

Huntleys Back From Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Huntley, 2170 Crater Lake avenue, have returned from a trip they took in a private plane to Idaho and Montana. Mr. Huntley is a member of the Medford Flying club.

The first night they visited Master Sergeant and Mrs. Royce Robinson, friends they had met in Alaska who are now stationed at Mountain Home, Idaho. From there they visited Mr. Huntley's father, Raymond Huntley, and Mrs. Huntley and children, Alice and Ronnie, in Lewiston, Idaho.

In Great Falls, Mont., they visited Mrs. Huntley's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Wright, and children, Claude Jr. and Kathryn.

Other relatives visited included Mr. and Mrs. Orville Wright, Havre, Mont., Mrs. Huntley's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Papilio and daughter, Joyce, and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Huntley, Baker, Mont., Mr. Huntley's brother and sister-in-law, and children Jeannie and Patty.

While in Laurel they visited Mr. and Mrs. L. W. DeNittis and attended the 20th class reunion attended by about 35 classmates of Mr. Huntley.

Prior to returning to Medford the couple attended the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. Huntley's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Huntley, Reeds Point, Mont. The event was attended by about 300 persons including the Percy Huntley's son, Chet Huntley, the news commentator from New York City.

New Exhibit For Gallery

A preview showing of the July exhibit "Member's Choice" will be held Tuesday, July 12, at the Rogue gallery, 220 West Main street, from 8 to 10 p.m.

The exhibition is of privately owned works of art from the membership of the Rogue Valley Art association. The exhibit includes artists of local, regional and national reputation.

The showing will continue through Friday, July 29, except Mondays. The hours will be from noon until 4 p.m. and is open to the public without charge.

Among the some 75 guests who attended the reception July 1 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Bash, 1325 Bundy street, honoring their son and his fiancée were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ross (left above) and Thomas H. Ness, brother of Mrs. Bash, Frank N. Bash

Grand Officers To Attend Degree Event

Harry J. Young, Portland, most excellent grand high priest of the grand chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Oregon, will be among officers attending the 14th annual Royal Arch outdoor degree Saturday, July 16, at Folding Hills ranch near McLeod.

Others of the official grand chapter expected to attend are Vilas J. Brown, grand king; Simeon H. Sawyer, grand scribe; Claude F. Sanders, grand captain of host; Richard H. Tusant, grand secretary; and Glenn W. Smith, grand royal arch captain.

This is the 14th year the degree has been staged outdoors. The event attracts members and wives from throughout Oregon and northern California. Many chapters bring candidates.

A dinner will be served at 6 p.m. preceding the conferring of degrees. Royal Arch Widows of the valley, and visiting wives, will attend a dinner and evening of entertainment at the V. A. Turpin home, Old Military road, during the Masonic event.

Royal Arch Masonry has been in the valley for 100 years, and local chapters won many honors at this year's grand chapter meeting in Portland in April.

Miss Dian Flack, Donald Staley Engagement Told

Of interest here is news of the announcement recently in Boise, Idaho, of the engagement of Miss Dian Flack, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Percy Flack, Boise, to Donald Martin Staley, Eagle Point. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Staley, Eagle Point.

The announcement was made July 7 at a brunch at the Flack home. The young couple's wedding is set for August 15 in Boise.

Miss Flack was graduated from Stanford university in 1955 and has been assistant to the editor of Bride and Home magazine in New York City the past four years.

The bridegroom-to-be attended Columbia university, the University of Mexico and the University of Madrid, and served with the Army Security agency in Europe. He is a member of the Southern Oregon Society of Artists and the Rogue Valley Art association.

Former Residents Visit Applegate; To Go to Germany

Applegate Valley - Mr. and Mrs. Chester Lind and sons, Roger and Phillip, who have spent the last three years in the Orient, visited friends and relatives in southern Oregon during the past week while en route to Stuttgart, Germany, where Mr. Lind will teach in an American army dependent school next term.

Mr. Lind taught children of military and civilian personnel in American schools of Okinawa for a year, and spent another two years teaching in Japan in both elementary and junior high schools.

He is a former resident of the Applegate and is a graduate of Southern Oregon college, obtaining his master's degree there in 1955. The family expected to visit in southern California and in Kansas, as well as in Washington, D.C., and New York City before leaving for Germany. They also planned to visit Col. Lorna Kubil in New Bedford, Mass.

After their arrival in Europe they will attend the Passion play in Oberammergau, Germany, and the summer Olympics in Rome.

Miss Ramsay to Spend Summer in Honolulu

Applegate Valley - Miss Mary Beth Ramsay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Ramsay, is spending the summer in Honolulu as a guest of her uncle and aunt, Capt. and Mrs. Edwin A. Post, Hickham Air field.

In June Miss Ramsay completed her freshman year at Pacific university, Forest Grove, and joined her parents on a trip to Carlsbad, Calif., for a family reunion before flying to Hawaii. While vacationing in the islands she is taking physical education credits at University of Hawaii, Honolulu.

At Carlsbad the family were guests of Mr. Ramsay's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Ramsay, who live in the old family home where he was born. Among others joining the group was Miss Ramsay's brother, John Ramsay, seaman, USN, stationed at the U.S. Navy amphibian base at Coronado, Calif. While in the south Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Ramsay attended the high school graduation of Mr. Ramsay's niece, Betsy Jean Ramsay, at Corona, Calif., and also motored to Tijuana, Mexico.

Dinner Honors Grace Stuhr

A patio potluck dinner and handkerchief shower was given in honor of Miss Grace Stuhr Tuesday, July 5, in the garden of Mrs. Fred Rankin's home, 18 Richmond avenue. It was given by several Altrusans and district nurse friends of Miss Stuhr.

Miss Stuhr, who is retiring after several years as chief nurse at the Camp White Domiciliary, has been active in many Medford clubs and organizations while living at the domiciliary and plans to return to Medford to live after a visit to relatives and friends in Minnesota. She left Friday.

A surprise guest was Miss Grace Smith, former president of the Altrusa Club of Medford, who was visiting relatives in Medford. She returned Wednesday morning to her home in Ritzville, Wash., where she is a home extension agent. Miss Smith spent her Christmas holidays in the Hawaiian Islands where she visited the home of a college classmate, a Japanese home extension agent. Miss Smith showed colored pictures of the islands to the party group after the buffet dinner.
