Major Stars Meet in KC On Monday

By JACK BRANNAN
Kansas City, Mo. — A cross section of old veterans and new faces will make up the cast Monday when the All-Star baseball game makes its Kansas City debut in Municipal stadium.

For the first time in Kansas City's long baseball history, first as a high-ranking minor league center and for the last six years the home of the American League Athletics, the game's top stars will gather here for the drama which draws second billing only to the World Series.

More than 31,000 are expected to see the game. Former American League President Will Harridge throws out the first ball. Millions more will watch it on nationwide television.

The second All-Star game, an innovation last year, will be played Wednesday in New York.

Neither American league manager Al Copez nor National league pilot Walt Alton, who managed last year's pennant winners, has named his starting pitcher. But each has a 10-man mound staff that would have delighted any All-Star manager over the 27-year history of the game.

Although the managers picked the pitchers and reserves for the All-Star team, the players themselves voted to select the starting lineup.

Dodgers, Sox Still in Loop Pennant Races

United Press International
Who said the Dodgers and White Sox are dead?

For a while it looked as if they were, but that hardly was the case Friday.

Combining solid pitching and timely hitting, the Dodgers huffed and puffed their way to a 5-3 victory over the Chicago Cubs behind a nifty relief performance by Ed Roebuck.

And the White Sox, who lost out to the Dodgers in the World Series last fall, belted the Cleveland Indians, 4-1, with Frank Baumann, a former sore-arm case like Roebuck, tossing an impressive six-hitter.

The Dodgers' victory, their fifth in-a-row and 10th in 12 games, moved the defending world champions into third place in the National league race, eight games off Pittsburgh pace. They still have a long way to go to catch up, but there is a strong parallel in their recent surge to the drive they made at about this time last year after a similarly slow start.

The White Sox, getting into a habit of beating the Cleveland Indians this season, found themselves in about the same spot in the American league race. Bugged down with both the pitching and hitting off, they finally got squared away, winning three straight and nine of 14.

NY Giant Pros Sign Contracts

New York — (UPI) — Halfbacks Frank Gifford and Alex Webster, who helped the New York Giants to two consecutive Eastern division championships in the National Football league, returned their signed contracts for 1960 Saturday.

This will mark Gifford's ninth year with the Giants. The 30-year-old perennial All-Pro choice at halfback is the all-time club leader in touchdowns scored (52), rushing yardage (3,341) and passes caught (231).

Webster, 29, came to New York from Canada in 1955. Although hampered by injuries part of last season, he gained a total of 836 yards.

Bevs Take Two From Spokane

By RAY ANDREWS
United Press International
R. C. Stevens of Salt Lake belted his 21st homer of the Pacific Coast league season Friday night and he couldn't have picked a better spot.

San Diego was leading the Bees 3-2 when Stevens came up in the sixth with Sam Milley aboard.

Stevens picked on a fat one and blasted it over the left field fence to give the Bees a 4-3 win over the Padres.

In other action, Sacramento edged Tacoma, 3-2, Seattle beat Vancouver 5-2 and Portland struck in the late innings to take Spokane 6-5 and 3-2.

Portland pulled the trigger in the late innings for its double wins over Spokane.

Don Taussig hit a two-run double in the last of the eighth in the scheduled seven-inning opener to drive in the winning run. Roy Smalley had hit a solo homer in the top of the extra inning battle to give Spokane a temporary lead.

The Beavers also waited late to win the second game. Jerry Mason got the job done with a ninth-inning single that drove across the deciding run.

Safety Object Of Go Karter Law Proposal

Indianapolis — In a sincere effort to keep the fast growing sport of karting at a maximum safety level, the United States Kart association has announced the drafting of proposed legislation to control the sport.

"Karts do not belong on streets," declared Don J. Beebe, executive director of USKA. "We believe the legislation we have proposed will, if adopted by cities and states, put kart racing in its proper place, on recognized, controlled race courses."

"We are not attempting to dictate legislation to any group; we are merely suggesting a means by which the sport of karting can be an enjoyable and safe recreation for everyone."

Beebe noted that during the past year there were over 250,000 karts in operation in the United States and that 11 persons were killed. Of these, only four deaths occurred on race tracks and none of these tracks were recognized by USKA as meeting their standards of safety.

In the proposed legislation, USKA says in part: "It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation, whether he, she, or it, be owner, driver or operator of any kart as the same herein defined, to use, operate, drive or race the same upon any public street, public alley, public sidewalk or public park."

Further, the proposed legislation contains a clause whereby parents or guardians are liable for the actions of minors who are allowed to operate, drive or race a kart. The amount of fine to be paid for violation of the proposed ordinance is left to the individual cities.

It was expected that many cities where the sport of karting has been booming will take a close look at the proposed legislation and either adopt it as written or use it as a model for drafting their own rules and regulations concerning the sport.
