

Youth Hold Swimming Party at Hawthorne

Talent - Last Sunday 13 members of the Junior Methodist Youth Fellowship of Talent Methodist church held a swimming party at Hawthorne park. Accompanying the group of young people were Miss Phyllis Floyd, Fred Bayer and Mrs. R. A. Foster, accompanied by her son, Patrick.

Welcome Home Set by Church

The Rev. Ed Stauffer will preach at both services of the First Baptist church Sunday. He has been in Portland this week with his wife, who was hospitalized following a recent accident, and Mr. Stauffer will bring her to Medford tomorrow. The congregation is planning a "Welcome home" for them this week end.

At the morning worship service, the choir will sing "I Know Whom I Have Believed," and soloist will be Miss Julia Gandt.

Youth services will be at 6:30 p.m. Sunday for all ages, junior through college, Ned Landers, youth director, announces. An adult study class will be taught by Albert Gandt at the same hour.

Fire side for all young people will be in the church basement immediately after the evening preaching service, featuring the film "Before the Harvest." This film depicts the Amazon exploits of two missionaries who worked among the Chavante Tribe of Indians. Adults are also invited.

Nazarenes Plan for District Meeting in Clackamas

The annual district camp meeting sponsored by the Oregon Pacific District, Church of the Nazarene will be held in Clackamas, Ore., at the district campground. Members and interested friends of the Church of the Nazarene will attend from throughout western Oregon including a number from the local churches.

Speakers this year are Dr. Edward Lawler, district superintendent of the Canada west district, recently elected secretary of the department of evangelism for the denomination; and Dr. T. W. Willingham, executive director of the Nazarene radio league.

Opening service will be Thursday, July 21, and services will be held thereafter throughout each day through July 31. Preaching services are held three times a day: 10:45 a.m. and 2:45 and 7:30 p.m. Children's services are held at 10:45 a.m. and 2:45 p.m.

Youth activities will include a camp fire each night. A teen-age choir will sing in the evening services.

Dr. W. D. McGraw, Portland, is the general manager of the camp and will be in charge of the services from day to day.

Lessons From Job Is Sermon Topic

"Timely Lessons from the Book of Job" is the sermon topic chosen for Sunday's services at St. Peter's Lutheran, East Main st. and Vancouver ave., by the pastor, the Rev. John E. Simon.

The early service begins at 8:15 a.m. It will be a communion service. The later service will be at 11 a.m. Sunday school for all age groups begins at 9:30 a.m.

The quarterly voters' meeting of the congregation will convene at 2:30 p.m. on Sunday. Planning meetings by the church's young people for the annual Oregon District Walther League convention in Medford Sept. 9 to 11 will continue Wednesday at 7:30 p.m.

Arkansas Minister To Preach Sunday

The Rev. Carl Johnson, pastor of the First Baptist church, Mountain View, Ark., who has been holding nightly meetings at the First Southern Baptist church, 794 Lozier lane, will remain in Medford through Sunday.

He will speak at both the 10:45 a.m. and 8 p.m. services Sunday. His topics will be "God's Plan in Change of Leadership" and "The Need and Nature of the New Birth."

First Christian Sermon Titles Told for Sunday

"Enlarge Your Tents" is the title of the sermon which the Rev. Fredrick Ross Evans will preach at both services Sunday morning at the First Christian church.

At the first service the youth choir will sing the anthem "Ivory Palaces." A quartet including Mr. and Mrs. Gary Beard and Mrs. and Mrs. M. E. Olson will sing "The King of Love My Shepherd Is" at the 10:55 a.m. service.

A number of the High School Christian Youth Fellowship will be going to Little River Christian camp Sunday for a week. There will be a CYF meeting at the church at 6:30 p.m. Sunday for those who do not go to camp.

The Chi Rho Fellowship will meet at 7 p.m. They have been in camp the past week. Dale W. Medearis, associate executive secretary for church development under the United Christian Missionary Society will be in Medford this week. He will meet with some of the members of the First Christian church to survey the area for needs of a second Christian church in Medford within the next ten years. This is part of the Christian Churches Decade of Decision program.

July 24 there will be congregational business meetings after each service for the purpose of the members voting whether or not to ask the board of church extension of Christian churches to conduct a building fund raising program for the local church. The board of the church has previously voted to do this.

Methodists To Hear Dr. Titus Frazee

"Bargain Counter Religion" is the sermon title of Dr. Titus Frazee, who will be the guest preacher at First Methodist church Sunday.

Dr. Frazee is executive director of the Oregon Council on Alcohol Problems. The anthem for the 9:30 a.m. worship service by the youth choir is "O Jesu Sweet." The soloist for the 11 a.m. service will be Mrs. J. C. Kaylor, singing "Spirit of God."

