Dance Recital Held by Club

Illinois Valley — The annual dance recital held recently at Illinois Valley High school was sponsored by the Illinois Valley Lions club. Theme was "An Evening of Dance." Choreography and costumes were handled by Mrs. Ruth Bennett, who was assisted by Mrs. Bob Kellenbeck, Grants Pass. Children's costumes were handmade by their mothers. Participating were local youngsters as well as several from Grants Pass.

The painting above, entitled "The Birds," is one of a number which Mrs. T. L. McDaniels (left) plans to exhibit at the coming Greenwich Village art show in Medford Library park. Mrs. Thomas D. Grissom (right) is publicity chairman for the show, sponsored by the Southern Oregon Society of Artists. Paintings and sculpture will be shown in the park from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday, July 16. Members of the Senior Activity center have accepted an invitation to exhibit their art work at the show. Society members Mrs. A. R. Schoenberg, Clifford Platz, Mrs. Tom Staley, Mrs. Ross Tvedell and Mrs. Nettie Williams have helped with the center's classes. Another show is planned by the society for Ashland Lithia park during the Shakespearean festival. Also planned for southern Oregon art lovers is the 13th annual southern Oregon art exhibit sponsored by the Grants Pass branch of the American Association of University Women. It will be held August 5, 6 and 7 at the girls gymnasium at Grants Pass High school.

Couple Take Canada Trip Following Ashland Rites

Ashland — Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Eby are making a trip to Canada following their wedding Sunday, June 26, in Ashland Methodist church. The bride is the former Mrs. Mattie Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gray Moore, 195 Garfield street.

Dr. P. Malcom Hammond performed the double-ring ceremony at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon before a setting of pink and white gladioli, greenery and candelabra.

The bride, who was attended by her daughter, Miss Janis Anderson, wore an afternoon dress of pink nylon. It was designed with three-quarter length sleeves, an empire waistline, and pink satin cummerbund. She carried a rosebud nosegay.

Miss Anderson wore a yellow dress of summer cotton, with a full skirt and fitted bodice. She carried a nosegay of gardenias. The bride's mother wore a blue and white jacket dress with a carnation corsage.

David Thompson, Ephrata, Wash., served as best man. Steven Carroll and Dustin Gerbing, Eagle Point, were ushers. William Beeson played the organ.

A reception followed in the fireside room of the church. Mrs. Robert Mullin and Mrs. Beeson served cake and Mrs. Beryl Siead poured punch. Mrs. Jack Weaver was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. George Fuller, cousin of the bride, was hostess. Mrs. David Thompson served the bridegroom's cake and Miss Pat Childreth was at the gift table. Mrs. Dennis McCoy, Mrs. Earl Oden and Mrs. W. B. Martin were in charge of floral arrangements. Mrs. Walter Bosshard assisted with plans for the wedding.

The bride formerly was employed by Rogue Valley Country club and is now hostess at the Ashland Elks Dining room. The bridegroom is a purchasing agent for Chert Brothers and Sankay Construction, Ephrata, Wash.

They will make their home at 1001 East Main street.

The bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Clark, and family traveled here from Texas for the wedding.
