DeVicenzo Champion In France

Paris (UPI) — Bill Johnston of Provo, Utah, will join next week's field for the PGA tournament at Akron, Ohio, with a lot more prestige as a result of his play in the British and French Open championships.

The 35-year-old Johnston, now in his 11th year on the U. S. pro circuit, Wednesday finished in a tie for second place behind Roberto DeVicenzo of Mexico in the French Open.

In the British Open the week before, Johnston and Arnold Palmer were the only Americans who qualified for the final two rounds of the tournament.

DeVicenzo shot nine birdies on the last of Wednesday's two rounds to win the French Open with a 72-hole total of 275 strokes.

Johnston, who led the field by one stroke at the 36-hole mark, shot rounds of 72 and 70 on the St. Cloud course to wind up in a tie for runner-up at 278 strokes with Leopold Ruiz of Argentina.

West Golf Open Begins

Detroit (UPI) — Most of the attention was centered on defending champion Mike Souchak and Art Wall Jr., today as the field of 162 — representing the nation's finest golfers — began their four-day march over the Western golf course to open the 57th annual Western Open.

Victories in the last two major PGA tournaments have established Souchak and Wall as the pre-tournament favorites in the $25,000 Western scramble.

Souchak, who won last year's Western at Pittsburgh by one stroke with a final round 65, turned his best performance of the year two weeks ago with a comeback, one-stroke triumph in the Buick Open at Flint.

Included in the field are such big names as Bob Rosburg, who defends his PGA title next week at Akron, Ohio, Ken Venturi, Jerry Barber, Billy Casper, Doug Ford, Tommy Bolt, Gene Littler, Cary Middlecoff and Sam Snead.

The only notables not entered are Palmer, who has previous commitments, Dow Finsterwald and Ben Hogan.

Seeded Tennis Players Advance

Portland (UPI) — Two of the top five seeded players are in the Oregon state tennis tournament's third round matches here Wednesday.

Third-seeded Jack Neer of Portland, defeated Wayne Collette, Los Angeles, 6-0, 6-2, and another Portlander, Bill Rose, whipped Mike Farrell, Berkeley, Calif., 6-6, 6-2.

Second-seeded Bob Delgado of Los Angeles is slated to play his third round match Thursday. Top-seeded Norm Perry of Los Angeles and Jim Jefferies of Stanford, Calif., were forced to withdraw from the tourney on Tuesday, Perry due to a case of chickenpox and Jefferies because of an injured leg.

In women's action Wednesday, top-seeded Andria Miller of San Francisco, who drew a bye in the first round, posted a second round win against Sue Huff of Tacoma, Wash., 6-0, 6-2.

Perfect Scores In Trap Meet

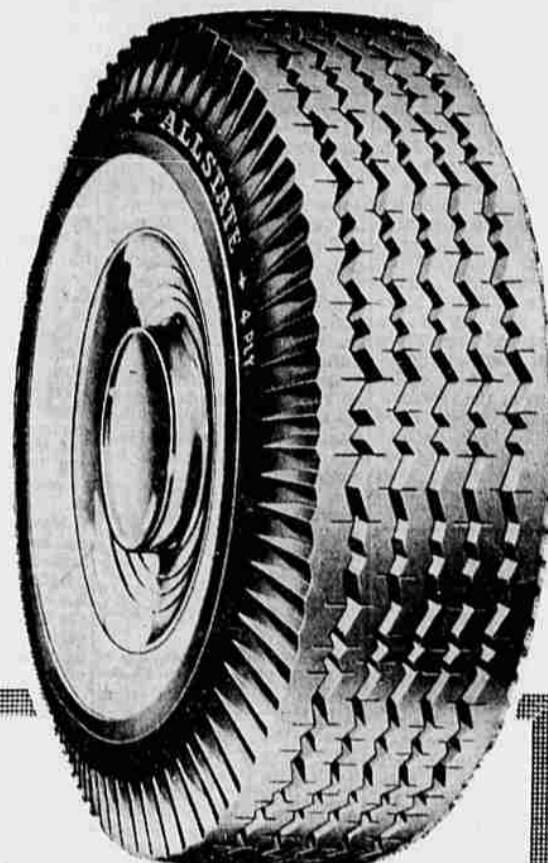

Reno (UPI) — Ronald Sellers, Bountiful, Utah, smashed 100 targets for a perfect score Wednesday in the Smith Family handicap of the Greater Pacific Trapshooting tournament.

Margaret Ogilby, Rydal, Pa., took runner-up honors after defeating Sherm Jones, Santa Ana, Calif., and Don Young, Kuna, Idaho, in a three-way shootout after each had hit 99 targets.

Four shooters scored 100s in 18-yard competition. George Neary, Los Altos, Calif., won the Class AA shooting. Jerry Abernathy, Welches, Ore., won the Class A in a shootout with John Cole, Oakland, Calif., and Harold Woolley, Drain, Ore., after all fired perfect scores.

BOXER DENIES REPORTS
Mexico City (UPI) — Jose Beccra, world bantamweight champion, Wednesday denied reports that he had planned an early retirement and said he would fight at least until 1962. He also denied that he and his manager, Pancho Rosales, had split up.
