

Local and Personal

Law Books Taken - James Carlyle Wilson, Eagle Point, told city police Monday that a set of law books, valued at $15, were taken from his car while it was parked in downtown Medford recently.

Boys Questioned - City police questioned three youths, ages 12, 14 and 15, regarding fire works being exploded at the YMCA Monday afternoon. One of the youths admitted to police he exploded a firecracker and another youth admitted that he purchased the firecrackers in the state of Washington and has been reselling them to local youths.

Driver Cited - City police cited Henry William Van Hise, 65, of 111 Glenwood dr., for disobeying a stop sign after the car he was operating was involved in a collision with a car operated by Jerry Dale Lindsey, 21, of 2334 Corey rd., Monday about 5:43 p.m. at the intersection of Eighth and Bartlett sts. Police said both vehicles sustained moderate damage to the front end. There were no reported injuries.

Car Hits Horse - A car operated by Cecil Ralph Wedburn, Mud Springs rd., Medford, struck a horse about 12:30 p.m. Monday on the road in front of 306 Pierce rd., according to city police who stood by at the scene of the accident until sheriff's deputies arrived. Police did not know the extent of the horse's injuries, if any, but said the impact of the collision had caused the horse to run into and become entangled in a barbed wire fence.

Portland Firms Guffed by Flames

Portland - (UPI)—A fire gutted the ground floor of a string of businesses in Northwest Portland late Tuesday and residents of two apartment floors above the street had to be evacuated.

The four-alarm blaze started at about 10 p.m. in the basement of a cafe at 823 NW 23rd Ave. and fire spread upwards into apartments.

Two firemen were overcome by smoke and were given resuscitation treatment.

Damage to the buildings was not immediately available but two businesses alone totaled damage at more than $100,000.