The Older Youth will meet at 6:30 p.m. The Rev. Robert Dowrey will present Dear and Glorious Phylis, the book about St. Luke. Fireside will follow at the Downey home, 918 Murray ave.

Tuesday the board of trustees will meet at 7 a.m. at the Town House cafe, 127 South Central ave. The official board will meet Tuesday at 7:45 p.m.

Devotional Topic Told for Unity

Mrs. Katharine Bosworth, minister of the Unity Center of Medford will speak Sunday at the devotional service at 11 a.m. on "Is There Man?"

The service will be held at the Pythian hall, Fifth and Grape sts.

The Center is located at 995 South Oakdale ave., and is open Monday through Friday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. For private consultation with the minister by appointment, telephone SP 2-8902.

Saturday Speaker Told for Church

Pastor H. R. Nelson, Portland, will be the guest speaker at the Medford Seventh-day Adventist church Saturday at 11 a.m.

Pastor Nelson is the recently elected educational secretary of the Oregon Conference, replacing Pastor E. L. Gammon who was called to mission service in the Middle East division, with headquarters at Beirut, Lebanon.

Religious Service Schedule Told For Crater Lake Park

More than 15 million vacationers in America's national parks this summer will be able to worship God in natural cathedrals under the open sky.

Representing 40 colleges and 35 theological seminaries, 142 young men and women spend the summer in the national parks as desk clerks, waitresses, bellhops, filling station attendants and the like. In their off-duty hours, these students who, come from 40 states, will assist in organizing services of worship and will serve as chaplain-counselors.

This year Mr. Ost estimates that his "parish," which covered about one million acres, will be serving more than a million men and women. It is probably the world's largest, and he travels more than 50,000 miles a year by horseback, jeep and plane to cover it. This travel is necessary to enable Mr. Ost to contact local committees and park employees, recruit the student pastors, train them and supervise their work.

As a service to tourists and Oregon residents, the Mail Tribune is publishing the weekly schedule of religious services at resort areas for the summer months.

Local Presbyterians Tell Summer Schedules, Events

The First Presbyterian church, Eighth and Holly sts., will play host to the Presbyterian Men and ministers of the Southwest Oregon Presbytery, who will meet for dinner at 6:30 p.m. on July 18 in the fellowship hall.

This meeting is for a two-fold purpose. The first is the discussion of ways and means of making the annual conferences at Sacramento more meaningful. The second is to discuss the theme of the 1961 Western Area Conference in February in Sacramento, "God So Loved... He Gave..."

The keynote speaker for the evening will be Ed Pritchard, associate secretary of the United Presbyterian Men. Pritchard is from San Francisco and has the 11 Western states for his territory.

Men will be asked to return to their respective churches and hold discussion meetings on this theme. It is found that prior study on the theme makes for a more educational and rewarding conference.

Sunday the Rev. G. Robert Jacks will use as his sermon topic "A Letter From Christ."

The chancel choir under the direction of Mrs. Stanley Lacy will sing, "Praise to the Lord" for the 11 a.m. service and the youth choir "I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say" for the 9:30 a.m. service. Miss Linda - Jo Waltemire will sing, "How Beautiful Upon the Mountains" for both services.

Missionaries To Speak Here Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Chapman, Friends missionaries to Bolivia, will be at the Friends church Sunday.

They will speak in the opening assemblies of Sunday school at 9:45 and 11 a.m. and will have charge of the 8 p.m. service. At that time Mr. Chapman will show slides accompanied by a tape recording, which he prepared during his last term in Bolivia. Mrs. Chapman will sing.

The Chapmans and their three children live in Portland at present, where he is preparing printed materials in the Aymara dialect to be used on the mission field.

Pastor Clynton Crisman will give the message in the worship services at 9:45 and 11 a.m. Deane Roberts will be soloist. Christian Endeavor will be held at 7 p.m.

Missionary Group Meeting Set Tonight

Missionary Volunteer meeting will be in the Medford Seventh-day Adventist church tonight at 8 o'clock.

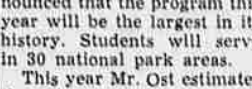

John Doherty, the Medford society's delegate to the recent Youth's Congress in Atlantic City, N. J., will give a report of the congress and show pictures he took on his trip.

There will be no Missionary Volunteer meeting for the next two weeks because of the annual camp meeting at Gladstone park. The next regular meeting will be Aug. 6 in the Valley View church.

Jacksonville Church To Hold Services On Applegate River

Jacksonville - The second in a series of science films produced by the Moody Bible Institute, Chicago, will be shown Thursday, July 21, at First Presbyterian church, Jacksonville.

