

Christina Ann Peterson Is Bride of Dale Smith

Central Point — Miss Christina Ann Peterson became the bride of Dale Ray Smith in a ceremony at the Robert W. Lowe home, 1128 West Main street, Friday, July 1. Bishop William Davis of the Ashland Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints officiated at the single ring rites.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Peterson, 77 Orr drive, Central Point. Mr. Smith's mother is Mrs. Olive M. Smith, Pitt Star routes, box 60, Butte Falls.

Mrs. Walter Jensen, Medford, played the wedding music for the 8:30 o'clock evening ceremony attended by 25 relatives and friends.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white lace frock with shoulder length veil and white accessories. Her flowers were red rosebuds.

Miss Edna Roberta Peterson attended her sister. She wore a yellow polka-dot nylon frock. Edward H. Trefren served as best man for his brother.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Lowe home.

The bride is a student at Crater High school. Mr. Smith attended Butte Falls High school and is employed by Donna Timber company. They are making their home at 233 1/2 Beatty street, Medford.

Miss Mary Grumbach Is Bride of Ronald McKenna

Miss Mary Catherine Grumbach, 305 Portland avenue, became the bride of Ronald J. McKenna, 104 Florence avenue, in a double-ring nuptial mass at Sacred Heart Catholic church June 18. The Rev. John Ilg read the mass at 10 o'clock in the morning.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Grumbach, Chewelah, Wash., and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McKenna, Galt, Ill.

White baskets of blue daisies and white stock provided a setting for the wedding. Miss Frances Thrun and John Cookler, Medford, sang hymns and Bruno Pellegrini was at the organ.

The bride's father escorted her to the altar. She wore a full-length gown of white lace and tulle over taffeta with a short scalloped over-skirt which tapered in back to the floor. Her short-sleeved lace jacket was designed with a petal collar. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis and pink rosebuds on a white prayer book which had belonged to her grandmother.

The bride's fingertip-length veil was held by a white lace crown, which was loaned by her sister, Mrs. Maxwell Anderson, Spokane, Wash.

Mrs. Anderson served as matron of honor. She wore a white princess sheath dress of white satin with a pale blue flocked nylon organza overskirt and white satin cummerbund. Her bouquet was of white carnations and blue daisies. She wore a blue headband.

Laurie Windle, Spokane, who served as flower girl, wore a pale blue dotted Swiss nylon with a white nylon pinafore. She carried a basket of blue daisies.

Wayne McKenna, the bridegroom's brother, was best man. Keith Lockard and William Messer were ushers.

Mrs. Anna Johnson and Mrs. C. Windle were hostesses at a small reception following the wedding. Mrs. Windle and Mrs. Ray LeFevre, aunt of the bridegroom, served cake and Mrs. Richard Traylor, cousin of the bridegroom, poured punch.

The couple traveled to the southern California coast on their honeymoon and will reside at 108 Florence avenue. The bride attended Holy Names college, Spokane, Wash., and is a homemaker teacher at McLoughlin Junior High school. The bridegroom attended Southern Oregon college and is a sixth grade teacher at Central Point.

Travel Group To Take Stern Wheeler Trip

The Arm Chair Travel group will be taken on a "stern wheeler" trip down the Yukon river at a meeting at 1 p.m. Monday, July 11, at the Senior Activity center. Doremus Scudder, a former resident of Sitka, Alaska, will speak concerning the "sour trough trail of '88' from White Horse to Dawson City.

Mr. Scudder moved to Medford with his family about two years ago. He formerly worked as an investigator for an Indian service in Alaska and traveled by all types of conveyance all over Alaska, the Klondike and the Arctic circle. He has hundreds of colored slides of the region.

The first showing from his slide collection will be made Monday and another is planned for August.

Teacher Installed Alpha OES Head

Ashland—Mrs. Della Weber, 145 Sherman street, was recently installed as worthy matron of Alpha chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, at ceremonies in Ashland Masonic hall. G. Richard Trites was installed as worthy patron. An audience of 325 Eastern Stars, Masons and guests attended.

Mrs. Weber is a long-time Medford school teacher, having taught music at Jackson school for 13 years before moving to Jefferson school, where she has taught the past five years.

Morris Boughner, Medford, worthy grand patron of the grand chapter of Oregon, was one of the installing officers.

Woodenwring, drama and shuffleboard classes will not meet at the center until the weather is cooler, according to the center committee, but Spanish, art and orchestra classes will continue as usual. A total of 212 men and women attended classes during June.

Better ventilation of the building has been achieved through the use of electric fans brought by class members.

The center orchestra has grown to 17 pieces. The group also sings as a chorus.

Art class members are reminded that pictures they wish to show at the Greenwich Village art exhibit are to be brought to the next class Tuesday, July 12, at 1 p.m. The show will be held Saturday, July 16, in the Library park.

Visit Parents In Gold Hill

Gold Hill—Mr. and Mrs. Lee Marsden Jr. and daughter, Brenda, were guests over the July 4th week end at the homes of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Dungey and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Marsden, Gold Hill.

The Marsdens recently moved to Roseville, Calif. from Tucson, Ariz. Their son, Elmer Lee Marsden, who had been visiting his grandparents and other relatives here the past two weeks, returned to Roseville with them on Monday.

Visits

Miss Nettie Pomajbo of San Francisco, Calif., recently returned home after spending the Fourth of July holiday with her mother, Mrs. W. C. McCorkle, Medford.
