's semifinals of the women's division of the 59th annual Pacific Northwest Golf association championships being played here.

Miss Hoelmer, the tourney medalist, continued her steady golf as she matched par over the 14 holes she needed to defeat Mrs. Haines Fay of Bellingham 6 and 5 in Thursday's quarterfinals.

Also advancing into today's semifinals were Linda Anderson of Olympia, Mrs. Tom Harrison of Portland, Ore.

Ron Willey of Vancouver is still in the running for the men's championship. Willey, who had to battle for a one-up decision over Dick Price of Longview was taken to the 21st hole of his match with Dr. George Bigelow of Victoria.

Willey was to face Portland's Gerry Cunard in today's 36-hole semifinal.

Biff Lovett, Portland, who upset medalist Erv Parent of Seattle, was bounced one up in the quarterfinals by Dr. Mel Aspray of Spokane.

Lithia Nine Widens Gap

Lithia Lumber strengthened its first place position last night by coming from behind to edge the National Guard 3 to 2, in one of four Jackson County Softball association games played in the high school stadium.

In other games Timber Products downed Cheney Studs 8 to 6, S&W Floor Covering beat Butte Falls 9 to 4, and National Guard took Civil Service 12 to 9.

Against Lithia the Guardians jumped off to a quick lead, gaining both runs in the first inning, on two errors, and two fielders choices.

Home Over Stands
Dick Callender no-hit the Lumber team until the fourth, when Les Walker hit a home run, that cleared the stadium stands in center field. The tying run was gained in the sixth on three walks, and a sacrifice fly. The winning run came in the last inning on two walks, and a single.

Timber Products tallied five runs in the last inning to edge the Studs who had gone ahead in the second with four markers. Gordon Carriagan homered and Cy Perkins tripled for Cheney and Jim Reinholts three-baser for TP.

S&W picked up four runs in the sixth to get the win over Butte Falls. In the final game National Guard used two four-run periods to down Civil Service, who scored three runs in each of three innings.

HEATH NAMED COACH

Bouts Could Be At Los Angeles

Los Angeles — The third Floyd Patterson-Johannsson bout and a middleweight title bout between Gene Fullmer and Sugar Ray Robinson may be brought to Los Angeles next fall, the California athletic commission indicated.

Feature Sports Inc., which promoted the second Patterson-Johannsson fight in New York and then complained over lack of police protection, disclosed it had applied for a license to stage the "rubber" meeting between the pair at the vast Los Angeles Coliseum. A state athletic commission hearing on the application is scheduled for July 16.

At the same time the United Press International learned that the Olympic Boxing club, local promoters, are dickering for the Fullmer-Robinson bout as the first television show of the fall season to be staged by Madison Square Garden for its new TV affiliation (ABC).

Net Team Vies at KF

First of four inter-city tennis matches in which players from the Medford city recreation program are participating was underway in Klamath Falls today.

Coach Bob Huff had a team of five boys and five girls at Klamath Falls. Boys, No. 1 through 5, were John McKinley, Scott Carpenter, Gary Highland, A. T. Highland and Jim Hatch. On the girls' crew were Nancy Hinman, Laura Batzer, Mary Walsh, Jan Stewart and Paula Lowery.

Medford will go to Grants Pass on July 15. Klamath's city team will come here on July 22 and Grants Pass will have its team in Medford on July 29.

Huff said that the regular intramural tourney will be held in connection with the Medford tennis program with boys and girls senior and junior divisions.

which is weighing bids from prospective purchasers of the controlling interest in the club which was held by Johnson. Johnson, a Chicagoan, died in Florida last winter.