The name of the film is "God of Creation." Through the telescope the camera investigates the immensity of space; through the microscope it peers into the teeming world of tiny creatures in a single drop of water.

The music will be provided by the Rev. Robert Jacks, First Presbyterian church, Medford. Refreshments will be served following the film.

The program for Sunday is different. Both the Sunday school and church worship service will be held at a spot overlooking the Applegate river, rather than in the church building in Jacksonville. Everyone will meet at the church between 10 and 10:15 a.m. Sunday. Then they will all travel to the Applegate together, arriving in time for an 11 a.m. service.

During the worship service the Sunday school classes will be held for children through the third grade. The Rev. King K. Jones will speak on "So Much For Religion - Now To Life."

After the service there will be a picnic lunch. This will be followed by a short series of recreation. The day's events will conclude with a vesper service about 4 p.m.

All members and friends of the church may wear their picnic clothes and join the church for the day of worship and recreation.

At 7 p.m. on Tuesday in the pastor's study the second in a series of classes for new members will be held. Anyone who is interested in church membership is welcome.

Quartet To Appear At Church of God

The Anderson, Ind. College Envoy quartet will appear at the First Church of God, Haven and Holly sts., Thursday, July 21, according to the Rev. W. E. Martin, pastor. The program, which begins at 7:30 p.m., will consist of hymns, gospel songs, personal testimony, and special numbers.

Members of the quartet are Ted Martin Pomona, Calif.; D. C. Holloway, Hartsville, Ala.; Ralph Toon, Fayetteville, Tenn.; and Fred Shively, Springfield, Ohio. Their accompanist is Bob Asel, Eldred, Pa. The group's summer schedule will take them through 13 states.

A get-acquainted hour with the people of the First Church of God is being planned by Mr. Martin and will be held at the church.

St. Luke's Church Tells Activities

Church school begins at 9 a.m. Sunday with divine worship at 10 a.m. at St. Luke's Methodist church, 2904 Siskiyou blvd.

At a meeting of the congregation last week Dr. Ray Casterline was elected to serve as an elder-trustee. He will be installed in this office during the Sunday worship service.

Beginning Sunday morning children from the ages of 5 to 10 years will be excused half way through the morning worship service and will be cared for with a separate program of Bible stories and games. During the time that they are in the morning worship service, they will sit with their parents. A nursery for pre-school age children is conducted at the same time.

Church school classes for children from nursery through senior high school are conducted at 9:45 a.m. each week. An adult class also meets at that hour and is currently studying the minor prophets as well as discussing the uniqueness of some of the different Protestant churches.

Families that plan to leave early Sunday morning for an outing may stop by the church for family worship before their departure in order to maintain the habit of church attendance. The church will be open at 7:30 a.m. each Sunday during the summer for this purpose.

Westminster Presbyterian church is located on Oakwood dr., between Barneburg and Groveland aves.

Missionary Service Set; Camps Scheduled

The Rev. R. E. Cull, pastor of First Assembly of God, 1108 West Main st., will speak at the 11 a.m. Sunday worship service on the subject, "The Barren Fig Tree." A missionary service has been scheduled for Sunday at 7:30 p.m., when the Rev. Everett James, Costa Mesa, Calif., will speak and narrate a missionary film entitled, "Sun and Shadows." The film is a true story of the conversion of a Japanese Communist to the Christian faith. Mr. James is the national secretary of the Assembly of God organization, "Light For the Lost," which is active in furnishing printed materials for missionary work.

Mr. Cull, sectional presbyter in the Rogue valley area, announces that the Assembly of God youth camp will start Sunday evening. Teen-agers 13 through 18 years will use the camp July 17 through 22 and will open camp Sunday evening with a potluck supper. The camp, located 10 miles from Butte Falls, is known as the old CCC camp 2, and has been used annually by Assembly of God youth since 1952 through arrangements with the U.S. forest service.

The teen-age camp will be under the general supervision of the Rev. Harry Ayers, Grants Pass. Camp speaker is the Rev. William Stevens, Salem, who is state president of Christ Ambassador youth groups. The Rev. Elwood Irby, Jacksonville, is in charge of recreation and the Rev. Robert Cornwall, Ashland, is registrar and camp teacher.

Eastwood BAPTIST CHURCH Clifford J. Young, B.D.

Recently a man was heard to say, "I'm sick and tired of long faced Christians." Another man said, "that is a serious charge against Christianity." The answer, "It would be, if it were true; But it just isn't true."

Anyone would be sick and tired of long faced Christians, if such a phenomenon existed; but there isn't any such thing as a long faced Christian. There are long faced religionists, long faced theologians, and long faced pagans; but never a long faced Christian.
